

Rugby "last post"? Maybe but 'twas Blaze of glory

Maple Leafs Beat luckless Canadiens 3-1

By SYDNEY GRUSON Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—(CP)—The chances are against senior football being played in Canada next year because of the war, but if 1941 was the wind-up for the duration of the blaze of glory at the finish will reflect the season favorably for years to come.

Give and Take Rules

In review of the 1941 season provided some of Canadian football's brightest moments, topped by the renewal of the east-west classic after a year's postponement because of the drawn-out struggle over the sections' varying rules.

Good Old-Timers

The old stars were still the main-carriers for the Bombers, Fritz Hanson came back in remarkable fashion to pace the Bombers, first to the western crown and then to the national title with a performance that reminded the fans of his palmy afternoon in Hamilton six years ago.

Eastern Star

The player of the year in the east was Tony Golden Boy Golab of Ottawa's backfield, a triple-threat star who was awarded the Jeff Russel Memorial Trophy as the Big Four's outstanding man.

PRAIRIES' OWN OIL

No imports of crude oil into the prairie marketing area was necessary this year.

U.S. WANTS MORE

Demand for Canadian fresh water fish is constantly increasing in the United States.

MUST BEAT INFLATION

Canada's war effort will be seriously undermined and democracy in the Dominion will in all likelihood collapse unless inflation is beaten, Donald Gordon, wartime price and trade board chairman, told Canadian publishers at Ottawa.
