

SYDNEY PRESS ENDORSES FERRY PROJECT

Castigates Pictou Municipal Council For Opposing Wood Island—Caribou Service.

Under the heading "A Reactionary Protest" the Sydney Post Record says editorially:

"At this distance it is difficult to read sense into the protest forwarded to Ottawa by the Pictou Municipal Council against the proposed new car ferry service between Caribou and Prince Edward Island. The people mainly concerned are those who live in the Island Province, who have approved the new service both through a unanimous vote of the Legislature and by resolution of the Charlottetown Board of Trade. Pictou's interest in the scheme is but incidental and remote."

"Prince Edward Island now has daily communication with the mainland of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia by two services—namely the Borden-Pomenoy ferry, and the subsidized steamship route between Charlottetown and Pictou. In this way the western and central parts of the Province are reached by the fastest and most frequent crossings per day, the latter one every twenty-four hours. The Borden-Pomenoy ferry is admirably maintained as a link across the Northumberland Strait for the Canadian National Railway system. The Charlottetown-Pictou service furnished by the S. S. Hochelaga, which is operated by a Dominion grant of $20,000 per season is anything but satisfactory. The distance is approximately 50 miles and the crossing each way takes about 4 hours. The Hochelaga is not the type of boat for this service. Its speed and cabin accommodations being inadequate, and its tariffs so high as to be a most prohibitory factor in the transportation of cars, except in cases of sheer necessity."

"The plan suggested by the Federal authorities and endorsed by the Prince Edward Island Legislature is to substitute for the 60-mile, once-a-day, expensive route served by the Hochelaga a car ferry from the Wood Island landing on P. E. Island to Caribou in Pictou County—a distance of about 12 miles—affording a half-dozen or so round trips per day, furnishing facilities for many more cars per trip as the Hochelaga can carry, at tolls less than a quarter of those the subsidized boat now charges. A paved highway is also projected from Wood Island to Charlottetown, and thus a quick, cheap, and thoroughly modern means of communication will be given to the whole central and eastern territory of Prince Edward Island with Eastern Nova Scotia and the Island of Cape Breton."

"It is easy to understand the enthusiastic approval of the people of Prince Edward Island for the proposed service as it is difficult to discover any intelligent basis for the obstructive attitude of the Pictou Municipal Council toward it. The objections in the protest, the resolution that the Wood Island-Caribou ferry would be "a reckless waste of public money" and that it would "work a grave injustice to the farmers of Eastern Nova Scotia" are not impressive. It is something new under the sun for municipal councils to show such concern and alarm over the proposed expenditure of Federal money. Especially when a considerable portion of the proposed expenditure is to be made in the district where such a Council functions. It is difficult to believe that the municipal council of Pictou have been prompted to adopt this reactionary resolution by considerations of national economy. Some other explanation must be sought."

"Nor is the alleged fear that this new service will prejudice the interests of the farmers of Eastern Nova Scotia based on any tenable ground. If it is competition that is apprehended in the sale of produce, the answer surely is that Nova Scotia farmers always have an obvious advantage in their home market over outside rivals who have to pay rail or water transportation charges, or both, to reach it. In point of fact most of the Island produce that reaches the coast of Eastern Nova Scotia is carried either in steamers or small sailing vessels. The Wood Island-Caribou car ferry service is designed for an entirely different purpose, and cannot possibly affect the farmers either in Prince Edward Island or in this Province to any appreciable degree. That is of course except those of them who may wish to make the crossing by motor cars, and who appreciate a modern car and passenger service at modest transportation rates."

New Glasgow And Vicinity

The funeral of the late Bernice Page was held at her home at Ruslico on Thursday, January 18th at 1 o'clock and was one of the largest seen in that vicinity for years. Friends coming from all points to pay their last respects. Beautiful floral tributes were received and went to show the high esteem in which she was held. Rev. George Tuley and Rev. W. G. Quigley, who officiated at the service, during his address, delivered beautiful messages paying a fitting tribute to her past life and spoke words of sympathy to the parents and sisters who are left to mourn her passing. Rev. W. J. McLeod offered up prayer. The hymns, "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Tell Me the Story of Jesus," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." A male quartette, "Some Time Well Understand," by Messrs. Lowell and Herbert Wyand, and Roy and Cliff Stevenson were very effectively rendered. Walter Buntain and Mr. Earle McLure presided at the piano. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Bulman, Chas. L. Laid, Alfred Walker, Reid Stevenson, L. Bowen, William Toombs. Interment was held at the Ruslico cemetery where Rev. J. MacIntosh conducted the burial service.

On Monday evening, Jan. 17th, over one hundred friends and relatives of the late Mrs. Ernest Dickieson invaded their home at New Glasgow to celebrate with them their fortieth wedding anniversary. The weather was ideal, which made it possible for many people from a distance to attend. A beautiful bouquet of flowers was given Mrs. Dickieson by an old school chum, with whom she worked for the occasion. Mr. Daniel Nesbitt presented a well filled purse, which was accompanied by the following address read by Mrs. Fred Clark: "Dear Friends—On this very important occasion, your fortieth wedding anniversary, we, your friends and relatives of New Glasgow and adjoining districts have assembled to offer our heartiest congratulations and our sincerest best wishes for many happy returns, and we hope that ten years from this date many of us will be able to join in celebrating your golden wedding."

"During these forty years of wedded life you have proved your worth to the community and to the church of your allegiance, and have always been helpful in all that pertained to the good of both. In the church societies in the Women's Institute you, Mrs. Dickieson, have ever been a faithful and willing worker, while Mr. Dickieson, you have taken a prominent place in the church and in the work of the community. Your home has always been open for our gatherings, young and old have enjoyed your hospitality. By our meeting here tonight we are only trying to express in some small way our appreciation of your kindness, and to show the love and respect in which you are held by all. We now ask you to accept this small gift as a token of our respect, and to show the love and respect in which you are held by all. We wish you many happy returns. Mr. and Mrs. Dickieson thanked the people for their kindness. Following this, speeches were heard from a number of the guests present and the remainder of the evening spent in a social manner. A dainty lunch passed by the ladies brought a pleasant evening to a close."

Among those from distant points who attended the funeral of late Bernice LePage were: Misses Thelma, Jennie and Norma Clark, Kensington; Mrs. Malcolm McSwain, Kingston; Hon. B. W. LePage, Charlottetown.

HANGED
(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALLEYBURY, Ont., Jan. 25—(Tuesday)—Frank Dolan was hanged at 2:05 a.m. today for the murder of his wife.

RETAINS TITLE
(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) QUEBEC, Jan. 24—Aurelien Lamonde of Quebec retained his Canadian living being title tonight, retaining a 12 round decision over Paul Harvey of Montreal.

Pictou Municipal Council seems to be that it has allowed itself to be conscripted into the service of certain interests, chiefly political, in the people of Pictou. For long years the mainland terminus of the steamship service with Prince Edward Island, Pictou does not relish the prospect of seeing that terminus removed to distance four or five miles away. But none of these considerations touch the merits of the project, and as in any case they have not been raised by the people chiefly concerned, one doubts that they will carry much weight with the Dominion Government. This new car ferry service will be a real boon to Prince Edward Island, a stimulus to the Maritime tourist traffic, and for a practical certainty, a far greater benefit even to the town of Pictou than it now derives from the slow and poorly patrolled service furnished by the Hochelaga."

Minister Honored

The Pleasant Valley Y. P. Union of the Bradalbane Congregation met on Friday, January 18th at the home of Miss Jessie McSwain.

At the close of the discussion period, Mr. John A. Blonden read the following address to Rev. Arthur Walls who has led the group for nearly five years.

"Dear Mr. Walls—As another year has rolled around, we, as a group of Young People, feel that we should not let this opportunity pass without showing in a small measure our deep gratitude for your diligent and cheerful labour amongst us."

We are deeply indebted to you for the pleasing manner in which you have led us and for the spiritual knowledge you have imparted to us in our studies and discussions.

We have given some consideration to the work you have so willingly done with us and for us and wish that many more outside our group could be privileged to enjoy the enrichment which has come to our minds and souls.

We have also enjoyed the social periods of clean fun and stimulating recreation.

We hope for a long time to come to enjoy your earnest co-operation and as a token of our appreciation we humbly beg you to accept this small gift in expression of our regard and affection.

Signed, on behalf of our Y.P. Union, JOHN A. BLONDEN.

As the address was handed over, Mr. Donald McKay presented Mr. Walls with a box containing a beautiful pair of Beaver Lamb driving Mitts.

The presentation was a complete surprise. Mr. Walls responded with deep feeling. He expressed his appreciation for the gift which had prompted the gift. Quickly recovering his composure, the response was made by flashes of his usual wit and humour and was concluded with a splendid summary of the purposes, educationally and spiritually, of the Young People's Union. These were the individual understanding and development of heart, mind and will, the co-operation of the Group in the work of the Local Church and the welfare of the community, and active participation in every movement to put into practical effect in all human relationships in the midst of the life of the world, the meaning and life of Jesus the Redeemer of the Souls and Lives of Men.

Your TEETH need exercise!

To make the bag first of all unroll the six squares together with dark green wool and, if liked, a little spray of embroidery can be worked at the meeting point of the square. Now fold the felt in half and after slightly rounding the bottom corner overwork the side edges together with green wool. Turn down the top edge of the bag half an inch on to the right side and sew it with a long running stitch. To finish the bag make six pairs of slits at equal distances on each side of the bag to hold the draw cords. The slits should be one inch deep and one inch from the top of the bag.

The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

FELT WORK BAG

An attractive and roomy work bag can be made from six nine-inch squares of different colored felt. A suitable color scheme would be to place a pale blue square and a dark blue square of felt side by side. Then beneath these place a bright blue square and a pale green square and beneath these again, a lemon and an orange square, thus forming a strip 27 inches long by 18 inches wide.
