

To Keep Before Your Mind
The "W. W. W." Wedding Rings

Every ring bears the standard "W. W. W." representing a 45 years test in wearing qualities. Look inside grandmother's ring and see if it is not a "W. W. W."

They are made in all widths and in 10k, 14k, and 18k. Of all rings the Wedding Ring should be the best.

THE ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS Society thankfully acknowledges a gift of $20.00 from Dr. J. T. Jenkins in aid of the Free Dispensary.

RETURN HOME.—A number of ministers who have been attending the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist Conference, returned to their homes by the afternoon trains Saturday.

SCHOONER ARRIVES.—The schooner Joseph McGill, Capt. Roberts, arrived in port Saturday morning from Sydney, N. S., with coal for the Charlottetown Steam Navigation Co.

FOX FARM FOR SALE.—Attention is called to the advertisement in another column of R. Bruce McMillan, Brackley Point Road, where he offers for sale fifty acres of land with a splendid hard and soft wood grove most suitable for a fox farm. Particulars may be obtained from the owner or from the Canada Fox Exchange and Investment Co., Ltd., Charlottetown.

A CHANCE FOR OLIVER.—Upon Oliver McEachern's behaviour during the next week practically depends the question as to whether or not he will go to gaol. The man was up before His Honour Mr. Magistrate Martin at the Charlottetown Police Court at Saturday morning, upon a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He admitted his guilt. But as he seemed to punish himself without giving him a chance of putting himself right in the eyes of the authorities, the court suspended judgment and adjourned the case for a week to see how the defendant would behave himself in the interval. McEachern seemed to be under the impression that Marshall Cameron, who prosecuted, was making a set against him. But His Honour promptly told him to dispel such imaginations from his mind; and urged him to bear in mind that the Marshall was there to help him, at any time. The Marshall himself added a word to assure the man that he had no such thing as spite against him. It is now up to McEachern to work out his salvation from the "peg."

From Saturday's Evening Guardian.
LARGE EGG.—Yesterday the Guardian was shown an exceptionally large duck egg owned by Mr. John Gill, Union Road. The circumference was eight inches, the egg being well formed and heavy. Mr. Gill keeps a superior grade of ducks and it will be remembered that he carried off first prize for them at the York Exhibition held last year.

JUNE WEDDING.—St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, was the scene of a happy event on Tuesday morning, June 10th, when Miss Rosella Murtagh daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murtagh of Newton was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Philip Monaghan of Kinkora. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. J. McDonald, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. The bride was attended by her sister Mary L., while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Eddy McCarroll of Kinkora. The bride was attired in white marquisette over satin trimmed with hand-made roses and she wore a white hat with ostrich plume. The bridesmaid wore pink silk. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary A. Monaghan sister of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents after which the happy couple left on a wedding tour to Providence, New York, Philadelphia and Boston. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful bracelet watch and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch set with pearls.
