Charlottetown, P. E., 20th December, 1917. 12-21MTF.

She was never happy unless she was suffering from some malady or other. Her physician was at his wits' ends in treating her because he disliked to dose her with medicines for imaginary ailments. One day he examined her and found as usual that there was nothing wrong. "I shall give you something for what troubles you, but you must promise faithfully to follow directions." She assented, but much to her surprise found later that the directions were: "Keep this bottle tightly corked."
