—CONVALESCING.—The friends of Miss Catherine Gaudet, who has been seriously ill at her home in Tignish, are pleased to learn of her continued advancement towards the great goal health. Catherine is being assisted in her march by the tender nursing of her sister, Miss Alma, R. N., New York, and Miss LeBlanc, R. N., Charlottetown, under the skilled direction of her doctor.—T.

—CHRISTMAS CONTEST.—The Christmas Contest for the school children of Lot one, two and three which was conducted by the Morris Bernard Co., Tignish, was finalized on Saturday, 21st. The lucky guessers were: Hazel Murphy, 1st; Rita Gaudet, 2nd; Irene Arsenault, 3rd. Boys, Lester Gavin, 1st; Phillip Gaudet, 2nd; Ray Doucette, 3rd. Apart from these prizes were given, a box of chocolates, to every child who ventured a guess numbering in all about 100. The above mentioned firm are to be congratulated on the success of this contest and the kindly interest which prompted them to this means of helping to make the children happy at Christmas.—T.

—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—On Tuesday evening, November 20th, a delightful miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Quinn, Stanley, in honor of Mrs. James Somers, formerly Miss Una Farris, of Stanley. The numerous and valuable presents were opened by Miss Evelyn Anderson; the accompanying verses were read by Miss Anne Fleming and Miss Margaret Quinn presented them to the bride. The latter, in a few well-expressed words thanked the gathering for the nice gifts and extended a hearty invitation to everyone to visit her in her new home. The remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent in music and dancing.—T.

—EXAMINATION.—The annual Christmas examination was held in the Tignish High School on Tuesday, 17th inst. and was largely attended. The classes which were examined by their teachers, Mr. Elmer Pineau and Mrs. L. J. Murphy, assisted by Rev. Father McKenna, Mrs. Claude Kinch and others, were found to be well grounded in their school work and possessing a splendid knowledge of local and Dominion politics. The students of French were congratulated on their lingual attainments, accent that might be developed only in Quebec school seems to have flourished here. Good order prevailed during the entire program, even the smallest child giving ample proof of the discipline which is being taught. Of the Tignish School may well be said the children are being educated not merely instructed. At the close of the meeting the teachers and pupils were heartily congratulated by the ladies and gentlemen present.—T.

—KENSINGTON RACE CLUB.—An enthusiastic meeting of this Club was held in Ivan Brown's rooms on Saturday, December 21st. The following officers were appointed: David O'Connor, Secretary; I. R. Brown, Asst. Secretary; William Sutherland, Starter; David O'Connor, William Toombs, Austin Taylor, Judges; Patrol Judges, Geo. Woodside and Geo. Dennis; W. B. McArthur, Tmyer; James Pendergast, President. Myron McArthur and William Profit were appointed a committee to provide ways and means of cleaning a course for the races. National Trotting Assn. rules to govern all races. Club membership fee, one dollar. All drivers in a race must be members of the Club. The proposal to amalgamate with the Summerside club was considered, but the New London members, who comprise the greater number in the club, thought the distance was too far. It was mutually agreed to patronize both.

Summerside and Stanley Bridge races with entries and spectators whenever feasible. First race to be held on New London ice, New Year's day. Races will take place on Tuesday of each week thereafter. Every spectator is cordially invited to interview the Secretary and become a member. The spectators, by their generous response to "hat" collections, made it possible to have a grand season of racing last winter, and if owners come forward prompt and "snappy" this season with their fast ones, no doubt the same benevolent treatment will be accorded. Races to start promptly at 1:30 P. M. Entry book closed on the minute.—K.

—CHRISTMAS CONCERT.—On Monday December 23rd, a very enjoyable program was held in the Town Hall, Georgetown, under the auspices of the Baptist Church. An important part of the program as far as the children was concerned at any rate was the Xmas tree from which general presents were distributed to all of the Sunday school class. Mr. Samuel Yorston capably performed the part of Santa Claus. The musical part of the program was well rendered, and reflects much credit on those who directed it. Although all numbers were well received, one especially, a pantomime entitled, "O Zion Hasten" a reproduction of the famous story written by Mrs. Mary Thomas, is deserving of special mention. The following is the complete program: Opening chorus, The Heavenly Story; Recitation, Rose Llewellyn; Vocal duet, Ella and Oliver Ross; Pantomime, O Little Town of Bethlehem; Patriotic exercise, Liberty's Token; Vocal solo, Mr. Williams; Vocal trio, Ring the Bells of Heaven, by Clara Llewellyn, Francis Lane and Ella Ross; Chorus, "That's Why We All Love Christmas." Recitation, Marion Rafuse; Pantomime, O Zion Hasten; Vocal solo, Mr. Williams; Offering; Closing chorus, "O Christmastide." Mr. Williams, pastor of Baptist Church, Georgetown, capably acted as chairman. The Xmas tree and the hall were very artistically trimmed for the occasion.—A.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

An event, replete with significance, transpired in Kensington on Christmas Eve, that marks another period in postal service in that progressive town. After the heaviest mail of the season had been sorted, the patrons of the office politely served, and the work for the following morning performed, all the mail contractors summoned to conference Postmaster Mr. Lloyd Howard, and associates Mr. Kier Duggan and Miss Ruth Hillis and addressed them thus: Mr. Lloyd Howard, Postmaster, Kensington:

Respected Sir,—On this festive occasion, the joyous Feast of Christmas, we are reminded of our friends and we endeavor to remember them. Prominent among them we see you stand out conspicuous, a man deserving of the deepest gratitude from us, the mail contractors of Kensington, who come in closest association with you every day in the discharge of duty. Ungrateful would we be if we did not express, in some emphatic manner, our appreciation of your kindness and consideration for us, and your solicitude in making the work as pleasant as possible. You bestow upon us every privilege and render every assistance that you can provide to make life agreeable, and we are happy to have this opportunity of expressing our appreciation. We must not fail to include Miss Hillis and Mr. Duggan, who certainly are efficient and the personification of politeness. We ask you to accept these small tokens of our esteem and wish you all the fullest enjoyment of this festive season.

Signed by mail contractors of Kensington.

Miss Annie Gorman, Mr. J. A. Ready, Mr. James Dunphy, Mr. Harris Blakney, Mr. Robert Dunphy, Mr. George Hillis, Mr. Cyril Connick.

Mr. Howard and his assistants acknowledged the address and gifts with evident gratitude, and said that they considered all that they had done was only the conscientious discharge of duty, and they were pleased to learn that their efforts were thus appreciated. Brief remarks were made by the persons whose names are appended to the address, showing how they appreciate the kindness and politeness always shown by the Post Office officials. Y.

JOHN HOUSTON At Mayfield, P. E. I., on Dec. 9,

John Houston passed away at the age of 75 years. The community has lost one of its best and most highly esteemed citizens. Although not feeling well for some time, he bore his trouble in silence, until about two weeks before his death his illness assumed a serious aspect, from which he never recovered. He was a man of unassuming character, with a quiet and peaceable disposition, and respected by all who knew him. He was successful in all the arts of farming and made for himself one of the most beautiful homes in the settlement, but it is the inner life that counts, for "as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

"Not in the clamor of the crowded street, But in ourselves are triumphs or defeat."

He was laid to rest on Dec. 13th, in New Glasgow Cemetery, and leaves to mourn a loving wife, three sons and one daughter, namely (Ella) Mrs. Dicks, Arthur and Ira in Saskatchewan, and Frank at home, also seven grand children. The pall bearers (his six nephews) were, Ernest Houston, John Clark, Jos. Moffatt, Austin Laird, Leigh Warren and Warren Houston.
