HE WAS A FAMILIAR AUTHOR

The Rise and Fall of a Noted Evangelist.

The Revd. Edward Dunbar, who wrote the old Sunday school hymn, "There's a Light in the Window for Thee, Brother," sleeps in a pauper's grave at Coffeyville, Kas., where he died a tramp in the town jail 10 years ago. His name became a byword in the places where he was known, and leaving prison he became a vagabond. In 1857 Dunbar was arrested at Leavenworth, Kas., while engaged in holding a series of revival meetings, and taken to Minneapolis, Minn., where he was tried for bigamy, convicted and sent to the penitentiary for three years and eight months. One night in the spring of 1860 Dunbar applied at the Coffeyville jail for lodging. He was ill, and the authorities took him in. He died the next day. Papers in his pockets revealed his identity and showed that he had tramped all over the country. Some church people have lately erected a marble slab over his grave, on which these words are inscribed:—"Here Lies Edward Dunbar, Who Wrote, "There's a Light in the Window for Thee Brother."

When Dunbar was a small boy he lived in New Bedford, Mass., and worked in a factory. His mother living at the foot of the street on which the factory was located, and as the lad's work kept him away till after dark, she always placed a light in the window to guide his footsteps homeward. The boy became restless and took a notion to go to sea, off he went for a three years' cruise. During his absence his mother fell ill, and was at death's door. She talked incessantly about her boy, and every night asked those around to place a light in the window in anticipation of his return. When she realized that the end had come, had come, she said: "Tell Edward I will set a light in the window of Heaven for him." These were her last words.

The lad had grown to manhood before he returned home, and his mother's message had such an effect upon him that he reformed and became a preacher. In the course of his reformation he wrote, "There's a Light in the Window for Thee, Brother."

The Revd. Edward Dunbar married in New Bedford and had five children. He soon won a reputation as a pulpit orator, and there was great surprise when it was found one Sunday morning that he had left the city, leaving his wife and family behind. He came to Kansas and after preaching in different parts of the state, went to Minneapolis, Minn.

A great revival followed and hundreds were converted. Miss Eunice Belle Lewis a handsome young heiress of Minneapolis, was one of the converts. She fell in love with the evangelist and married him against the wishes of her friends. Shortly after the wedding Dunbar returned to Kansas to fill an engagement at Leavenworth. While he was away, suspicious friends of the bride consulted W. D. Webb, lately judge of the second judicial district of Kansas, and Austin H. Young, who were law partners. They soon found evidence sufficient to warrant an arrest, and Dunbar's ministerial career was brought to a sudden close.

After Dunbar's incarceration in penitentiary, Judge Young secured a divorce for Mrs. Dunbar and married her himself. They now live in Minneapolis.

WHAT WOULD THEY GIVE?

It seems a waste of time to warn people against neglecting coughs and colds, but what would victims of consumption and pneumonia give if their disease were only in its beginning. If it were only a cough or cold. Deadly lung disease began with colds and could certainly be cured by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the great prescription which not merely relieves but thoroughly cures cough and cold together.

A LACK IN THE PRACTICAL EDUCATION OF GIRLS.

There is too great a lack in the practical education of our girls. Such a practical phase of a woman's life as the realization and meeting of honest obligations never enters into a girl's studies at school, college, or, in the vast majority of cases, even at home. We go on and let our girls study uselessologies andisms and accumulate a vast amount of undigested and unintelligible information which never even for a single moment will be of the slightest use to them in their lives. But of the practical things, yes, the fundamental principles which must govern their lives, they are taught either nothing or little. There is where we are floundering in this country despite our boasts of progress in matters educational. The things we ought to know we know not and the things which avail little are often our choicest boasts.—Edward Bok, in The Ladies Home Journal for June.

Great Victory.

BARNABY RIVER, N. B. Mar.—Few cases of illness and recovery have excited the interest in this community, as has the kidney trouble of Mr. Cornelius Crotchie. Mr. Crotchie's treatment by the doctors at home and in the hospital, and the fact that they absolutely gave him up as a case beyond all hope, is well known. His subsequent restoration by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills reads like a miracle. "For five years I have suffered off and on with kidney trouble. Last fall I had an attack, for which the doctors had little hope of my recovery. I was obliged to go to the hospital for treatment, but it did me no good, so I came home given up by the doctors. A friend suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first box I improved. Now I am at my work every day."

SOME WON'T BELIEVE IT.

Many people who have suffered the acute misery of itching or bleeding piles for years in spite of medicines and operations won't believe that Dr. Chase's Ointment is an actual cure. Doubt has never yet been a person to doubt the efficacy of this great preparation after using one box. It acts like magic in stopping the pain and itching, and is positively guaranteed to cure any case of bleeding or protruding piles. Ask your neighbor about it. Your dealer has it.

HEART WAS OUT OF PLACE.

LIFE ON THE RAIL.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, Barrie, Ont., one of the best known engineers on the G. R. T. writes:—"For years I suffered from kidney disease brought on by railroad life. The doctors called it "railroad kidney" but could give me no permanent relief. A friend recommended Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills saying they had cured him. A few boxes of this grand medicine completely cured me, putting an end to those dreadful pains in the back and greatly strengthening the kidneys. I am a well man to-day, thanks to Dr. Chase." One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

Not To Be "Beaten"

A farmer went into a grocery store and exhibited to the eyes an admiring crowd an enormous egg about six inches long, which he avowed to have been laid by one of his own hens. He had it packed in cotton and would not allow anyone to handle it, for fear of breaking the phenomenon. The grocer examined it with the rest, and, intending to chaff the countryman said:—"Pshaw! I've got something in the egg line that will beat that." "I'll bet you a dollar you haven't," said the countryman, getting excited. "Right!" replied the grinning grocer; and going behind the counter, he brought out a wire egg-beater. "There's something in the egg line that will beat it, I think," said he, reaching out for the money. "Hold on, there," said the farmer; "let's see you beat it." He handed the egg to the grocer. The latter held out his hand for it, but dropped it in surprise on the counter, where it broke two soup plates and a platter. It was of solid iron painted white. "Some folks think they're mighty clever," muttered the farmer, as he pocketed the money and walked out; "but 'tain't no use backing against the solid fact."

"Taint no use backing against the fact that neither the quality nor prices of our Groceries are to be beaten. This accounts for our increasing trade. JAM. Is your stock of jam running low?
