Good Tailoring

There is no substitute for Good Tailoring:-

It is either right or wrong.

Making good clothes means putting thought and skill into every part of the garment, so that it will fit perfectly and keep its appearance till worn out.

This is the kind of tailoring we do, and when you combine with it, the very best cut, and newest in materials; you are getting a garment that cannot be surpassed in the City.

You will like the patterns, the materials, and fine quality of our new fall suitings, and overcoatings; and above all, you will like the very moderate prices we ask.

Come in—its a pleasure to show goods.
Suits $18.00 to $30.00.
Overcoats $18.00 to $35.00.

—The Edmonton branch of the Women's Art Association of Canada, has a very tasteful exhibit near the main entrance to the grounds. There is a fine display of all kinds of needle work, paint, Irish and battenburg laces done by members of the Association in Edmonton and Eastern Canada. A bridal trousseau done by an Edmonton lady adorns one wall, samples of leather work, book binding, pattern-work, jewel setting, beaten silver brass and copper work. Also a wall of water colors, oils and pastels bears evidence to the excellent work done by the Art and Crafts Club of which Miss Helena A. Andrew is instructor and the work reflects great credit to Miss Andrew as a careful and painstaking teacher. (Miss Andrew is a daughter of Thomas Andrew Summerside). Also a table covered with portiers, couch covers, dress goods, woven by the habitant women. The exhibit, is in charge of Mrs. Daniel Davies, president of the Edmonton branch of the Womens Art Association of Canada.—S.

—The following is taken from a Newcastle Exchange:—The death of James Price, at the advanced age of 92 years, occurred on Friday morning, after an illness of about seven months, which he bore with true Christian fortitude and patience. Deceased, was a native of Belleque, P. E.
