IF AND WHEN!

(With apologies to F. M. Griffith) A TUNNEL TO P. E. ISLAND

When the Strait is underspanned From the Cape to Borden strand, (If and when), And the Island shore is won By a short and easy run, Shall I travel by this Island Tunnel then? I shall not! And for this sufficient reason, That the scheme would be rank treason To every breath of sentiment of history and tradition.

For imagine the confusion Of the homesick Island man, His dismay and disillusion On revisiting his 'clan. Can his heart within him burn As his footsteps homeward turn? It can not. When he's simply being shot Through a bore! Through a darksome, murky, irksome ugly bore! Can his manly bosom swell (As it used to) crossing over, At the first soul-stirring sight As in distance it doth hover, Or his eager eye discover Field on field where he did dwell? It can not. If in subterranean night Far below the rippling furrow, Battle, rattle, he must burrow, From fancy's fairy flight What a fall!

Good sooth it were arduous thus To make our Isle an isthmus A hanger-on to Brunswick by a thread. Strike me dead If I'd travel by this Island Tunnel then. (If and when!).

ZION CHURCH

The minister's sermon Sunday morning was an exposition of the Parable of the Pounds. The setting of the passage was interesting, and the exposition and application were most instructive.

In the morning the Choir rendered the anthem "I will magnify thee" by Spence. Miss Christine Miller taking the soprano solo.

The evening sermon was based on the utterances of the enemies of Jesus. Before the address Mr. Fulton made reference to the demise of Angus Murchison, well known in the congregation and held in high esteem by all who knew him. On behalf of Zion Church he extended heart-felt sympathy to his widow in her bereavement, and to his family in this hour of deep sorrow.

Simon's "Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in E Flat" was sung by the choir. Solo parts were taken by Mrs. Sutherland MacLean and Mr. Harry Craswell.

Zion male quartette rendered the selection, "Where He Leads Me," this by special request.

Mr. Elmer Farnell sang the well known sacred song "Shadows". He was in fine voice and was never heard to better advantage.

Zion Church Hall is being placed at the disposal of the Choir until Thursday evening when their concert and play will be presented.

Y. P. S. C. E. meets at the Ross Home, 41 Upper Prince on Monday evening, and a Wednesday evening meeting will be held at 192 King St., with Mrs. Young and Cap. John Gillis.

Miss Laura McPhail has returned to her home after spending two weeks with her sister in New Dominion.

Miss Euphemia McPhail spent the week-end at her home.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nell McPhail wish to congratulate them on the arrival of a bonnie wee lassie.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy McDonald paid a flying visit to Argyle on Sunday.

Messrs Archie Murley and Duncan McPhail were visiting in Hampton Sunday evening and reported roads in bad condition.

Mr. Robert McDonald paid a visit to Argyle on Sunday.

TWO CANADIANS WON VICTORIA CROSS AT SEA

Captain R. N. Stuart, V.C., D.S.O., and bar. R. N. R., who is to command the C. P. liner "Duchess of York", is not, as has been said of him "Canada's only naval V.C."

He has a worthy companion in distinction in Lieut.-Commander Bourke, V. C., D.S.O., Legion of Honour. When war broke out he was clearing for fruit a farm in Kootenay Lake, B. C. He joined the Royal Naval Reserve in 1915 and in April, 1918, won his D. S. O., and was recommended for the Victoria Cross when in the attempt to block the Ostend naval base his launch rescued the crew of the "Brilliant" under heavy fire. On May 9, 1918, he was awarded the V. C. for talking off the crew of the "Vindictive" sunk in attempt to block the Bruges channel.

He returned to British Columbia and, aided by the Soldier Settlement Board became a successful fruit and vegetable grower, growing cabbage by the ton.

over the family he has left behind, for there his death has left a gap that can never be filled. He was a most kind and loving husband and father and those who mourn his loss have the consolation of knowing that he is now surely enjoying the rewards of a life well spent by bearing his sufferings in a true Christian spirit and that they have another intercessor before the great white throne who will intercede to the God whom he served so faithfully for those whom he loved. His funeral took place on Sunday morning, Feb. 17th and the large number of people who accompanied the remains to its last resting place betokened the esteem in which he was held by the people of the surrounding communities. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John A. MacDonald who also officiated at the grave. The late Mr. McLellan leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing widow, two sons, Neil James and Martin Ignatius and one daughter, Mary Gertrude, two sisters Mrs. R. J. McNeill of Charlottetown and Mrs. Mary E. McIntyre of Boston also two brothers Cornelius of Miscouche and Bernard of Wellington. The pallbearers were: Venantius Morrison, Joseph McIntyre, Patrick McLellan, James McIntyre, Frank Gillis and Joseph McKinnon.

Mrs. JOHN E. HECKBERT. Sad beyond measure was the death of Mrs. John E. Heckbert, Indian River, details of which have already been issued.

The deceased lady was the daughter of the late James Brennan, Darnley.

Burial took place at Indian River on March 7th, the pallbearers being Messrs. Cecil Caseley, Jeremiah Hynes, William Mann, Joseph Connick, Heath Caseley and William Hickey. High mass of requiem was celebrated by Mgr. D. J. Gillis, P. P., who also with formal ceremony, committed the remains to earth. Beautiful wreaths were sincerely laid upon the coffin by Mrs. G. P. Grady, S'ide, Miss Rose Grady, S'ide, Miss Daisy Grady, S'ide; Spiritual intercessions were kindly offered by Mr. and Mrs. Linus Brennan, Leo Brennan, Darnley; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thompson. These and other marks are evidence of the genuine esteem in which the deceased was held by her true friends.

A lady she was, of the superior type of womanhood. The home her kingdom was. This she knew to be the unit of society, and realizing that the composite for superiority, depends on the quality of units, she willed to elevate the home to the highest standard and to maintain it there with steadfast zeal in the discharge of all domestic duties. She had, in her husband, a most essential factor who governed with prudence and firmness.

But, the wisdom of God cannot be questioned, hence He tolerated the occurrence of the sad accident that terminated her life. Y.

ARGYLE SHORE AND VICINITY

Argyle Shore School is doing excellent work under the skillful management of Miss Mattie Howard.

Mr. Leonard McPhee spent the week end with his sister in Argyle.

Mr. Ambrose Sellar was visiting in the city on Friday, and reported roads and ice in good condition.

Miss Rose McDougall spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. McDougall.

Mr. Donald McLeod, Victoria, spent Sunday evening in Argyle.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. John A. Beaton and family in their double bereavement.

MR. JOSEPH J. McLELLAN

There passed away at his home in Grand River February 15th, one of that community's most respected citizens in the person of Mr. Joseph J. McLellan. The deceased was one of Grand River's most successful farmers and till about two years ago took an active part in all that concerned the good of the community but in 1927 he contracted the dread disease of cancer and although he went several times to undergo treatment at the Royal Victoria Hospital and everything possible was done to combat the disease, it became evident that it was impossible to effect a cure. Finally after much suffering borne without a murmur it pleased his Heavenly Father to take him to his eternal home. During his illness he was frequently visited by his beloved pastor, Rev. John A. McDonald, who administered to him the last Sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was a most devout member. He was also a member of Summerside Council Knights of Columbus. The death of Mr. McLellan although it was expected for some time has cast a pall of gloom over the whole community but particularly

In Memoriam

MR. ANGUS BEATON

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of another of our old and highly esteemed citizens of Upton in the person of Angus Beaton whose death took place on Feb. 7th 1929, at the home of his nephew John with whom he resided. Deceased was born at Kinross 81 years ago, coming to Dundas with his parents, brothers and sisters 80 years ago where he has since lived and made many friends and acquaintances who will always cherish his memory. Many the traveller and wayfarer found a cheery welcome in his home.

Deceased was a carpenter and shoe maker by trade. He was a devout member of the Church of Scotland. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Constable of Dundas United Church assisted by Rev. William MacLeod of Bridgetown. A large procession followed the remains to their last resting place in the old cemetery at Dundas where all that was mortal of a good man, was tenderly laid to rest by his Brethren of the L. O. L. of which he was a member.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Friday evening, March 1st the young people of Stanley Bridge and surrounding districts made a raid on the premises of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Anderson and entered their home. When all were seated Mr. H. E. MacEwen came forward bearing a suspicious looking document which Mr. Anderson may have taken for an official seal. The suspicion was somewhat relieved however when the article was found to contain the following. On this the occasion of your 25th wedding anniversary, we your friends and acquaintances have assembled in your hospitable home to congratulate you on this happy event. During the past quarter of a century that you have resided in our midst you have played a leading part in the social life of our community. In you Mr. Anderson we have always found a true friend, a good citizen and an ardent sportsman. In church, education and state, not to mention horse racing you could ever be counted on to do your share and more. And you Mrs. Anderson, by your quiet, unassuming manner have endeared yourself to all who have come in contact with you. And believe us Mr. and Mrs. Anderson that our sincere wish is that we may have the opportunity of assembling here on your Golden Wedding anniversary. In conclusion please accept this small gift not for what it contains but as a token of the esteem in which you are held by your many friends. The gift which was presented by D. W. MacKay consisted of a well filled purse. Mr. Anderson replied feelingly on behalf of both and after speeches by several of those present refreshments were served, the remainder of the evening was most pleasantly spent by tripping the light fantastic, music being furnished by Messrs Marks and Faynter. Mr. Arnel Murray presided. (Patriot please copy.)

HEATHERDALE. The history of the Institute which was read at the district convention was re-read at this meeting. A cooler has been obtained for the school supply department. A committee was heard, and the committee was appointed. Next meeting will be held at home of Mrs. M. J. McRae. Mr. Miller's Worm Powders act mildly and without injury to the child, and there can be no doubt of their deadly effect upon worms. They have been in successful use for a long time and are recognized as a leading preparation for the purpose. They have proved their power in numerous cases and have given relief to many children, who, but for the good offices of this compound, would have continued weak and enfeebled.
