

A CHILD'S LIFE FOOD

Physicians speak of fat food as "life food" and say that all children ought to have it in abundance. They clinch the argument easily by calling attention to how naturally the well-fed infant thrives upon fat food—the fat which is in milk.

Physicians say, more impressively still, that weak, thin, nervous children MUST have fat food, and recommend Scott's Emulsion. It promptly returns sickly, backward children to rosy health. It is the life of flesh-creating food and keeps the scale of child-health evenly balanced.

Being prepared for easy digestion Scott's Emulsion is readily accepted by the stomach and quickly passed into the blood. Once absorbed, the system soon feels the influence of the new force. There commences at once the repairing of wasted tissues, the enrichment of the blood and the strengthening of the whole system. Any child who needs more and better nourishment than it seems to be getting from its ordinary food will be greatly benefitted if given Scott's Emulsion.

THE W. C. T. U. will meet today at 3 p. m. Subject for discussion "Reasons why I am a white ribboner." All are welcome.

The annual meeting of the Summerside Presbytery Church congregation was held in the church last night. Thomas E. Ramsay was chairman. The reports of the different departments all showed a flourishing condition. The report of the Board of Managers read by William S. ... showed a total revenue from all sources including mission funds of $2792.11 and a total expenditure of $2006.62, in which is included a debt of $400 carried over from the previous year. The following were elected the board of managers. Thomas E. Ramsay, William Stewart, R. C. McLeod, D. Gordon, Alexander Allen, Wm. Jardine. The salary of the pastor Rev. Dr. W. H. Smith was by a hearty motion passed unanimously raised $100 making his yearly salary $1200. Votes of thanks were tendered the Choir and the Board of Managers for their services.

"MUTINY," SAY CAPTAIN.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 18.—Captain M. C. Tomlin, of the Jacksonville schooner Fairfield, made an effort to have his mate, Charles S. Steeves, and three members of his crew arrested today for mutiny, but the police waived jurisdiction. Shortly after Mate Steeves made a complaint against Captain Tomlin for assault.

Quite Thrilling!

An artist says that nothing is more tiresome in his profession than to have somebody with an untrained eye pick out a commonplace bit of landscape and say: "There, you ought to make a picture of that!"

Writers often have to endure the same dull commonplace. "Now, don't you put me in a book," jocosely counsels some dull person who would figure in print. Or another patronizingly remarks:

"I've made notes of a good many things I mean to write up some time. If I don't use them, I'll give them to you." Such material is likely to be of the sort contributed by an old guide, who said to a scribbling camper: "I could give you some stories that would make your hair stand on end."

"Good for you! Give us one now."

"Well, here's the best of 'em. One day I went out about nine o'clock in the mornin' an' I shot a cinnamon b'ar."

"Is that all?"

"No, sir! Next mornin' I went out about the same time, an' I shot another cinnamon b'ar."

"Well, sir, next mornin' I went out an' shot another cinnamon b'ar."

"All? I guess 'tis! Ain't that enough?"

EATS BREAKFAST NOW

Mrs. A. Waddell used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, has Lost Her Dyspepsia and Found an Appetite.

Some people have Dyspepsia and do not know it. They know they have headaches, that they are nervous and irritable, troubled with sleeplessness and generally 'run down.' But they never think of charging up their troubles to where they spring from—the stomach.

If the stomach does not do its work properly—digest the food properly—the necessary nourishment is not supplied to the different organs and the latter become overtaxed and worn and unable to supply the demands the day's work makes on them.

The remedy is to have the food properly digested. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food and the body supplied with the nourishment it requires, does its work readily and easily. The headaches disappear and the tired, restless feeling with them. Mrs. A. Waddell, 34 Simcoe Street, Hamilton, has proved this. She says:

"I had been troubled four years with heavy headache and heartburn. I doctor-ed with the best doctors, but they failed to help me. I commenced using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and soon found I was cured."

"I can now eat breakfast in the morning; before I could not touch a bite."
