BRIDAL SHOWER—The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin of Newtown was given for a shower on Tuesday evening, March 23rd, when Mrs. John W. Gillis tendered a miscellaneous shower for Miss Sarah Gillis one of the seasons young brides. After the guests were seated in the parlour which was beautifully decorated with streamers and bells the bride-to-be was escorted in by Mrs. John W. Gillis. The bride was seated in a decorated chair over which hung a large bell which she opened over her as she sat down. They were followed by Master Edwin Gillis and Miss Margaret McTavish as bride and groom carrying a heavily-laden bouquet of roses which she presented to the guest of honor. Mrs. James W. Gillis opened the gifts which were presented on the bride-to-be. Mrs. W. H. McEachern and Mrs. George Nicholson after which they were arranged on a large table. The many witty verses were read by Miss Ruth McPherson and Miss Jean McKenzie. The bride to be then thanked one and all in a charming manner and invited all to see her in her home. This was followed by singing for She's a Jolly Good Fellow and bouncing the bride-to-be. The remainder of the evening was fully enjoyed by all with considerable music and served to which all did ample justice. The guests departed at a respectable hour wishing the bride many happy returns for her future happiness. (Patriot please copy).

Blanchard. The remains were later taken to Georgetown, where burial took place following the funeral mass in St. James Church.

SORE THROAT COLD ON THE CHEST

If your throat pinches and you find it hard to swallow, that's a sure sign a cold is developing. To delay is dangerous. Inflammation must be drawn out at once.

Rub the throat and chest with Nervilleine—lots of rubbing will do a lot of good. Nervilleine will relieve the tightness—the sore chest and irritable throat will feel better in an hour.

Gargle with Nervilleine in hot water and you will aid in a quicker recovery.

For sore throat, cold in the chest, you can depend upon Nervilleine. By using Nervilleine when the first symptom of a cold appears, you may avoid Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, or other serious ailment.
