BESSIE LOVE

As "Puggy Malone" in

"A Fighting Colleen"

Tears, cheers, smiles, laughter, and pathos, with an interesting love story, combine to make this a picture that will hold you interested from start to finish.

Not just one thrill in "INTO THE CHASM"

Third Episode of

"The Great Gamble"

But a thrill in every foot. It's the greatest "stunt" and sensational serial ever filmed.

IT PAYS to buy in this Province

APPLE MARKET POOR.—Apple returns received recently by growers from the English market are discouraging. One grower received notice recently that it would be necessary for him to forward $80 to cover expenses on a consignment of apples he had sent to that market.

THE CAR FERRY.—The car ferry steamer made good runs yesterday. She left Borden at 9.27, arriving at Tormentine at 11.27. She left on return at 12.05 arriving at Tormentine at 2.55. She left for Tormentine at 5.12 and arrived there at 6.40. She brought 47 passengers to this side. The train arrived in Charlottetown at 9.20.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court yesterday judgment was delivered by the magistrate in the case against Essory and Gillis, whose liquor was seized from the Dominion Express Co. The liquor was ordered to be handed over to the Prohibition Commission. A case against a man for disorderly driving was dismissed.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Augustine's Church, Rustico, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday morning, February 11th when the pastor, Rev. Dr. Chaisson united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Mary A. Blaquiere one of North Rustico's most popular young ladies to Mr. Laurence Peters, one of the much esteemed returned heroes of Hope River. The bride looked charming in a becoming dress of blue silk with white trimmings and wore a hat to match with white ostrich plumes. She was attended by her sister, Miss Rosie Blaquiere while Mr. James Dorr- on ably supported the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's father, Mr. Peter Blaquiere and latter drove to the home of the groom where dinner was served. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. In the evening the happy young couple, attended by a large number of friends drove to the home of the bride where everything was in readiness to receive them and a real good night of enjoyment was spent, after which the guests departed for their homes with many good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Peters for a prosperous career. The many valuable presents received by the young people testify to their wide popularity. The Guardian joins their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Peters many happy years of wedded life.—Patriot and Examiner please copy.

CHILD'S DEATH.—The death occurred in this city on Friday, Feb. 20th of Hilda, the fourteen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. William W. McInnis, after about a week's illness.

DON'T FORGET THE BASKET social in Stanley Hall on Wednesday, February 25th. Admission 25 cents. Ladies with baskets free. If not fine Wednesday will take place following day. 7230-2-24-ME21

RACES AT APPLE TREE WHARF.—There will be races at Apple Tree Wharf on Wednesday, February 25th, namely Class A and Class B. The ice is in perfect condition and it is the intention to hold another race on Saturday next.

FISHING SMELTS OUT OF SEASON.—The smelt fishing season closes on February 15th but the attention of the authorities is directed to the fact that in some of the rivers, nets are still out and large quantities of breeding smelts are being taken for no other purpose than as food for foxes. If fishermen will persist in this conduct it can only mean one thing—the killing out of another great natural source of income. The fish now being taken in this way are a shame that there are to be found men with so little regard to the future of this great industry that they would exterminate these fish just for the sake of the paltry amount which some ranch owners will pay for the fish.

Sale of Soldiers Handicrafts

Your last chance to buy soldiers handicraft work in Charlottetown: In preparation for the close of the Rena McLean Hospital there will be a clearing sale of basketry and other articles made by the soldier patients in the Vocational Training rooms on Wednesday next, February 25th from 3 o'clock to 6 o'clock in the evening.
