WINNIPEG, May 9 (CP)—Rye futures continued their irregular display in nervous dealings on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today and a few finished five sections lower to 3-4 of a cent a bushel higher.
CHICAGO, May 9 (AP)—With traders spending most of their time discussing the new government ceiling price increases, activity in grains was light today. May rye weakened and at times was down the full five cent limit on moderate offerings. Oats were bid at maximums with only a few transactions made.
TORONTO, May 9 (CP)—A soft tone again dominated the Toronto stock market in today's session and all four indices were down at the close. Losses however were insignificant except for a setback of 1.07 for the gold group. The trading tempo quieted down and the aggregate share turnover for the day was below the recent average at 1,468,000 shares.
