Now's the day and now's the hour, See the front o' battle lour,

See approach Herr Hitler's power Chains and Slavery.

We hae lads in Navy blue, We hae lads in Khaki too, We hae seen what they can do, On the land and in the air, Drop their bombs on Hitler's lair, See the scoundrel cringe see sair, In his misery.

When this war is o'er and won, Every lad his duty don, We will see the vanquished Hun, When his sympathy, When the boys come home again, Having fought with might and main, Know their fight was not in vain, Then we shall be free.

Revised by J. Harrison.

OUR SCOTTISH FIGHTING MEN

When the soil of Europe trembled, In the "Blitzkrieg" of the Hun, When the Rearguard died at Dun-Deer, And the world said "John Bull's In the Battle over Britain, When the "Gallant Few" prevailed, While through the sub-infected seas, Our Fleets and Convoys sailed, From Atlantic to Italy, With Montgomery in the van, Where Willy Rommel met his match, And his "Deserted" ran, On the blood-soaked beach at Dieppe, On the tragic August day, In the skyways over Berlin, Where the "flak" and searchlights played, In the burning Burmese jungle, Against Hirooichi's crew, They hit them hard and true, And as through Flanders' storied Through Holland to the Rhine, The Allied Armies smash their way To crush the Nazi Lie, At sea, on land and in the air, Where'er the fight is hot, In the van, with purpose firm, You'll find the battling Scot, JAMES MACKAY, President.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY Regina, Saskatchewan

FRATERNAL GREETINGS TO BROTHER SCOTS

"The line, that have struggled for, Shall heroes and patriots ever produce, So this to the laurel, and mine be the bay, The field thou hast won, by you, is bright and of day, ALEXANDER WHYTE, President.

ST. ANDREW'S AND CALEDONIAN SOCIETY Vancouver, B. C.

FRATERNAL GREETINGS TO BROTHER SCOTS

Long years ago St. Andrew trod On Scotland's misty heath and sod, And brought to all the blessed word Of Jesus Christ, our risen Lord, And still his message reaches far, Through tumult of a world at war, And Scotland's sons, where'er, At home, or far beyond the sea, Shall bear 't' long, the Joyous "O' Peace, koodwill to me" again, So, as Auld Scotland's children all, Fond memories may yet recall, We'll drink the toast we ne'er forget, The old familiar "Scotland yet", ROBERT FIDDES, President.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY OF THE RIVER PLATE Buenos Aires

CORDIAL AND FRATERNAL GREETINGS

We greet you, brother Scots, this night, (Eve) out' reach of hand and sight, A precious heritage, ours and yours, We treasure aye while time endures.

A land we love, surpassing fair, A noble name, we proudly bear, Remembered are by us and all, Whom Caledonia holds in thrall, Let not your prayers nor labours cease, Till the arcan be blest with peace, Her scarred fields rich harvest yield, And all the hurts of war be healed, WILLIAM E. MURCHISON, Pres.

SCOTS CHARITABLE SOCIETY Of the City of Boston, Mass.

On the Two Hundred and Eighty-Seventh Anniversary of our Earliest Greetings On this St. Andrew's Day,

"O! the bonnie braes o' Scotland, Hame o' the fair an' free, An' hame it is a kindly word, Whar'er that hame may be, My weary steps I'd fain retruce Back to the happy days, When youthfu' hearts together joy'd 'Mang Scotland's bonnie braes", JOHN E. DANIEL, President.

Toronto Man Is Acquitted

TORONTO, Nov. 30 (CP)—Edward R. (Ted) Vining today was found not guilty of murder in connection with the death of Barbara Martin, of London, Ont., one of 17 persons who were drowned when the pleasure cruiser Olga partially capsized off Port Stanley June 4.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE Auxiliary meeting at Wardroom, Prince of Wales, at 8 p. m. Bring garments and needles. 12-1-11

ZION TEA - The inclement weather failed to halt the afternoon tea and sale at Zion Presbyterian Church, last yesterday, at 12:30 a.m. They told him to remain where he was and one flourished the other approached the door, registering Mr. Smythe started towards one and both fled.

PROPERTY SALES—Two properties, estate of E. Mae Corney, were sold by public auction yesterday afternoon by Mr. W.H. Beaton, auctioneer, at 106 Spring Park Road was sold to Mr. Percy Johnston for the sum of $4,025 and the one at 400 McGill Ave. was sold to Mr. Thomas Allan for $3,350.

HIGH TEA CONCLUDES - Yesterday's heavy rain probably cut into attendance at the second day of the Notre Dame Academy High school, but there was still a good attendance. As at the opening day, the fancy work, novelty etc, tables were well patronized and hundreds enjoyed the dainty and plentiful refreshments.

TO VISIT DAUGHTERS - Mrs. Herbert Lyle of North St. Eleanor left yesterday morning for Hamilton and Kitchener Ontario where she will visit her daughters for two months after which she will return to Vancouver and California for the remainder of the winter. Mrs. Lyle had the misfortune of breaking her left wrist just a week ago, the second time in a little over a year, her many friends hope her arm will soon heal and will not interfere too much with her holiday.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE VACATED - It is understood that H. H. LePage and Mrs. LePage have moved from Government House to the residence of their son-in-law, Mr. Lloyd Wagoner, Upper Prince Street. Mrs. LePage has not been well for some time and it was necessary for her to relinquish the administration of such an extensive home as Government House. It was hoped that the Lieutenant Governor's new residence on West Street would have been ready for occupancy by this time, but delays in the construction of the building have prevented this. In the meantime all but the office in Government House has been closed.

PRESENTATION - The home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moreside was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Friday evening, Nov. 24, when the people of Winsloe and vicinity gathered to do honor to the birthday of the young couple. The bride and groom were escorted to the parlour by Miss Marjorie Roberts and the low table was set. Leth Carter then read an address and Mr. Alton Younker presented the couple with a gift of money. Mr. Younker made a fitting reply, thanking them for their kindness to Marjorie and the bride. The evening was served by the hostess and ladies present, and the rest of the evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing.
