WEDDING PRESENT FROM THE KING.

LONDON, Oct. 22—The King's wedding present to Winston Churchill of a gold mounted Malacca cane possibly owed its origin to the fact that he possesses a large and interesting collection of walking sticks which is kept at Buckingham Palace. One of the most recent which came into the King's possession was presented on the occasion of the opening of the South African Products Exhibition a year or two ago, when the Queen also received from the residents in those colonies a magnificent ostrich feather fan.

AEROPLANE CONTEST PLANNED FOR NEXT YEAR.

PARIS, Oct. 22—The Aero Club, of France, has decided to organize a big aeroplane meeting in the autumn of 1909 when the Grand Prix D'Aviation will be completed for. The value of this prize is two thousand dollars and there will be other awards. The course will be laid out over the flat country in the Champagne or Beauce region. The flights will be judged for both speed and duration.

PROF. ANDREWS AFTER EMMERSON.

MONCTON, October 22—Dr. W. W. Andrews, professor of science at Mount Allison university, and a staunch Liberal, is out in a pamphlet containing a scathing criticism of Hon. Mr. Emmerson on the ground of immorality, and appealing to the electors to vote against him.

WANTED.

God give us men! A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men, whom the lust of office does not kill; Men, whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men, who possess opinions and a will; Men, who have honor,—men, who will not lie; Men, who can stand before a demagogue, and damn his treacherous flatterer without winking. Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog in public duty, and in private thinking; For while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds, Their large professions and their little deeds,— Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps, Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps!
