If You Want Evidence

THAT HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES, CAN BE COMPLETELY CURED. READ THESE LETTERS — BOTH ARE SWORN STATEMENTS.

Toronto, Ont., June 21—Next personal experience the sworn statements of reliable people is the strongest evidence obtainable. If you have any doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment will positively and completely cure piles, these letters should convince you.

Mr. Samuel Parker, fruit grower, Grimsby, Ont., has made the following declaration before M. W. W. Kidd, Notary Public of the same place: "I do solemnly declare that I was advised to go to the hospital to have an operation performed. My wife said 'No, get a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment.' I did so and have used it according to directions while living in Manitoba and obtained a complete cure for I have never been troubled with piles since. I am now seventy years of age and want to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all sufferers from piles. My wife has used it for itching skin and obtained complete cure."

Mr. Donald M. Campbell, Campbell's Mountain, N. S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment with great success for hemorrhoids or piles of fifteen years' standing. After trying all kinds of so-called pile cures three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave me a complete cure. I have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and there are no others so good. You may use this letter if you wish, for the benefit of others who may suffer as I did."

Sworn before me, Murdoch Gordon Campbell, J. P., in the County and for Inverness County.

APPRECIATION

An appreciation by Rev. Wm. McLeod, Dundas, to the late Rev. Wm. Field.

I exceedingly regretted my inability to accept the invitation of Rev. R. N. Rand to accompany him to the funeral of the specified ambassador of Immanuel in Lower Montague on the 13th. Previously I promised to conduct a burial service in Fortune Bay at same hour but throughout the afternoon my heart went out to the bereaved folk and solemn scenes peculiar to Mr. Field's interment. In January of 1908 when I was about to begin a pastorate in Hampton etc., Mr. Field similarly situated arrived on the same hour. Because of the prevailing state of weather I was not expected in the Presbyterian Church, Tryon and finding it locked I repaired to the Baptist Church and assisted in the well attended Sunday School in the work. Bro. Field arrived for first time for service in the evening and in a large meeting I promised to conduct the Rev. W. A. Thompson and I were conducting Union Camp-meetings he heard the words "Bro. McLeod stole a march on me" he preached in my church before I saw it". Mr. Field the son of a sea-captain was born in the ocean; and was short in stature but powerfully built, very fleshy and turned the scales at 240 lbs. He had a clear strong voice, ready wit and illustration and happy faculty of making himself "at home" in public and private. Altho devoted to the doctrine and people of the Baptist Church he had a great heart for all other sections and laborers in God's Kingdom. He was an ardent champion of liquor traffic. His experience as captain in the Salvation Army doubtless helped to make him a practical worker in the Ministry and attain to an unusual degree of freedom among people generally. As an example of his buoyancy of spirit I relate the following. Soon after the Tryon people collected and sent a fine large supply of oats to the writer he met Mr. Field who suddenly relined up his steed and as if he were looking for grain said: "Bro. McLeod can you sell me 100 bushels of oats today." His great and general conduct proved up lifting throughout the many phases of his ministerial work. Can the people of Hampton, Tryon and Bonshaw forget this stalwart ambassador of Christ and ardent toiler among them for 3 years? Will there not be among them a verification of the words "He being dead yet speaketh." Repeatedly since he removed to Andover on the St. John River twenty two miles below Grand Falls where I spent a year, my mind has wandered to that beautiful place and I could in imagination see him busy there. How blessed after so many years of toil in the Master's Vineyard after only three or four days illness to hear and obey the summons "Come up thither." His peerless to enter upon rest suitable, seasonable enjoyable eternal. How unpeppably glorious now fully to realize the culmination of the Gospel of Jesus he so often and powerfully preached to others: Salvation now by simple faith eternal glory at translation.

Rest from thy loved employ The battle fought, the victory won. Enter the Master's joy." We express in common with many other sympathies for Mrs. Field and all the children in their great bereavement.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS. Kindness breaks no bones. One hour of the present is worth two in the future and a hundred in the past. Reform is an airship that is always on the verge of starting. Many a man would never be missed if his wife wouldn't throw things at him. In the average man's life the longest day is the one just before pay day. Most of our mistakes would never be noticed if we did not call attention to them. A woman of experience says it is easier to acquire husbands than it is to get rid of them. A convincing orator is one who has sense enough to shut up before his audience acquires that tired feeling. Men who have seen better days as a rule looked at them too often through the bottoms of whiskey glasses. So long as it succeeds in masquerading as dignified restraint, stupidity gains great credit for its possessor. Great talkers are like leaky kegs for everything runs out of them.
