Church and Clergy.

The Wolverhampton (England) Congregational Church has eight branches, three assistant pastors, and sixty lay preachers.

The National Council of Free Evangelical Churches in England has organized an evangelistic mission for the whole of England and Wales.

The Paulist Fathers in New York have opened a clubhouse for poor boys. It is furnished on a scale comparing favorably with the best of clubs.

Bishop Bowman said recently that he had been in the ministry forty-one years, and during all that time he had been too busy to take even a week's vacation.

The Rev. Dr. H. Allen Tupper, pastor of the fashionable First Baptist Church at Montclair, N. J., has given up his church to help the poor and work among the un-churched masses.

One of the most successful of evangelists now preaching in London is Gipsy Smith. He was born in a gipsy tent, reared in the lanes and fields of rural England, and knew nothing of books when converted.

In Brooklyn Sheriff Walton has appointed seventy Deputy Sheriffs, who are members of churches, to look out for children in the streets who do wrong. They are to deal especially with small boys who smoke cigars, play scraps and buy beer at saloons. The plan was suggested by Mrs. Marcus Wood of Young Women's Christian Association.

Speaking of Bishop Ingram of Stepney, who is held in high regard by the poor of London, the London King says: "An intensely human man, he is absolutely adored by the poor of the East End. He has boxed, smoked and played billiards with them, and by these earthly methods has reached their souls. 'One of us,' they called him. 'East London,' he once said, 'needs above all things hope,' and he has become their apostle of hope."

Every recruit in the British army or navy is required to declare himself as belonging to one of four churches—the Church of England, Catholic Church, Presbyterian, or Wesleyan. If he has no preference he is put upon the list of the Establishment. On one occasion a recruit said he had no religious belief. Whereupon the commanding officer said, with a twinkle in his eye: "Sergeant, this recruit has no religious belief. On Sunday see that he attends parade service with the Wesleyans at 8 o'clock, with the Presbyterians at 9, with the Roman Catholics at 10, and the Church of England service at 11."

The best family remedy for Coughs, Cold, Croup, Hoarseness, and every form of Inflammation is Bentley's Liniment. Sold by druggists and general dealers in two-sizes. Price ten cents and twenty-five cents. Full directions on the wrapper.—Be sure you get Bentley's.

Dr. Leyds Objects to so Much Bougus News.

BERLIN, March 9.—Dr. Leyds, the Transvaal diplomatic agent, has issued a protest from Brussels against "bogus news" purporting to emanate from him. He singles out a prominent Berlin paper as an offender.

"Look before you leap." Be sure you get Hood's Sarsaparilla when you call for it, and you will find health in its use.

THE READY MADE DRESS MAKERS.—We know it is an unprecedented accomplishment to put two hundred (200) ready made dresses and spring skirts on sale this early in the season at prices of 4 to 1 less than they will sell for in a few weeks, but this is a store that makes precedents rather than follows them. These ready made dresses and skirts were contracted for last October, we left the order open as regards style for we wanted the latest. The quality is at last October's value, to day's value at the head fountain is 25 per cent to 33 1/2 more. Come and see our ready-to-wear rainy day skirts, walking skirts and costumes.—Jas. ### Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam

Neglect a Trifling Cold and the most serious consequences will follow. It lives on your vitality. The stronger it becomes the weaker you are. Membranes become inflamed—causing a cough, and, until the irritation is reduced and the sore places healed, there is no possibility of stopping the disorder. ADAMSON'S BALSAM gives instantaneous relief and inevitably brings a perfect cure if taken as directed.
