

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

SAD BEREAVEMENT—Mr. David Hamilton, 27 Hensley Street received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Clarey in West Somerville, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Clarey were well known in this city. (Pictou papers please copy).

FUNERAL OF WINSLOE P. BRADSHAW—The funeral of Winsloe P. Bradshaw was held on Friday afternoon and very largely attended. Following a short service at the house, service was held in the Baptist Church at Central Bedouque, Rev. Mr. Crowe officiated. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. Bagnall, J. McInnis, George Taylor, John Frizzell, Wm. Calbeck, and M. Webster.—S.

TWO FIRE ALARMS—The firemen were called out twice on Saturday. About 10 o'clock a car caught fire on the street between the Queen and Fox Street. The fire department arrived in time to prevent any serious damage. The second alarm came about 12.10 p. m., when the brigade was called to extinguish a fire at the residence of Mr. V. C. Smallwood, North River Road. There was no damage.

CELEBRATED 72ND BIRTHDAY—Rev. W. H. Harding, of Summerside, well known throughout the Maritimes as a speaker on social problems, celebrated his 72nd birthday on Saturday, March 18th quietly at his home. He received many cards and letters with some very kind remembrances from friends in all parts of the Maritime Provinces, and the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Harding will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on April 16 (Easter Sunday).—S.

FORMER ISLANDERS—The inter-colonial Club of Boston had an Old Timers' night last Tuesday which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. They are now planning a lecture night for March 28th when the former Islanders will speak. The Constitution of the United States, Wendell H. Gordon, Attorney at Law; A. Dentist's Hobby, Frederick W. Christopher, D. D. S.; Manipulation of the Stock Market, William R. Murphy; Police Problems and P. H. C. Captain Archibald F. Campbell; The Care and Cure of Cancer, Charles J. E. Kieckham, M. D.; Chairman of the Evening, Peter B. Gaudet, Past President. Each speaker will be allowed ten minutes for the main address and five minutes for the question box.

W. M. S. MEETING—The W. M. S. of Marshfield Presbyterian Church held their annual social in the Mansie, Monday evening, March 13th and were very pleased with the number of friends especially of young people who responded to their invitation. Rev. Mr. Pritchard gave a very instructive address on the missionary work of the women in relation to the Church as a whole. An interesting entertainment was then given, after which lunch was served. The generous contributions given materially increased the funds of our society. All joined in thanking Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard for their hospitality and another of our socials ended with the singing of a hymn. The following is the program: Duet, Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard; Reading, Ear' Foster; Solo, Amy Hume; Reading, Robert Cairns; Reading, Mrs. Scott; Solo, Jean McNevin; Reading, Rupert Godfrey; Solo, Emma McNevin; Reading, Solange Foster. The accompanists for the evening were Misses Jenkins and McNevin.

Word was received on Saturday morning by Mr. M. F. Schurman, of Summerside, of the death that morning in the Toronto General Hospital, Toronto, of his brother, Major Schurman. The news was not wholly unexpected, as his condition had been grave for some days, but his vitality was so good that his family had great hopes of his recovery.

He leaves to mourn, his widow (formerly Miss Melvina Schurman, daughter of the late Caleb Schurman, of Freetown), two sons, Chester D. Schurman, District Supervisor, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto, and Urvile J. Schurman, prominent merchant at Radville, Saskatchewan and one daughter, Miss Bertha, at home; also three brothers, Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, of New York City, at present in Egypt; Caleb H. Schurman, of Chicago, and Maynard F. Schurman, of Summerside, and two sisters, Mrs. D. G. McDonald of Vancouver, B. C.; and Mrs. W. G. Schurman, of Montreal, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The remains will arrive home by Monday evening's train, accompanied by Messrs. Chester and Urvile Schurman.

TUESDAY

REASSURING NEWS—Mr. A. H. Mould received the encouraging news yesterday that Mrs. Mould was able to sit up for the first time since her operation in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, four weeks ago, and that she is steadily improving.

ATTEMPTED BREAK—An attempt was made to enter Foster's Drugstore through a window in the rear of the building at an early hour yesterday morning. The would-be burglars tried by boring a hole below a bolt to remove the bar which fastened the shutter. Some glass in the window was broken, but no entrance was effected.

RECEIVES INJURIES—While Harold Heartz was returning from Clyde River to York Point early this morning with three companions, the horse's bridle broke and the animal becoming unmanageable started to run. When near York Point the sleigh "slewed" striking a tree, throwing the occupants out and smashing the sleigh to kindling wood. One of the occupants, Miss Ida McLean, R. N., received injuries which necessitated her removal to the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

CLOSE CALL—Master Bobbie Jardine, little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. P. Jardine of Summerside had a close call on Monday morning from being knocked down by a passing motor car. The little fellow was playing with his sleigh in the snow on the road when a car came round the corner from Spring Street. The driver of the car turned out to avoid the child but the rear of the car swerved and struck a box which Bobbie had on his sleigh. Bobbie was standing quite close to the box and received a bad fright, but fortunately was not hurt. This should serve as a warning to children not to play in the road.—S.

LOCOMOTIVE DERAILED—A delay of two hours to train No. 39 which left the city at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, was occasioned by a derailment to the locomotive in the C. N. R. yards. The train was proceeding slowly when the front part of the locomotive, driving wheels and pony trucks went through the points near a switch, the tender and coaches remained on the rails. A wrecking crew was soon in action and in two hours the train proceeded on her way without damage. The large number of tracks at the point of derailment made the work of the wrecking crew more difficult.

AT GYRO—Mr. Frank Haley, Superintendent of the Dominion Fish Hatchery at Keppoon, described the hatchery and the method of collection, fertilization, culture and distribution of spawn and fish at the regular weekly meeting of the Gyro Club held last evening at the Canadian National Hotel. A reel of moving pictures taken by the Canadian National Railways of trout fishing scenes in Maligine River and Medicine Lake in the famous Jasper National Park, now named for its speckled beauties as well as its scenic beauties. Views were shown of two noted writers, Irvin Cobb and Courtney Ryley Cooper, landing some magnificent specimens. Mr. Harry Jamieson was the chairman.

DEATH OF MR. AITKEN—There passed away on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence W. Harris of Summerside, Mrs. Isabella Jean Aitken, widow of the late G. Albert Aitken. Mrs. Aitken was 83 years old and had resided at Summerside for the last five years. She was a woman with a pleasing personality and many friends, especially at Georgetown and the eastern end of the Island will regret to learn of her passing. She was the daughter of the late John Ross, Charlottetown. For many years she conducted the Aitken Hotel at Georgetown and was highly esteemed by the travelling public for her generous hospitality and courteous service. She was a member of the United Church and was attended by Rev. L. B. Campbell during her last illness. Her husband predeceased her about sixteen years ago. There are left to mourn three daughters, Mrs. C. W. Harris of Summerside; Mrs. Frank D. McDonald of Halifax and Miss Jean Aitken of Regina; also the following sisters: Mrs. Rod McLeod and Mrs. Jas. Walsh of Regina; Mrs. Charles Nash, Washington; Mrs. V. C. McLeod of Park Corner, to whom sympathy is extended. There will be a service at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. Harris, after which the remains will be conveyed to Georgetown by train. Service at Georgetown in the United Church on Wednesday at 2 p. m.—S.

SIGNS OF SPRING—Fourteen geese were to be seen flying over Bedouque harbour on Sunday which is a sure sign that spring is near at hand.—S.

SAD NEWS—Word has been received in this city by Mr. John Reid, Spring Park Rd., that his brother Joseph had passed away on March 17 at his home, Cambridge, Mass.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS—Mr. Angus DesRoches, Elm Ave., was receiving congratulations of his numerous friends yesterday on attaining his 85th birthday. Mr. DesRoches is the picture of health, robust and cheerful and it is the earnest wish of the Guardian in addition to his many friends that he will enjoy many more anniversaries.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—Mr. Wilfred Lawlor, son of Mr. Patrick Lawlor, Suffolk, had the misfortune to meet with a painful accident on Sunday morning. He and a friend were in the woods when the latter's gun accidentally discharged, the shot penetrating Mr. Lawlor's leg near the hip. He was removed to the City Hospital and is now resting comfortably.

DEATH OF PROSPER P. DESROCHES—There passed away quite suddenly on Saturday at his home in Miscouche, Prosper P. DesRoches a prominent farmer and native of Miscouche. Mr. DesRoches was 68 years of age and had lived all his life in Miscouche where he farmed quite extensively and was very highly esteemed. He was a member of the choir of St. John the Baptist Church and a member of the Knights of Columbus. He will be much missed in the district where he was ever ready to help in all works for the advancement of the community. His wife predeceased him twelve years ago. There are left to mourn three sons and two daughters, namely Leo at Wellington, Eric on the homestead and Louis in Manchester, Mass; Sister Saint Rosa of the Congregation of N. r. e. Dame, Montreal and Corinne at home; also two brothers, Louis at Manchester, Mass; and Stephen on the homestead and the following sisters, Mrs. Alice Williams, Ipswich, Mass.; Mrs. Silvere LeBlanc, Manchester, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph DesRoches, Wellington; Mrs. Gilbert Gaudet and Mrs. Ronald McNeill, Miscouche and Miss Madeline at home. To all of whom sympathy is extended. The funeral is taking place this morning at eight o'clock.—S.

DEATH OF MRS. CHARLES MAYNARD—Many friends will regret to learn of the death on Saturday last of Mary Delores, beloved wife of Charles Maynard of Port Hill. The deceased had been ill for about twelve months, but had borne her illness with Christian fortitude. She was a devout member of the Anglican Church at Port Hill and had been the organist for many years. She was prominent in the activities of the church and was a member of the Women's Auxiliary. She will be missed by the congregation and her place among her loved ones, at home will be sorely missed. There are left to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, three children, Mrs. Carl Williams of Tyne Valley, Herman and William at home. Mrs. Maynard was the daughter of the late Williams Andrews of North St. Eleanor's and of her family, four sisters and three brothers are left to mourn namely: Mrs. Ernest Secker of Omaha, Nebraska; Mrs. Irvin Johnson of Winnipeg; Mrs. R. H. Hunt and Mrs. F. F. May, wife of Major May of St. Eleanor's, Rev. A. E. Andrews of Pictou, N.S. Harry C. Andrews and Horace Andrews of St. Eleanor's, to all of whom sympathy is extended. Rev. Mr. Andrews arrived from Pictou on Monday for the funeral which took place yesterday afternoon.—S.

A HOUSE WARMING—A pleasant evening was spent when friends gathered to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harold Toombs in their new home. Many pleasing remarks were made about the lovely pieces of furniture Mr. Toombs had made and he certainly deserves credit for his work. After calling the house to order Mrs. Willard Nicholson and Mrs. Blair Andrew presented Mr. and Mrs. Toombs with a lovely tea and berry set for which Mr. Toombs, on behalf of his wife, made a very fitting reply and assured each one that their home would be ever ready to welcome. All joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. Mrs. Lewis Toombs was organist for the evening and a nice program was rendered. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies. Following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Toombs and family: We have gathered tonight to welcome you to your lovely new house. We feel as an institute we cannot let this opportunity pass without showing in some way our appreciation of you in our community. You have always been ready to help in every good cause, and your former home has always been a welcome to us all. Please accept this small gift not for its value, but as a remembrance of us all. Hoping you and your family may be spared many years to enjoy our new home. Signed on behalf of Mayfield Institute. Ella Wyand and Leta Andrew.

On the occasion of his ninety-ninth birthday on March 17, Mr. George Dickieson, New Glasgow, one of the pioneers of the district, received the congratulations of a host of friends. A large crowd assembled at his home, to celebrate the birthday with him.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Edison Rollings, Geo. H. Stevenson, Horace Ling, Mr. Quigley, H. Horne and Preston Campbell. All extended congratulations and hoped to be present next year to celebrate the one hundredth birthday.

Mr. Dickieson in reply gave a history of his life. In his boyhood days people had cut down the trees of the woods to hew out homes. He spoke of the difficulties and pleasures of life. Religion he regarded as the all-important factor. He had made a profession of faith while very young, and had found that religion was always something for a man to lean on. He had indulged in neither alcohol nor tobacco. Those present remarked on the youthful bearing and appearance of Mr. Dickieson, and as he spoke were impressed with his vigour. Lunch was served by the ladies of the community and the evening was whiled away by the singing of old time songs. The organists were Misses Ruth Dickieson and Vera Horne.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at Trinity United Church Parsonage, Summerside by Rev. L. B. Campbell, when Miss Helen Margaret MacFarlane, daughter of the late Leslie MacFarlane and Mrs. MacFarlane of Summerside was united in marriage to Roland McArthur of Summerside. The young couple were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. McArthur will reside in Summerside where a host of friends wish them every happiness through life.—S.

WEDNESDAY

FERRY DELAYED—The car ferry was delayed one hour and forty-five minutes yesterday afternoon in its crossing from Tormentine to Borden. The chief difficulty was experienced in the first part of the trip. The train from Borden arrived in the city at 9.05 p.m.

CONDITION FAIR—The condition of the two young men, Wilfred Lawlor and George Chappelle who sustained serious injuries during the last week and who are now in the City Hospital is reported fair. The former received a shot gun wound in the leg and the latter was injured by a threshing machine while the young men are not on the danger list, neither has shown any marked improvement.

LOOT DISCOVERED—Cached beneath an overturned boat beside the Prince Street Wharf, almost a dozen plush cushions from a C. N. R. passenger car were found a few days ago by Sergeant Dominic Doyle. The railway authorities were notified of the discovery. The goods had evidently been stolen, and placed under the boat until an opportune time should arrive for their removal.

SUMMERSIDE TOWN COUNCIL—An adjourned meeting of the Summerside Town Council was held on Monday night and some business attended to. Mayor Manson presided. All the Council members were present with the exception of Coun. Schurman. Motions were passed appointing Messrs James D. Hard and Ralph Dods as auditors for the Town Accounts; and Messrs. Joseph Wood and Willis R. Warren as assessors for the town. The usual grant of $200 was passed for the Prince County Hospital. On motion of Coun. McNeill the truckman's wages were set at 25 cents an hour for man and 15 cents for horse. This was seconded by Coun. Grady. Mr. Edgar Clark tender for policemen's uniforms was accepted. A resolution was passed on motion of Coun. Bell to send a letter of condolence to the family of the late Major Schurman, who was a former member of the Council. Board. Council adjourned.—S.

THREE MINISTERS TO BE HONOURED—At the Convocation to be held on the 7th of April of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, the Degree of Doctor of Divinity is to be conferred upon Rev. R. Moorhead Kirk, B.D., minister of St. James Kirk, Charlottetown, who will be presented for the Degree by Hon. Dr. Cyrus MacMillan, Professor of English in McGill University. The second minister to receive the Degree will be Rev. R. G. Stewart, B.D., minister of St. John's Church, Toronto, one of the outstanding preachers in the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The third to receive the high honour is Rev. J. Stephens Roose, M.A., minister of St. Andrew's Church, Eastbourne, England, a prominent cleric in the Presbyterian Church of England, and a graduate of Oxford University, and who rowed for that University in the famous boat-race of the year 1898.

LAI D TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Henry Smith took place yesterday afternoon, service being held in Trinity Church, of which she had been a life long member. Rev. C. N. Brown presided conducting an impressive service, assisted by Rev. Dr. Ramsay and Rev. Dr. Legate. The service, which was fully choral and in which the choirs of Trinity, St. James and Central Christian Churches took part, concluded with the "Dead March in Saul" by the organist. Mrs. Kenneth Richards rendered impressively as a solo, "Abide With Me." The funeral cortege proceeded to the railway station where the mourners entrained to Sherwood Cemetery, where interment took place. The service there was conducted by Rev. Dr. Ramsay and Rev. C. N. Brown. The honorary pall bearers were: His Lordship Chief Justice Mathieson, His Worship Mayor Stewart, Dr. H. D. Johnson, Messrs. W. K. Rogers, R. E. Mutch and Otto Baird. The active pall bearers were: Prof. G. D. Steel, Messrs. A. R. Gillis, Geo. J.

FUNERAL OF PROSPER P. DESROCHES—The funeral of Prosper P. DesRoches was held on Tuesday morning at eight o'clock from his late residence in Miscouche to St. John the Baptist Church. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Martin Monaghan, D.D., P.P. The funeral was very largely attended, many from the surrounding districts being present. The pallbearers were: Messrs. D. F. McNeill and Mosey Biauquiere of Summerside; Stanley C. Poirier, Hubert J. DesRoches, Louis McMillan and Fred DesRoches.—S.

MISSING BOY—A request has been received for the whereabouts of Norman Standring, formerly of St. John, N. B. He is about fourteen years of age and stands about five foot, seven; has a fairly round face and dark hair. He was last heard of at Point Prim about two years ago. When he left there he intended to go to Southport. Any information as to his whereabouts should be forwarded to Inspector Fripps of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who will pass the information along to the boy's aunts.

PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATES—At the close of the Zion Church Sunday School last Sunday, four young girls received the W. C. T. U. Certificates for the Temperance Course, and also a prize from the W. C. T. U., Charlottetown. They are pupils of Mrs. Shaw's class, and they and their teacher are to be congratulated on doing so well. Their names (in alphabetical order) are as follows: Margaret Ferguson, Fanny Leigh, Jean McEachern, Vivian Partridge. The presentation of the Certificates and prizes was made by Mrs. (Rev.) J. M. McLeod, President of the W. C. T. U., Charlottetown.

PASSING OF FORMER ISLANDER—Friends in Prince County will learn with regret of the death in Irehn, Iowa, of Mr. Daniel R. Stewart, of that place. The late Mr. Stewart was born at Marshfield, P. E. I., and was the son of Donald and Priscilla Stewart. He learned the trade of carriage building at New Annapolis, where he will be kindly remembered by old friends. Mrs. Percy Macchbanks, of New Annapolis, is a cousin of the deceased.—S.

DEATH OF FRANK ARSENAULT OF URBAINVILLE—There passed away on Monday after an illness of six months, a highly respected citizen of Urbainville, Frank Arsenault. He leaves to mourn, his widow, Miss Gaudet, formerly of Miscouche, and an adopted son, Sylvère Gaudet, who lived at home. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning from his late residence to the Roman Catholic Church at Emgont Bay. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. X. Gallant, P.P. Interment was in the R. C. Cemetery.—S.

PASSING OF MRS. CHRISTINA SHEEN—Many friends in Summerside were grieved to learn of the death on Saturday last of Mrs. Christina Sheen, widow of the late James Sheen, of O'Leary. The deceased had successfully managed the farm since her husband's death some years ago, and although 81 years of age, did not retire from active work until her last illness. She was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. There are left to mourn one son, William, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Gorrill, of O'Leary.—S.

Last evening about 8.30 o'clock the residence of Peter MacDonald, Kensington, was totally destroyed by fire. The blaze, the origin of which was unknown, spread rapidly, and it was soon seen the building was doomed, as the fire brigade was unable to check the flames.

All means employed to save the building failed, but the fire brigade and citizens managed to remove household effects. At the time of writing full particulars could not be learned.

The residence was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald and three of a family. The loss is estimated at $1,000.

Tweedy, R. G. Taylor, J. R. Paton and E. T. Higgs. The mourners were Messrs. Henry Smith, Keith Rogers, William Rogers, R. L. Cotton, William Cotton, Arthur MacDougall.

The death occurred at Panmure Island on March 18th of Mrs. Catherine McKearney age 78 years, widow of the late James McKearney.

She leaves to mourn a family of one son and four daughters: James in Attleboro, Mass., Mrs. Mathias Condon, Panmure Island with whom she resided for the past year, Mrs. James McCarron, Montague; Mrs. Frank Clinton and Mrs. James McGee both of Charlottetown, also two sisters.

The funeral took place to St. Paul's Church Sturgeon thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery where she was laid to rest beside the remains of her husband, who predeceased her two years ago. May her Soul rest in peace.

ROSS-McLEAN—A wedding of interest to many people of this vicinity took place at St. John, N. B., Saturday, October 29, when Sarah M. McLean of Houlton was united in marriage to Kenneth L. Ross also of Houlton, Maine. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Lawrence Newton, pastor of St. Joseph's Presbyterian Church of St. John, the double ring service being used. The bride wore a brown traveling suit with accessories to match and the groom wore a dark blue business suit. They were attended by Miss Louise Anderson and Gerald A. Calwell of Houlton. Mr. and Mrs. Ross are both well and favorably known here and their many friends extend congratulations. (Summerside papers please copy).

THURSDAY

PASSING OF FORMER ISLANDER—Friends in Prince County will learn with regret of the death in Irehn, Iowa, of Mr. Daniel R. Stewart, of that place. The late Mr. Stewart was born at Marshfield, P. E. I., and was the son of Donald and Priscilla Stewart. He learned the trade of carriage building at New Annapolis, where he will be kindly remembered by old friends. Mrs. Percy Macchbanks, of New Annapolis, is a cousin of the deceased.—S.

PASSING OF MRS. CHRISTINA SHEEN—Many friends in Summerside were grieved to learn of the death on Saturday last of Mrs. Christina Sheen, widow of the late James Sheen, of O'Leary. The deceased had successfully managed the farm since her husband's death some years ago, and although 81 years of age, did not retire from active work until her last illness. She was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. There are left to mourn one son, William, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Gorrill, of O'Leary.—S.

Last evening about 8.30 o'clock the residence of Peter MacDonald, Kensington, was totally destroyed by fire. The blaze, the origin of which was unknown, spread rapidly, and it was soon seen the building was doomed, as the fire brigade was unable to check the flames.

All means employed to save the building failed, but the fire brigade and citizens managed to remove household effects. At the time of writing full particulars could not be learned.

The residence was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald and three of a family. The loss is estimated at $1,000.

Palmer and Edgar Clark. There were many lovely floral tributes. Interment was in the family plot.—S.

ACCIDENT CASE—The case of Wm. Meikle and Mrs. Wm. Meikle vs. The King, a petition of right in which the plaintiffs claim damages for injuries received in an automobile collision, came before Mr. Justice Saunders yesterday. Damages claimed amount to $1,340 as a result of an accident which took place on the MacIntyre Highway on Aug. 18, 1931, and in which a Government truck was involved. The witnesses for the plaintiff were Philip Saunders, Ernest MacKay, Edward Hartinger, Hollis Moore, William Cotton, and for the defense Roy Sherren. When the court adjourned the latter was on the stand. W. E. Bentley, K. C., and J. A. Bentley for the plaintiff, and M. A. Farmer for the defense.

FRIDAY

The many friends of Mr. Neil MacQuarrie are pleased to see him home again after spending two months in the P. E. Island Hospital where he underwent two operations. He speaks in the highest terms of doctors and nursing staff.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Mrs. James McMurrer took place from A. A. Hennessey's funeral home yesterday morning at 8.45 and was largely attended. Solemn High Mass was celebrated at St. Dunstan's Basilica, the officiating clergymen were Father McCarthy, Father Dougan, deacon and Father O'Hanley sub deacon. The pall bearers were George Bell, George Vaughan, Victor Coyle, Ernest Prunty, T. L. Smith and James Farley. Service at the grave was conducted by Father O'Hanley.

RESIGNATION—Miss Cassie McKay, Post Mistress at Middletown, Kings Co., has tendered her resignation, on account of poor health, to take effect on or before June 1st. The Post Office has been in her house for over fifty years, and she has been in charge of the office since 1886. Miss McKay has discharged her duties most efficiently for many years, to the entire satisfaction of the whole community, and her many friends hope that when released from the exacting duties of the Post Office, she may regain a good measure of health, and enjoy many years of comfort and happiness.

GAVE TRAVELOGUE—Hon. Frank R. Heartz gave a very interesting address, a travelogue on a trip through a section of Southern France, before the Prince Street School Literary Society yesterday afternoon. The speaker enriched his description of a day's travel from Paris by a sketch of French history related to the points of interest through which he had passed. Reference was made to Versailles and numerous other cities of historic interest. The address was coloured by numerous anecdotes. A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Miss Jacqueline MacDonald, seconded by Mr. L. T. Lowther and tendered to Mr. Heartz by the president, Miss Marion Stewart. A dainty luncheon was served after the address.

Among the many visitors to Summerside attending St. Patrick's Play were Messrs. Frederick Rauhman and Leopold Shirenan of Kinkora.

Zion Choir Concert was given last evening to a capacity house. A splendid musical program, under the direction of Prof. Thompson, preceded a one-act farce comedy entitled "Pa's New Housekeeper", which created much merriment. The choir was assisted by Miss Ruby McDougall, who gave two excellent readings and by Mr. Alex McLean, whose piano number was loudly enjoyed.

The program was as follows: Chorus (a) Scots Wha Hae; (b) Glory and Love (Faust). Reading—Miss Ruby McDougall. Vocal Solo—Goodbye (Tosti) Mrs. Arthur Roper. Male Quartette—"Smile"—Zion Quartette (Craswell, McLeod, McKinnon and McDougall). Piano Solo—Polanais (Chopin)—Mr. Alex McLean. Male Octette (a) Sweet and Low; (b) Ethiopian Romanza—Messrs. H. Craswell, B. Livingston, J. McLeod, J. Murdoch, R. Ramsay, M. McKinnon, N. McPherson and Rev. Mr. Webster. "Pa's New Housekeeper", played by Pa Jackson, a widower who had decided intentions, Mr. M. McKinnon; Jimmie Jackson, his son, who disapproved of them, Mr. Art Hall; Jack Brown, Jimmie's son, who helped thwart them, Mr. Bert V. Kingston; Mattie Jackson, Jimmie's sister who couldn't understand them, Miss Isabel Storey; Mollie Holbrook, her friend, who got mixed up in them, Miss Alice Partridge. Each character was exceptionally well played.

That the Maritime Board of Trade is almost ready to go to the three Maritime Governments with a concrete proposal for the re-establishment of the Maritime Transportation Commission was the statement made by Mr. Norman T. Avar, Amherst, President of the Board, in an interview with The Guardian last evening.

Mr. Avar who arrived in the City last evening is here in connection with the work of the Maritime Board, and will meet local members of its executive today. "At the present time," Mr. Avar stated, "the main objective of the Board is to have the Maritime Transportation Commission re-established. We are making very good progress, and are endeavoring to perfect plans for re-organization before making a definite appeal to the governments for support. We are now almost ready to go to the governments with a concrete plan. In view of the railway bill about to be passed at Ottawa we feel that it is more important than ever that the Commission be formed to protect Maritime rights. "The New Brunswick Government has publicly announced that it will support the Commission, and we have every reason to believe that the other two governments will join with them." Mr. Avar leaves tomorrow morning on return to Amherst.

BIRTHS

WOOD—At Alexandra on March 4, 1933 to J. Wilbur and Mrs. Wood a daughter. WHITE—At the P. E. Island Hospital, on Tuesday, March 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. White, City a daughter, (Shirley Lauretta). MACDONALD—At Long Creek March 15, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. MacDonald, a son. MACINNIS—At 165 Cumberland St. City, March 18, 1933 to Mr. and Mrs. William MacInnis, a son, William Edward. WOOD—In this city, March 20, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Wood a son. FLEMING—At Hope River, March 8, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Fleming, a son, John Ronald. FLOOD—At P. E. I. Hospital, March 21, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Flood, Southport, a daughter. WOOD—At the P. E. I. Hospital, March 22, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Almon Wood, Marshfield, a son. MCMILLAN—At Albany Plains, on March 17, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. Shaw McMillan, a son. NOONAN—In the Prince County Hospital, March 21st, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Noonan, a daughter.

DEATHS

MCKINNON—At New Argyle, March 23, 1933, Ellen, wife of the late Lauchlan McKinnon. MACKINNON—At New Argyle, on March 23, 1933, Mrs. Ellen McKinnon, aged 91 years. MACLEAN—At Brookfield, March 23rd, Isabel MacLean, aged 71. MAHAR—At the home of her nephew, Edward Mahar, Sturgeon, February 27th, 1933, Bridget Mahar, aged 78 years. WHITE—At York Pt. on Sunday, March 19th, Albert James White, in his 77th year. MCLEAN—At Souris, March 19, 1933, Angus MacLean, M. D., aged 75. P. SCHURMAN—At the General Hospital, Toronto, Saturday, March 18, 1933, Major Schurman, aged 80 yrs. WHITE—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Saturday, March 18th, Shirley White, aged 3 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. White. ROSS—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Harris, Summerside, Isabel Jane Ross aged 83 years, wife of the late G. Albert Aitken, formerly of Georgetown. MACDONALD—At Long Creek March 18, 1933, David MacDonald, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. MacDonald. MACPHAIL—At St. Catharines, March 21st, Mrs. Archie MacPhail HAZARD—At the home of her brother, Mr. L. A. Hazard, on March 21, 1933, Annie C. Hazard, in her 77th year. MCMURRER—At the Sacred Heart Home, March 21st, Bridget E. Hughes, dearly beloved wife of James McMurrer, aged 64 years. BRADLEY—At Peake's Station on Feb. 24, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Urban P. Bradley a son (James Gerard). MACDONALD—At Kilmuir, on Saturday, March 11, 1933, Hugh S. MacDonald, age 68. SHEEN—At O'Leary, March 19, 1933, Christina, wife of the late James Sheen, aged 81. MACPHAIL—At St. Catharines March 21st, Mrs. Archie MacPhail GILLIS—In Lynn, Mass., on March 17th, Ann McLean, wife of the late Peter Gillis, aged 78 years, 1 month, 19 days.