A NOVELTY SALE AT EXHIBITION.—A Superfluity Table will be one of the great attractions at the coming Exhibition. The daughter of the Empire takes this occasion to ask for contributions of odds and ends to this laudable enterprise which is one of the means arranged by the Committee to raise funds for their patriotic work. The contributions will be received at the homes of Mrs. G. W. Hodgson, 5 Grafton St.; and at Mrs. W. L. Stewart's corner of Richmond and Weymouth streets; many homes and individuals may be glad of this opportunity to donate articles "that never will be missed" and at the same time relieve them of caring for and storing away things that encumber and occupy space in cupboards, bureau drawers, trunks and closets. We all have articles that may appear useless to us but may prove of service to another so here is a chance to help our soldiers overseas by donating the superfluous vases, books, chinaware, pictures, bric-a-brac, silverware, jewelry, fancy-work, and everything you have no use for. Send or telephone and the articles will be recalled for.

A. E. TOOMBS Charlottetown's Home of Music. Music the ideal amusement for the home. It is safe and sane, appealing to our finer emotions, binding family influences with a wholesomeness that links young and old together. Mr. Edison has as through a miracle Re-Created the Music of the world's greatest Artists, Vocal and Instrumental. It is impossible to distinguish between the Artists in the original and Mr. Edison's Re-Creations of their Art. This is proved daily in Canada and the United States by actual test, that of having the Artists sing or play with their Re-Creations. The New Edison, or the Phonograph with a soul is Mr. Edison's most sublime gift to mankind. It has been demonstrated this week in Hartz Memorial Hall and the Prince Edward Theatre. Hearing is believing. We feel sure you are convinced Mr. Townsman of the superiority of the New Edison. It will be our pleasure to give you further demonstration at our store. Come in and hear of our easy payment plan.
