Cahan Vs. King

Mr. King says that $54,000,000 has been taken from the national treasury by Governor-General's Government, and arraigns the present Government on unmeasured terms for "looting" the said treasury in this "illegal" fashion.

Splendid Georgetown Meeting

When Mr. Johnston, he continued said that 236 articles had been exempt from the sales tax by the budget, he was making a mistake. There was no such thing in it. All his life Mr. Johnston had been twisting and distorting the facts, making black appear white and white appear black. It had now become so natural to him that he could hardly be blamed for it.
