On Saturday evening Dr. J. T. McElish delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture before the students of St. Dunstan's College. The subject chosen by the learned lecturer was, A trip through Scotland and for two hours he held the rapt attention of the audience by his graphic description of the Land of the Brave Heart and Shaggy Wood. At the close of the lecture T. R. Gorman moved a vote of thanks which was seconded by W. J. Grant. The lecturer returned thanks.

There was a great crowd at New Wonderland on Saturday evening, where a splendid entertainment was given embracing many pleasing features as usual. An addition to the usual program was the fact that three of the seats in the big hall had been numbered, privately by a newspaper man, unknown to any one, but these seats prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Annie Bourke $2.50; Mrs. Benj. Peters $1.50; Miss Maggie McKimion $1, making $5 in all. The lucky ones on coming to the platform received the above sums, by Mrs. Hogg. New Wonderland retains its well-deserved popularity.

The Abegweit Club desires to explain to the public its position with regard to the failure in the playing of Friday night's senior game. On January 29th, at a meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hockey League called at the request of the Victoria Hockey Club of this City, a resolution was passed instructing the Secretary to telegraph the President of the M. P. A. A. at Halifax asking for the suspension of the Island hockeyists lately on the Maritime tour. Some days later notification was received by the Secretary of the Island League from Hon. Sec. F. W. Meyer of Halifax, stating that a bulletin had been issued announcing the suspension of the above mentioned players. Among the players, was Ramsay, who Friday night, appeared on the ice with the Victoria team. For the information of the public it may be stated that all players, playing with or against a suspended player are liable to immediate suspension. This would mean the disqualification of the members of both teams thus killing hockey for the season. The Abegweits stated that they would not play with Ramsay on the line-up. After much argument the Abegweits consented to play with Ramsay on the team but under protest so that the public might not be disappointed. However, the referee decided not to allow the game to proceed with Ramsay on the line-up, but the Victorias absolutely refused to appear without him. Hence the disappointment handed out to the public.

On Saturday the chief topic of conversation in this City among the thousands interested in sport was the occurrence of the previous evening in the Arena Rink, a result of a large crowd had assembled to witness what was expected to be the closest and most interesting games of the season. Ramsay, one of the Vics who were abroad, made his appearance on the ice with the same team, which caused great surprise. A protest was entered by the Abbies and allowed by the referee. After more than an hour the puck was in play and taken up to the Victorias' goal, while the latter team watched the performance from a corner of the ice. The referee declared the game forfeited to the Abbies. The audience was simply disgusted and greatly dismayed at the proceedings. Quite a number remained to see the intermediate game. It was called at 9.30. After much individual play in which the Vics seemed to have slight advantage the Abbies' goal was cleared by a good lift and the puck went to the other end of the ice. About this time a Vic was sent to the bench for a time. After about twenty minutes play A. Blatney scored for the Vics. Vics 1 Abbies 0. The second half was much faster and the Abbies got in some good combination work which resulted in a score by Purcell. A couple of minutes later Purcell again found the net with a splendid shot. The play was fairly even for the remainder of the game, and when the bell rang the first victory for the season by a score of 2 to 1. The play was rather rough and the penalties numerous though light. Messrs Baker and McArthur of Summerside, as usual, were strict and impartial in their rulings.

A large congregation assembled in Central Christian Church, last evening to hear the first of the series of sermons on "Our Tour Around the World," which the pastor, Rev. J. F. Floyd, has consented to give. The subject of the sermon last evening was the description of the Red Sea and the crossing of the Israelites. As Mr. Floyd is an able and earnest speaker and uses his knowledge of travel as a means of illustrating his sermons, he was much appreciated by those present.

The following gentlemen, with none to follow have "gone the whole hog" for the curling which commence this afternoon. All will wish them joy in their pursuit of "The Roadin' Game"—May their staines never be "hogged." His Honor, Lieut. Governor MacKinnon, the Reverends T. P. Fullerton and H. E. Thomas, Lieut. Col. Davison, Majors Weeks and Macdonald, Messrs Percy Pope, T. C. James, William Brhauf, Sydney Grey, A. Ernest Ings, W. F. H. Carvell, D. B. Stewart, E. H. Beer, W. K. Rogers, J. J. Davis, L. B. Macmillan, Rusben Macdonald and Dr. F. F. Kelly.

Universal regret was expressed yesterday when the fact was known that Sidney J. Allison, who has been among us but a few weeks, had passed away after a brief illness at the P. E. Island Hospital. He was taken there last Thursday suffering from a very severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia, but fatal results were not anticipated. Sudden complications set in, and without any warning the deceased had endeared himself to many friends during his short residence here, and was one of the most popular young men who has ever come among us. He was clever, extremely gentlemanlike, refined and courteous to all with whom he came in contact. His efficiency in his professional capacity in the theatre in which he sang, was a talent given to few; and his beautiful voice, his attractive personality and his genial presence will be sorely missed. The funeral is under the auspices of the Sons of England, and will take place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of Robert Hogg, City, where his remains were removed early yesterday morning. Many will regret him, and all will remember him kindly. In losing him the truth of the words "The death of a Good Man," are realized. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to his absent friends as well as to the countless ones he has left here.

A deputation from Cavendish, Bay View and Stanley Bridge waited on the Government Friday, asking that the road petitioned for between Bay View Bridge and Stanley Bridge, be opened at the earliest possible date, so that the road may be ready for the mail-bauleys of the Stanley Bridge Dairying Company when the factory opens in June 1909. The delegation consisted of C. P. Simpson, Cavendish, J. A. Clark, Bay View, Miller Fyfe Stan'y, Alex McKay and Walter Simpson Bay View. They met with the Premier, Commissioner of Public Works and the Commissioner of Agriculture. They were introduced by William Laird, M. L. A. of the second District of Queens. They received every encouragement that the road would be opened if matter could be amicably arranged between the owners of the property that the road crosses, and the Government. The Government engineer went to Stanley Friday night and met with all interested there Saturday.

The home of Wm. and Mrs. Teed, 62 Edward St., City, was the scene of a very happy event, on Saturday afternoon, when their only daughter, Wilhelmina Louise, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Albert G. Essery, Railway Mail Clerk, and son of Isaac Essery, Union Road Lot 33. The wedding march was played by Miss Louise Essery, sister of the groom at twelve thirty, after which the ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, by Rev. H. E. Thomas, assisted by Rev. D. McLean. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride was attired in cream silk voile over satin and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern. Immediately after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served in perfect style. The presents were comparatively numerous, testifying to the high esteem in which the recipients are held; among them being a splendid and suitable remembrance from the bride's Sabbath School class of the First Methodist Church. At 3 o'clock, Large Bros span of greys were on hand and conveyed the happy couple to the Railroad Station, where they took the three fifteen train for Souris, amid showers of rice, and the very best wishes of their many assembled friends, for a happy married life. The Guardian joins in congratulations.

The Hasco in the senior game Friday night is very regrettable, but no blame attaches in any way to the Arena Management. The managers had taken every step possible to ensure a successful evening's sport. Thus for a week advertising in the three City dailies had been extensively done, posters had been placed in the various parts of the City, the seating plan had been early put on sale, a good sheet of ice awaited the players, the Fourth Regiment Band was present to relieve monotonous waits with stirring music, but despite careful detailed arrangements no game was played. The managers used every endeavor to have the teams and officials reach an amicable understanding so that the sport-loving public might witness the scheduled game.
