532,492 DEATHS A YEAR IN BRITAIN

LONDON, February 27.—(British United Press)—The Registrar-General's statistics for 1929 shows that the deaths of 532,492 persons were registered during the year—269,903 males and 262,589 females—which was 16 per cent more than in 1928, and much the highest since mortality was swollen in 1918 by the great influenza pandemic.

The death rate was greatest at the two extremes of life and lowest among young adults.

Attention is drawn to the excessive mortality of illegitimate children, the rate per million live births being 9.691, against 1.288 for legitimate infants; whilst the rates from violence and neglect at birth were 6.312 and .93 respectively.

Deaths ascribed to cancer during 1929 numbered 56,896—the highest number yet recorded for any one year.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—Canadians have no occasion to apologize for their winter climate, says Dr. Charles Camsell, Deputy Minister of Mines under the Dominion Government.

Speaking last night before the second annual meeting of the Canadian Geographical Society, which again chose him president, he said winter was a season to be thankful for, and he recalled that General Jan Christian Smuts, famed South African, recently dubbed snow as "one of Canada's greatest assets." Snow provided a ready access to the north country and a lack of it would certainly retard the progress of that part of the Dominion, Mr. Camsell commented.

SUCCESSFUL ANNUAL MEETING OF I. O. D. E.

The annual meeting of the Abergeil Chapter of the I. O. D. E. at Summerside was held in their rooms in the library on Thursday afternoon with the regent Miss Hunt in the chair. The meeting was very largely attended and successful from every standpoint. The following officers were elected: Regent, (re-elected) Miss Hunt; First Vice President, Mrs L. A. Moore; Sec. Vice President, Mrs E. T. Tanton; Standard Bearer, Miss Cecelia Burrows; Educational and Echo Sec. Miss Ramsay; Executive Councillors, Mrs Wilfred Lecky, Mrs Mussen, Mrs James Wood, Mrs H. T. Holman and Mrs H. H. LeFurphy; Miss Gladys Holman, Convener of Library committee; Mrs Neil MacLeod, Convener of War Memorial. After the minutes of the previous annual meeting were read and adopted the various committees brought in their reports. All reports were very encouraging. The secretary's report showed much activity during the year and showed that the year just closed had been one of the most successful in the history of the Chapter. The financial report also was very encouraging and showed a balance on the right side of the ledger. The librarians report was of particular interest as this is the chief work of the I. O. D. E. A renewed interest in the Library is very marked, some very fine books have been added to the shelves and a good supply of magazines have been obtained. The report from Mrs MacMillan, Educational Secretary of the Order at Charlottetown, on the overseas Scholarship and Bursary holders was read by Mrs Perry and proved very interesting. The National Anthem closed one of the most successful meetings in the history of the Summerside Chapter.

"Well, George," said a country clergyman to an old man who sat by the wayside breaking stones, "that pile does not seem to get any less."

"No, vicar," replied the old man; "them stones be like the Ten Commandments—ye can go on breaking 'em' but ye can't get rid of 'em!"

Helen: "Yes, dear, I'm to be married next month, and I'm terribly worried about it."

Phyllis: "Oh, I shouldn't worry, dear, I expect he'll turn up all right."

The Campbell's Of Cawdor

John, seventh Thane of Calder, or Cawdor, married in 1492, Isabel Rose, daughter of Kilmavock, and, dying in 1494, left one posthumous child, a daughter, Muriel. Kilmavock intended this heiress for his grandson, her first cousin; but Kilmavock being pursued in a criminal process for robbery in joining McIntosh for spoiling the lands of Urquhart of Cromarty Argyll, the justice-general, made the process easy to him, got the ward of Muriel's marriage of the King in 1493, and she was carried to Inverary in the year 1499. In the autumn of 1499, Campbell of Inverliver, with sixty men, came to receive the child, on pretence of sending her south to school. As Inverliver came with little Muriel to Dalhelich, in Strathnairn, he was close pursued by Alexander and Hugh Calder, her uncles, with a superior party. The conflict was sharp, and several were killed.

Muriel was married in 1510 to Sir John Campbell, third son of Argyll. He resided permanently at Cawdor from 1524 till 1546, the year of his death. Lady Muriel died in 1573, resigning the thanedom in favor of her grandson, John (III). Sir John early in the seventeenth century, sold Croly and disposed of Perintosh to Lord Lovat; and mortgaged other lands in order to purchase, or rather to conquer, the Island of Islay. The Cawdor family kept possession of Islay from 1612 to 1726, when it was purchased by Daniel Campbell of Shawfield.

Sir John Campbell, son of Sir Alexander (VII), succeeded his father.

USE OF PENNY SAVINGS NO LONGER A JOKE

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 27. (U. P.)—Comic artists for years have elaborated on the theme of papa shaking pennies from little Johnny's savings bank for his night out, but the present economic depression has turned into grim reality, says J. R. Littleproud, inspector for the Ontario Penny Bank.

Hundreds of families are drawing on their children's Penny Bank deposits in order to buy necessities, Littleproud states in his latest report.

The teacher wished her pupils to write a short essay on "Alfred the Great."

"Of course," she remarked, "every one knows that he caused the cakes to burn, so the less you say about it the better!"

One little girl's effort was as follows:

"King Alfred was a very good king, and that is why he was called 'The Great.' He defeated the Danes and went away into the country to try and catch them. He was staying with a lady at her house, but the less we say about it the better!"

Briggs (facetiously): "Well, old boy, have you run into anything yet with the new car?"

Simpson (gloomily): "Debt."

PARIS STYLES

What can you do with tucks? Any number of things—just listen! If you are quite slender, use them all the way around the skirt of an 'afternoon frock' in printed silk, or plain satin, or chiffon, georgette, too. Stretch them down well over the hips and then let them flare out. They can vary from pin size to half an inch, and in this way give fullness to the skirt and solve the problem of a too thin waist.

On the other hand, if the waist and hips have a decided tendency in the other direction, fashion's skirt plain; it should have a fine pin-stripe in it if possible, or even a wider one, and then use tucks in the blouse. Insert a band of them, tiny ones this time, all the way around, beginning under the arms and extending to the waist. This gives a lengthening effect, slenderizing the silhouette. Be sure, of course, that the tucks run perpendicular and not parallel, or you will create the opposite effect.

Tucks done diagonally, in criss-cross fashion, grouped in sets alternating the way they run to form squares, or some set design, are always effective. Used from the shoulder partially down the sleeve gives distinction to an arm whether the sleeve is long or short. Collars may be tucked around the edge in scallops, or squares, or triangles, or finished with a wide hem or lace. Such a collar may even find itself terminating in a narrow band of ribbon. These are just a few things that "tuck" in your mind about tucks. Being careful of line, you can use them in individual ways.

EMBRYONIC REPORTERS BUZZ

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 27.—University of Wisconsin Journalists buzzed gathered and wrote 16,296 columns of news matter during the four-month period ending Feb. 1. Five of the 136 students enrolled in the sophomore reporting class this year exceeded 500 inches each, and two wrote over 1,000 inches. Most of the copy appeared in Wisconsin Messengers.

Pictures imprinted on the skin are a common freak of lightning. Natural objects, trees, ships, and the patterns of ferns have often been found on a man's, woman's, or child's body after it has been struck.

REMAINS ARRIVE

The death occurred at the Augusta General Hospital, Augusta, Maine, on Feb. 24th, after a short illness of Mrs. Arthur Leigher, nee Mary Jane Martin, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Martin, 184 Great George Street. The body, accompanied by her husband and two sisters, Angie and Kit and brother Dolph, all of Boston, Mass., arrived home yesterday morning. The funeral will take place Sunday at 3.15 from the home of her parents to St. Dunstan's Basilica, thence to R. C. Cemetery.

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR REMOVAL OF CITY GARBAGE

At a special meeting of the City Council on Tuesday, it was decided to license Messrs. J. A. Hearn and B. C. VanDerstine to remove refuse and garbage within the City to the dump where an incinerator is to be erected.

According to the agreement, the contractors are to procure a suitable site for a dump, and place an incinerator there. The dump is to be kept in a sanitary condition.

Garbage may be removed to the dump, 30 per cent of which is incapable of incineration, at the rate of 25 cents a cart load. The contract also provides:

"That the contractors will as soon as possible, institute a general garbage disposal service for all residents of the City, who shall require the same, and will thereafter, upon request of any resident, give such service on the terms following: The contract will supply a proper and adequate galvanized metal container, of good sanitary type, minimum content one-half barrel, and will remove therefrom and therefrom the ordinary household garbage and yard refuse of one household, at least once each week, and more frequently if reasonably required by the sanitary officer, all for the price or sum of 25 cents per week, payable in advance; such removal will be increased twice weekly in summer if reasonably required by the sanitary officer, and will at all events be so increased, when the total of householders served shall amount to three hundred, without increase in charge. The contractors may require a deposit of one dollar before giving service, such deposit to be repaid, less overdue charges or damage to containers."

The sanitary officer is to have oversight of the dump. The City is to pay the contractors $1,200 a year for maintenance of the dump and for service. The agreement is to be effective from May, 1931 till May, 1936.

"The City undertakes to procure from the Board of Health, a grant to the contractors of the right to remove refuse and garbage within the City to run concurrently with the continuance of the agreement and renewal thereof, such grant to exclude all other persons from establishing any regular removal or disposal service to more than ten householders at a greater frequency than once a month.

"Stops me from talking nonsensical, my dear," he said, kissing her.

"Ah," she replied, "that was the reason you never smoked when we were courting!"

ISLAND CLERGY PAY VISIT TO BISHOP - ELECT

Inauguration of Rev. Dr. O'Sullivan at Basilica Likely to Take Place May 19.

Right Reverend Monsignor McDonald, Rector of The Basilica, accompanied by Right Reverend Monsignor J. C. McLean, Sauris, and Reverend G. McLellan, D. D., Tynish, returned by the mail train yesterday morning from Toronto, where they paid their respects to Right Reverend Monsignor Joseph O'Sullivan, Bishop-elect for this Diocese. It is likely that Rev. Dr. O'Sullivan will be consecrated at Hamilton on May 1st, and that his inauguration in the Basilica, Charlottetown, will take place on May 19th.

Monsignor McDonald said the party had a most enjoyable visit favored with pleasant weather and while absent renewed many friendships.

They arrived in Montreal on Wednesday morning the 18th, and were present at the Profession of six Island ladies at The Mother House of the Congregation de Notre Dame. They included Misses Rose Connolly and Marion McDonald, of this city, and Miss McCormac, of St. George's, niece of Rev. Dr. MacLellan.

Leaving Montreal they arrived in Toronto at 9 o'clock that night being met at the station by Monsignor O'Sullivan's car and driven direct to Saint Augustine's Seminary where they were greeted by the Bishop-elect.

The party remained in Toronto until Saturday when they embarked for Guelph, where they met Reverend Plus McLellan, brother of Dr. G. McLellan of the city. Here Monsignor McDonald celebrated High Mass and in the afternoon all three visited The Novitiate where Reverend Joseph Monaghan, brother of Mr. James Monaghan and Reverend Martin Monaghan is Rector. Here they met six of the Island students who were extremely pleased to see them.

While in Guelph they met Bishop McNally of Hamilton who kindly sent his car on Monday and conveyed them to Hamilton, where they dined at the Episcopal residence. Here they visited The Churches and also The Cathedral where Monsignor O'Sullivan is to be consecrated.

Bishop McNally accompanied the party by car to Toronto, where they visited Monsignor Blair, President of The Church Extension Society and were the guests while here of Father Bergen, S. J., editor of The Canadian Messenger.

The Clergy left by the afternoon train for Montreal, Monsignor McDonald leaving at 9.25 for Quebec for a short visit, Monsignor McLean and Dr. McLellan leaving at 12 o'clock, all three meeting at Lewis and continuing the journey together reaching Borden yesterday afternoon in time to take the delayed train to the City.
