The shades of blue, which were practically banished for last Fall, are very much with us at this present Fall season.

The little day dress above is effective in its combination of two materials and two shades of blue. The darker part is navy blue rep and the deep collar and amusing flounce are of royal blue crepe.

Royal blue, by the way, has been much exploited in Paris and will be very smart for Fall.

Archbishop Roy Is Given Last Rites

QUEBEC, Nov. 23.—His Grace Monsignor Paul Eugene Roy, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec, who has been seriously ill for the last three years, received the last rites of the church this afternoon in the St. Francois d'Assizes Hospital, where he is a patient.

The last sacrament was administered to His Grace on his personal request. His condition is not more serious than it has been for the last few months, but the Archbishop expressed the desire that the ceremony take place this Sunday. All the members of the Chapter of Quebec were present.

The condition of the Archbishop was reported to be unchanged this evening.

Message to Baron Byng.

On Saturday Mgr. Roy addressed the following message to His Excellency, the Governor-General in Ottawa:

Baron Byng of Vimy: "The Archbishop of Quebec in his name and in the name of his clergy, and of all citizens of Quebec respectfully pray His Majesty King George the V. and the royal family to accept the homage of their profound sympathy on the occasion of the death of the most regretted Queen Mother Alexandra, so universally mourned. (Signed) P. Archbishop of Quebec."

It was stated last Thursday that Archbishop Roy would be honored at the next consistory in Rome in December when his Holliness would bestow upon the Archbishop the pallium, which would place His Grace at the head of the Roman Catholic church in Canada as Metropolitan.

The Golden Fleece

COLOR CUT-OUTS

JASON, SON OF A KING

Did you ever hear the story of "Jason and the Golden Fleece?" Hawthorne tells it in a wonderfully interesting manner in his "Tanglewood Tales." which is a book you will want to get and read some day.

Jason was the son of the dethroned king of Iolchos. When a very little boy he was sent away from his parents and placed under the queerest schoolmaster that you ever heard of. The name of this schoolmaster was Chiron and he was a Centaur. Do you know what a Centaur is? A Centaur is a queer person or animal. it is hard to know which to call it. To be perfectly correct a Centaur is a combination of both, half animal and half person. It has the body and legs of a horse and the head and shoulders of a man.

If you follow the color cut-outs for the next three weeks you will have a complete set of paper dolls with which to act out this famous story. Today we have a picture of the boy Jason in smock and sandals which should be made blue. Color his spears a bright gold. His hair should be golden and his eyes blue. Before cutting out mount on a piece of heavy paper such as the cover of a magazine.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARY BRADLEY

Mrs. Mary Bradley, 93 years old, died November 15th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Connor, No. 122 St. Stephen Street, Boston. She had been ill for some time and suffered a shock a week before her death.

Mrs. Bradley, for many years holding a happy place among her people, was the last woman of the MacDonald "Doctor" family—descendants of the famous Roderick MacDonald, first physician on Prince Edward Island and leader of the band which migrated from Scotland in 1772. One brother, John R., of Vernon River, who is living, is the last of a family conspicuous in the life of Prince Edward Island for more than a hundred years.

Others of the descendants of Roderick, himself the son of Lord MacDonald, have been strewn throughout Canada and the United States since their leave-taking of Scotland under pressure of unhappy religious and political conditions. Roman Catholic under the Stuart regime and identified with the Lairds of the Highland Scotch, the MacDonalds had written themselves into the history and legend of the Scottish race during the heat of its most vivid days. Flora, of this family, whose name is legendary with that of Prince Charlie in the political upheavals of the seventeenth century.

Since the beginning of their career in Canada, the members of this branch of the clan have lived actively the life of the country they took for their own and have numbered doctors teachers, nurses priests, missionaries and a bishop among their callings.

In Mrs. Bradley's own family were Catherine, Alexander, Joe, Leo, John, Celia, Margaret Elizabeth and Ann. Mrs. Bradley, who was born in Vernon River, was married there to Michael Bradley on June 27, nearly 70 years ago. She moved to Boston 38 years ago and had lived there until the time of her death. Her husband died in 1897. She had 12 children, of whom eight are living: Mrs. P. J. Connor, Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod, Mrs. John Kelley and Miss Annie Bradley, all of Boton; Mrs. Emma O'Donnell, of New York; Sister Anna Raphael, of Convent Station, New Jersey, and Harry and Charles L., of Boston.

Apart from her distinction as one of a noted family, Mrs. Bradley occupied a unique place among the multitudinous relatives who paid her deference throughout the advancing years of her life. She was a simple woman of fine, active mind and of the generous spirit which is identified with the happiest traditions of her race. Her children, her grandchildren, her nieces and nephews and the children of succeeding generations really loved her. A kindliness which sweetened her life until its end made the feelings of her people toward her, not conventional, but deep-seated and genuine.

A requiem High Mass for the repose of her soul was offered up at St. Peter's Church, Dorchester, Mass.

Gleanings From Tryon And Vicinity

The McWilliams property at the factory corner of Tryon, has been sold to Geo. Pratt who will occupy it as a residence in the spring.

Miss Mildred Lefurgey of Albany who recently went to the States is now pleasantly situated in Needham, Mass. Our Island girls seem to have no difficulty in getting aptly settled in the neighboring Republic.

Miss McWilliams of Knutsford has arrived at Tryon and will spend the winter with her cousin Mrs. Hubert Thompson.

The hockey fever has started up. The past few days of cold weather has brought it on. Wednesday evening at Augustine Cove the boys gave a duck supper in the interests of their friends.

The potato market has been quiet for several days, price dropped off to $1.25 per bushel, but it revived on Tuesday. Albany dealers were paying $1.50 for cobblers.

Jos. Dawson who has been so seriously ill in the hospital at Summerside is now reported to be much improved.

Rev. Edward Morris, M. A., will preach in the Albany Baptist Church at 11 a. m. on Sunday at Tryon at 3 p. m. and at Borden at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Bent who spent last year at Tryon and was stricken with paralysis early in the fall, has improved to such a degree that she was able to go to New Brunswick last week, where she will spend the winter with her brother.

We regret to report that there has been considerable drinking about our community the past few week. It is said that this is the result of home brewing. We feel sure the officials will be very glad to go after these illicit manufacturers, but the officials need the co-operation of every citizen. If we can give information and help to the inspectors we ought to do it.

Gives Assurance That House Will Meet Dec. 10th.

OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—Even if two or three writs from the general elections have not been returned by December 10th, it will not prevent the opening of parliament on that date provided the chief election officer has reason to expect they will be here a few days later. Parliament will meet with the understanding that the members for the constituencies from which the writs are delayed will take their seats before the House of Commons take a division.

This assurance was given by Premier King last evening. He again emphasized the importance of the early convening of parliament. Important matters he pointed out were being held up until the government should have assurance of the confidence of the people's representatives.

Mr. King declared that he was confident it would be possible to open the session on December 10 as planned.

DID MUCH FOR SOLDIERS DURING THE WORLD WAR.

The Queen Mother always retained her deep interest in her many philanthropies.

During the world war she served as head of the British Red Cross, the Queen Alexandra Imperial Military Nursing Service the Royal Indian Nursing Service, the Territorial Force Nursing Service and the Royal Naval Nursing Service. The Alexandra Field Force Fund of which she was the head, kept British soldiers supplied with comforts and delicacies throughout the four years struggle.

Between 1914 and 1918 she visited every hospital in London including the famous home for blinded soldiers at St. Dunstan's. She was also interested in infant welfare work. When a new nurses' home was named in her honor in London, she requested that it be not called the "Alexandra" home but the "Edith Carvell" home in memory of the martyred British nurse.
