

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1912. WHY THEY COME.

It is interesting to observe the resourcefulness of publicists and newspaper writers in the United States in accounting for the increasing number of American settlers who are making their homes in Canada...

received upwards of $131,000,000, in money from these American settlers, and this year they will bring $175,000,000—possibly more.

NOTES.

A Toronto man is growing cotton in his garden. He has a theory that by crossing southern cotton with the Canadian climate he can grow wool.

The London Methodist Conference has by unanimous resolution called upon the farmers in the western Ontario peninsula, who are members of that denomination, to cease growing the tobacco plant.

If the caterpillars continue to hold up the passenger trains on the Gati-neau road, the engines might be equipped with carpet sweepers fixed to the cowcatchers so as to keep the rails clean.

The Irish suffragettes have copied the methods of their English sisters and begun a campaign of window smashing. It is certainly a very ironical commentary on history that Ireland should copy violent methods from England.

A Carnegie hero in Chicago has been served with an injunction to restrain him from ejecting his aged mother from her home. There is heroism and heroism, and much of the heroism which the world is so fond of applauding is but emotional impulse.

With the good news that Prof. Kirkpatrick is already at Cape Tormentine and will be assisted by two engineers in locating the docks there and at Carleton Point for the Car Ferry, Provincialists should at once move in the matter of many new local industries.

And now Judge Hazen will be asked for a further ruling on a problem that is puzzling the Federal authorities in Buffalo, N. Y., as to how to destroy the contents of 18,000 bottles of tomato catsup without breaking them.

How to Remove Warts By a Painless Remedy

Don't allow these unsightly excrescences to spoil the beauty of your hands or arms. Remove them painlessly and for all time by applying Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor.

plenty of flesh and a good coat of sleek hair is always appreciated. This may not add a particle to the utility of the animal, in fact it may lessen it, but the market demands it, and, to make the most profit, the producer should furnish it.

A VALUABLE LOSS.

The travelling man was standing looking disconsolately at the floor. The hotel keeper was watching him. By and by the hotel keeper said to the travelling man: "Lose something?"
