

Scrofula

This root of many evils—Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimple and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it—silly, pale-ness, nervousness and other ailments including the consumptive tendency—Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernoy, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Ask your druggist for it

THIS evening the blind pupils will give should have a full house. Their musical performance is of a high order.

THE Baptist Sunday School, of Tryon, intend holding a picnic, on the parsonage grounds, on Wednesday the 18th inst.
All the amusements that are at public gatherings will be there and all will enjoy themselves.

YESTERDAY morning four of the Charlottetown Y. M. C. A. boys, Messrs. J.
Webb Stanley, George Prowse, Theo.
Balderson and Frank Gardiner, left to attend the Maritime Boy's Camp, at Melville Cove, N. S. They will be absent for two weeks.

THE unpleasant weather of yesterday proved disastrous to the picnic held at Red Point by the Sunday School of the Baptist church. As soon as the steamer made the return trip in the afternoon all went aboard and left for the city arriving here shortly after five o'clock.

YESTERDAY the rain interfered seriously with the First Methodist Sunday School picnic. The downpour drove the picnicers to the cars and after waiting there for some time for an abatement it was decided to leave for the city much earlier of course than if the weather was fine.

Lost.—Between Steam Navigation wharf and the Davies Hotel, on Tuesday evening a small leather valise, containing papers of great value to the owner and useless to the finder. A suitable reward will be given by sending at once or telephoning the Davies Hotel. 17 tf

NORTH Tryon is still making itself conspicuous by its building operations. Many houses and much repairing, to barns, warehouses and other buildings are being made all the time. Among the new dwelling houses are those of D. J. Thomson, Edward Lsarl and Edward Nicholson.

On Tuesday evening W. Green, representing E. N. Heney & Co., Montreal, came to the city. Upon arrival here he handed his valise over to a teamster to take it to the Davies with a number of other pieces of baggage. When the effects were sorted out it was found that Mr. Green's valise was missing. He is advertising for it elsewhere.

AMONG the special features at the Mammoth Tea Party to be held at Tignish on Wednesday next will be music by our best city band, and exhibition of dancing by "Sappho" the celebrated colored wonder.
Chas. Dalton, E. q. will have specimens of black foxes from his farm which are well worth going to Tignish to see. We would ask our friends to remember the 23rd and join the crowd who leave this city by special train at 5.30 in the morning.

Mr. S. N. Dawson, North Tryon, has had a handsome offer for his far-famed trotting horse Leewood 2.29 1/2. Mr.
Dawson is loath to part with such a noble horse but $1500 is a tempting sum. If Leewood does change hands he will fall into the ownership of an eminent horseman in Boston who has been trying to buy this famous trotter since the Calais races, Maine, in 1901. If this sale is contracted P. E. I-land will lose a good one.

HUGH and Gordon Creamer, of North Tryon, left Monday morning for New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, where they intend erecting several houses for Mr. Grant.
This is not the first time that our local carpenters have been called for in the adjoining provinces and no doubt many architectural triumphs will be left in New Glasgow to point out that P. E. Island contains skilled workmen and that even the village of North Tryon has residents who are second to none in the trade.

YESTERDAY evening W. W. Clarke received the following despatch:

St. John, July 16th, 1902.

W. W. Clarke.

Montreal tonight. Advise us quickly the space you will require.

Wm. Thompson & Co.
As the steamer will arrive in Charlottewon on the 23th shippers are asked to advise Mr. Clarke at the earliest possible date the space required.

AMONG the prominent advertisers in the prize list of the Canadian International Exhibition to be held at St. John on Aug. 30th is Schofield Bros. the selling agents for manufacturers of paper, paper bags, woodenware, fibreware, matches, washboards sheathing paper, roofing paper, and felt. Schofield Bros also carry in stock a full line of printers, supplies. The business carried on by this firm ranks favorably with any in the same line conducted in Canada.

YESTERDAY the Guardian was shown by Harold McCabe a patent luminous sign suitable for signs and door plates. The signs are one fourth inch moulded glass.
The lettering which is black is placed inside, back of which is waterproof cement.
The outside edge, representing the frame, is finished inside with gold paint. The white portion back of name is luminous making the sign readable in the dark. One beauty of the signs are that they never tarnish, as only the thick glass covering is exposed to the atmosphere. The manufacturers claim that the sign will last a lifetime and are easily the best signs and name plates ever produced. The sign can be easily attached to door of a residence or office, or to the building itself with brass fixtures which are furnished with the plates. These plates are meeting with general favor throughout Canada by reason of the value given for the money.
Those desiring to see the plates should drop a line to Mr. McCabe who will be glad to show them.

Hon. Sir Joseph Ignatius Litt's, Chief Justice of Newfoundland, died Monday morning at his residence, Portland street St. John's. The deceased was in the 58th year of his age, a native of Prince Edward Island and unmarried. The family moved from Charlottetown to the Ancient Colony in the early forties. One of the brothers, Phillip J. Litt's, was the first premier of the Colony under responsible government, granted in 1855 and justly entitled to be called the father of responsible government in Newfoundland.
Joseph Ignatius, was the youngest of the family of seven brothers and studied law in the office of his brother Phillip, with whom he entered into partnership upon his being admitted. In law he had a most successful career. He entered politics when quite young and was a strong supporter of the Carter and Whiteway governments. In November 1882 he was called to the Bench as acting Judge, and in May of the following year received the appointment of Judge of the Supreme Court.
On the demise of Sir Frederick Carter in the year 1898 he became Chief Justice of the Colony, a position he filled with distinguished honor until his death.

Upon several occasions he filled the position of administrator of the government. After the great fire which swept the populous city of St. John's in July 1892, Chief Justice Little was appointed president of the relief committee and by his tact and great energy he contributed largely towards relieving the terrible destitution that followed the great calamity.
In religion he was a Catholic and a strict adherent to the doctrines and practices of that church. He was of a most charitable disposition and his hand was known to be always stretched forth to relieve the suffering of the poor and needy. By his demeanour, tolerant spirit, fairmindedness and good example he succeeded in mitigating, if not wholly removing, much of the political and sectarian strife that arose in the colony.
As a judge he was erudite and upright, a public spirited citizen, and, while upon all occasions he upheld the dignity of the high positions he occupied, he was affable and genial and met everyone in the true spirit of good fellowship.
During this summer he purposed spending a vacation with a friend in Cape Breton for rest and recreation, but the old adage was once more verified: "Man proposes and God disposes."
