

ZION CHOIR CONCERT LAST EVENING

Zion Choir Concert was given last evening to a capacity house. A splendid musical program, under the direction of Prof. Thompson, preceded a one-act farce comedy entitled "Pa's New Housekeeper," which created much merriment. The choir was assisted by Miss Ruby McDougall, who gave two excellent readings and by Mr. Alex McLean, whose piano number was loudly enjoyed.

Establishment Of Transportation Comm. Is Sought

That the Maritime Board of Trade is almost ready to go to the three Maritime Governments with a concrete proposal for the re-establishment of the Maritime Transportation Commission was the statement made by Mr. Norman T. Averd, Amherst, President of the Board, in an interview with The Guardian last evening. Mr. Averd who arrived in the City last evening is here in connection with the work of the Maritime Board, and will meet local members of its executive today. "At the present time," Mr. Averd stated, "the main objective of the Board is to have the Maritime Transportation Commission re-established. We are making very good progress, and are endeavoring to perfect plans for re-organization before making a definite appeal to the governments for support. We are now almost ready to go to the governments with a concrete plan. In view of the railway bill about to be passed at Ottawa we feel that it is more important than ever that the Commission be formed to protect Maritime rights."

and outside a rumbling crowd of thousands shouted without ceasing "give us that enabling act or there will be a fire!"

Soldiers and police were everywhere in the vicinity of the Kroll Opera House, temporary meeting place of the Reichstag across the street from the old building which was partially destroyed by fire just before the last election.

When he had finished delivery of his message the Reichstag adjourned, reconvening in the afternoon to do the work cut out for it.

Socialist Leader Arrested Carl Sevinger, leader of the Socialist party, was arrested as he was entering the Reichstag hall, on a charge of misuse of funds for purposes of propaganda. But the Socialist opposition had its chance to register its protest to passage of the enabling act. Otto Wels, veteran of the 1918 revolution which established the republic, was the mouthpiece.

"Take our liberty, take our lives, but leave us our honor!" he cried. "If you (Nazis) really want social reconstruction you would need no such law as this!"

The Chancellor, who had listened to every word, could contain himself no longer. He was on his feet with a bound to berate the Socialists for "fourteen years of persecution of the Nazis."

"You're too late!" he shouted. "We don't need you any longer in molding the fate of the nation!"

LEGISLATURE IN COMMITTEE YESTERDAY

Provincial Legislature, March 23. The House met at 11.45 a. m. Mr. T. A. Campbell asked the Provincial Treasurer to table the answers to the following questions: 1—What changes have been made in the investment of the sinking funds of the Province during the administration of the present Government? 2—What amount of the sinking funds were invested in bonds of the Dominion Government when this Government came into power? 3—What amount of the sinking funds are now so invested? Answers: 1—(a)—$100,000 Canadian National Railway 5 per cent bonds due 1954, exchanged for Province of Nova Scotia 5 per cent bonds due 1944—$100,000. $106,000 Canadian National Railway 4 1-2 bonds due 1956, $51,000 C. N. R., 4 1-2 bonds due 1957; $10,000 C. N. R., 5 per cent due 1954. Dominion of Canada 4 1-2 per cent bonds Conversion Loan due 1959 and Province of New Brunswick 5 per cent bonds due 1955—$67,000. Total—$367,000. 2—$337,000 which amount includes $100,000 Canadian National Railway bonds, sinking funds for the Provincial issue matured Dec. 1, 1931. 3—$106,000. Hon. Mr. MacPhee introduced an act to provide for the licensing of lobster canneries.

Mr. T. A. Campbell, after consultation with the acting Attorney General, introduced an act to amend an act relating to settlement and distribution of the estates of intestates, and to regulate the practice of the Surrogate Court, and to repeal certain sections of certain Acts therein mentioned.

On motion of Hon. Dr. MacMillan the House went into committee with Mr. J. A. MacDonald in the chair on second reading of an Act to amend an Act to incorporate the Provincial Sanatorium.

The bill extends the Government's annual maintenance grant to the Sanatorium from $20,000 to $18,000. The promoter repeated the explanation he had already given of the serious financial situation of the Sanatorium which necessitated increased Government support. It was considered advisable to fix the grant at $18,000, at the same time insisting that this amount could not be increased out of the Provincial treasury.

Approval with the bill was expressed by Mr. LePage and Mr. Dennis, both of whom agreed that $18,000 was all the Government could afford to pay. Mr. Dennis quoted Dr. Creelman in corroboration of the promoter's previous statement that there were patients in the Sanatorium who should be discharged but who had no other place to go. He suggested that a cottage might be obtained for their accommodation.

Hon. Dr. MacMillan said this was a good idea but the danger was if the Government provided a cottage the Sanatorium would again be filled by other patients and the same condition would be repeated. The Sanatorium Commission should be the ones to take the initiative in this matter.

Voices Criticism Mr. J. A. Campbell maintained that the Provincial Sanatorium had been built by the Saunders Government and that the building campaign had been opposed by the then Opposition.

Hon. Dr. MacMillan: "There was no opposition to the Sanatorium by the Opposition."

Mr. J. A. Campbell claimed the Opposition press had opposed it. Was the Opposition in sympathy with the Opposition press at that time?"

Hon. Dr. MacMillan: "I will rise to this point of order, that if the hon. member is going to speak he should speak correctly. When he makes the statement that the Opposition was opposed to the building of the Sanatorium he is making a statement that is not in accord with the facts."

Mr. J. A. Campbell: "It may be that certain members were in sympathy but the Opposition as a whole were opposed to the building of the Sanatorium."

Hon. Dr. MacMillan: "That is not correct."

Mr. McIntyre: "I think the promoter of the bill is quite right. I remember distinctly that when that proposition was before the House the promoter (of the present bill) was the only one who spoke on the Opposition side. He commended the Government for building the Sanatorium and making that move. I remember that distinctly."

Mr. J. A. Campbell maintained that "certain impressions" had been spread abroad during the Sanatorium campaign which had discouraged contributions to the building fund to the extent of $10,000. He maintained further that the opposition press had "broadcast through the country that it was extravagant, and that it was altogether not needed at that particular time." Now it was complained that there was over-crowding at the Sanatorium. What were they going to do with those who were unable to go there? It was not right, Mr. Campbell believed, to vote more money for maintenance when the Government was not in a position to make provision for those that should be there.

Hon. Dr. MacMillan: "Might I ask what my hon. friend suggests, when there is a waiting list of 20 patients now and the Sanatorium is crowded beyond capacity?"

Mr. J. A. Campbell maintained that any money now voted should go to provide means of treatment for those unable to obtain admittance.

After further discussion the bill was reported agreed to.

Summerside Act Amendment On motion of Mr. Allen the House resumed committee reading with Mr. Gallant in the chair, of an act to further amend the Summerside Incorporation Act.

With reference to clause 6 against which a counter petition had been presented on Wednesday Mr. Allen said the bill had been placed in his hands by the Town Council and he had been asked to promote it. As the Council is responsible to the citizens of Summerside for any work done under the amended Act, it is for the people of the town to confer with the Council and if any amendment is necessary it will be received and submitted to the House. After further discussion by Mr. Allen, Mr. Strong and Mr. T. A. Campbell the clause carried without division.

The bill in addition to the clause enumerated in yesterday's report, empowers the Town Council to borrow $10,000 to provide for ordinary expenditures for the current year, said money to be repaid together with interest thereon out of general revenue for the current year for which the borrowings may be made.

The bill further amends the existing statute to enable the Mayor to hold office for two years instead of one year as heretofore.

The bill was finally agreed to with minor amendment.

An Act to incorporate the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Mr. J. Augustine Macdonald) passed third reading.

Crown Prosecutors On motion of Mr. J. A. MacDonald the House went into committee with Mr. Hunter in the chair in second reading of an act respecting Crown Prosecutors. The amendment brings the provincial statute into conformity with other Provinces, enabling a member of Parliament to take the office of Crown Prosecutor.

It was opposed on various grounds by Mr. MacIntyre, Mr. Allen, Mr. LePage, Mr. T. A. Campbell. A defence of the bill was made by Hon. Dr. MacMillan, Mr. J. A. MacDonald, and Hon. Mr. McPhee.

A division was called and the vote carried on a straight party vote of 14-8. Another division was called for by Mr. LePage when the Speaker had resumed the chair, when the vote in favor of the bill was 15-8.

The House then took recess. After recess. The House resumed at 3.45 p. m. On motion of Mr. W. A. Stewart the House went into committee with Mr. Hunter in the chair on second reading of an Act to amend an Act to incorporate the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The preamble sets forth that the Prince Edward Island Hospital has erected a new hospital on the south side of Brighton Road in Charlottetown which has been financed up to the present by gratuitous subscriptions from time to time. It has been found that the contributions so received are not sufficient to pay for the cost of erecting the new hospital and equipping same, and it is deemed expedient to issue bonds for the purpose of raising funds to pay the balance of the cost, the bonds to be secured by mortgage or deed of trust on the property of the corporation. The bill limits the bond issues to the sum of $125,000.

The bill, after discussion was agreed to without amendment. The House then resumed debate

In addition to the earnest counsel of calmness in the present situation, the representatives of the "Big Five" announced to the ex-service men of Canada that they have the situation "well in hand" and that tomorrow they will meet the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance with a view to canvassing the whole state of affairs.

They were not indifferent to the economic plight of the country. They were just as willing to do their bit as they ever had been but they did want the assurance that the Government had explored every avenue of economy, and had applied the axe to every controllable expenditure before the axe fell on the ex-service men.

Put it up to us that this is a national emergency, and tell us why. Show us that the last resort for the maintenance of our national credit depends on the sacrifice of our ex-troops, and we will gladly make that sacrifice," said this veteran's executive.

"But until the Government has exhausted every means and has attempted to re-habilitate their finances by applying the axe to every other expenditure which it is in their power to control and curtail, we will not accede to their breaking faith with the veterans of Canada nor will we concur in any effort to penalize the ex-service man because of the patriotism he displayed nineteen years ago."

OTTAWA, March 25.—(C.P.)—The principal that Parliament must first give its authority before an expeditionary force may be sent out of Canada was stressed in the House of Commons today. The House had under consideration a Government measure which provides for the administration of visiting forces from other parts of the British Commonwealth when in Canada. The legislation is necessitated by the altered status of the various dominions as set forth in the Statute of Westminster. Formerly provisions of the Army Act, a British statute, applied to Canada and the other dominions. Since the Statute of Westminster was approved they do not.

The bill, which with certain amendments moved by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett was advanced to third reading, is highly technical in its nature. It provides for discipline of visiting forces, deals with relations of such forces to civilians, and includes a general provision in respect to deserters from visiting troops from other parts of the Commonwealth. In general the provisions of the British Army Act are adopted in the bill. Similar measures are being approved by the other Dominion Parliaments it was intimated.

Mr. Hon. MacKenzie King, Opposition leader, raised the point in respect to the despatch of Canadian troops abroad. He felt that the provisions of the bill might be wide enough to permit the sending of a Canadian contingent abroad, on the decision of the Governor-in-Council, without first consulting Parliament. To this he was opposed, and he felt that it should be made quite clear that no such action was permissible under the bill. Troops should be sent abroad only after Parliament had been summoned and had approved such action.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett read a memorandum from the Department of External Affairs which indicated that there was no authority in the legislation for sending Canadian troops abroad. Mr. Bennett suggested that he might communicate with the authorities overseas on the advisability of amending the legislation at another session in such a way as to make it quite certain that no such action could be taken under the measure. The opposition leader expressed satisfaction at the suggestion.

The Bill now stands for third reading.

DR. ANGUS MCLEAN On Wednesday afternoon amid many manifestations of sorrow, the mortal remains of Dr. Angus McLean, Souris, were laid to rest at the Belfast Presbyterian Church Cemetery, he having passed away on Sunday the 19th inst, after an illness of a few months. Many friends and relatives of the deceased, accompanied the body by special train and quite a large number of Belfast and district people, were present during the impressive service at the Belfast Church, preceding the interment, Dr. MacLean being a native of that place, and widely connected in the district.

The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. L. Griffiths, who in his appropriate and comforting discourse, referred to the long and useful career of the deceased, and to his characteristic kindness, and the deep respect in which he was held by all who knew him best. The Rev. J. M. McLeod, Charlottetown, a friend of the family, read portions of Scripture, and led in prayer. The church choir rendered suitable hymns and Mr. Dave E. Griffiths rendered impressively the sacred song "Only Waiting."

The late Dr. McLean, who was in his seventy-fourth year, had very successfully practised his profession at Souris, since his graduation from a Pennsylvania college in 1882, and had an extensive practice in King's County. He is survived by the widow who was chief mourner and whose maiden name was Miss Henrietta McDonald, a native of Souris, to whom much sympathy is extended. There are also left three sisters of Dr. McLean, Mrs. Alex Dixon, Belfast, who was present, and is in her ninetieth year and Mrs. Wm. Martin who resides in California. Two nephews were also present: Messrs. A. A. McLean, K.C., Charlottetown, and William McLean, bank manager at Kensington, P. E. I. Following the church committal service, the Masonic burial rites were fittingly performed by members of the Eldon Lodge, the ceremony being well led by Mr. J. Larabee, M. P. P.

A large congregation had assembled for the Doctor who was highly esteemed and kindly remembered by the community. The Souris Masonic Lodge was represented by Mr. F. E. P. Conroy and among other Souris friends present, was Mr. J. B. Matthews of the firm of Matthew and McLean.

The body of Dr. McLean rests in the family vault alongside that of his brother, Rev. Alex. McLean, who died some three years ago, at the early age of thirty-three years, both sons of the late Alexander McLean, who represented the Belfast district in the House of Assembly for some years.

throughout Maine and eastern United States because of his love and interest in horses. He has owned and bred many good ones. The best known that he has campaigned was Johnny Miles, 2:11 1/2 which under his ownership dominated the trotting classes in the Maritimes for several years. Dr. Calkin was a popular figure at the local exhibition for many years and last summer flew over to Northam to witness the races there in which Johnny Miles was a starter.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon. After a brief service at the house, the body will be taken to the United Church, where service will be held at 2 o'clock.

Well Known Horseman Passes SACKVILLE, March 23.—Dr. James O. Calkin, well-known Sackville physician, died at his home yesterday, aged 73. He was born at Hopewell Cape, Albert county, and in 1890 he graduated in medicine at the University of Vermont. He practised in Sussex for a year before coming to Sackville. For 42 years he had practised in this vicinity, and had taken an active interest in civic affairs. He was house physician at Mount Allison University residence and the Ladies' College for 40 years, and was for a number of years consulting physician on the staff of the Moncton City Hospital.

Dr. Calkin was known all over the Maritime Provinces, in fact,
