We have arranged our services so that you may worship with us. The Rector, Rev. A. E. Percy will welcome parishioners and friends of the church. Come and bring the whole family.

Walker Cooper's Knee Appears Satisfactory

PERSONALS Mrs. Joseph McQuaid of this City underwent a serious operation in the Charlottetown Hospital Saturday morning.

Mr. Eric MacNeill, Cavendish, is making good recovery in the P. E. Island Hospital following a tonsil operation.

Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Harry Miller returned to Exeter, N. H. after visiting with their parents, Mrs. and Mrs. M. Welsh, Cumberland St.

ST. LOUIS, April 13 (AP)—The surgeon who operated on Walker Cooper's left knee last winter said after an examination today that it appeared "very satisfactory" and should cause the New York Giants' catcher no trouble this season.

Cooper left the Giants at Texas, Ark., and came here for the examination by Dr. Robert F. Hyland, club surgeon of St. Louis Cardinals. Cooper said the knee had been painful since the operation for removal of bone spurs.

The big catcher plans to rejoin his club Friday.

J.M.'s Displays High Quality Easter Beef Customers of J. M.'s Meat Market has urged to get their orders in early for Easter beef. This year as in the past J.M.'s located in the City Market Building, has a display of top quality beef that lives up to the enviable reputation established by this well known firm. Specializing in meats, J.M.'s has taken special care at this season to make the best beef possible available to customers. Beef, in this connection, has been bought by Wellington MacNeill, well known dealer in cattle, for J.M.'s. The public is cordially invited to visit the market on Good Friday and inspect the many carcasses. Included in the display are: Five choice carcasses from McBeth and Sons, Marshfield; three more carcasses from Hayden Bros., Cherry Valley; three baby heaves from Truman Jenkins and Lloyd Martin, Cherry Valley. Phone your Easter orders to 1810 or 1811, J. M.'s Meat Market.
