Americans Hand Canucks Seventh Straight Defeat; Bruins Halt Rangers 4-2

NEW YORK, Nov. 22—(CP)—The sagging Montreal Canadiens lost their seventh straight National Hockey League game tonight as New York Americans handed them a 7-3 lacing with Sweeney Schriner turning the hat-trick. The defeat left the luckless Habitanis still without a win after more than three weeks of campaigning and it put Red Dutton's Americans into a third-place tie with New York Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs, a point behind the leading Chicago Black Hawks and Boston Bruins.

With the sniping Schriner leading the way, most of the star-gangled crew fattened their scoring averages at the expense of the disorganized Montrealers. Tommy Anderson put a brace of goals in the first period, one of goals of Moncton, N. B., replacing the benched Will Cude; Eddie Wiseman of Newcastle, N. B., picked off a goal and two assists, and one of the latter helped himself to one tally.

Jimmy Ward, picked up from the disbanded Montreal Maroons, scored for the Habitanis with Toe Blake and George Mantha.

the National Hockey League season as Boston Bruins defeated them 4-2 tonight to move into a first-place tie with Chicago Black Hawks.

Twelve thousand saw the game at the Boston Garden. Seldom before has a Boston Garden crowd witnessed such stirring action. The Rangers stormed, generally with five men, from start to finish and, despite the fact the Bruins led most of the way, the latter had to play defensive hockey three-quarters of the game.

Charlie Sands put the Bruins on top during the 19th minute by combining with Bill Cowley and Ray Gelfin and those same forwards were in action when Jack Portland whaled a pass-out home from 10 feet out. That counter came in the second period, 15 minutes after Alex Shibicky rapped in the first Ranger.

Trailing 2-1 during most of the final session, the Rangers kept increasing their pressure, with four forwards in action, were trapped for two rapid Boston tallies. These successful shots were launched by Roy Conacher and Gordon Pettinger within 19 seconds and clinched the game.

Clint Smith countered the Rangers' second goal in a five-man rush that beat the final bell by 14 seconds.

Ching Johnson Big Attraction With Millers

(By Alan Randal, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22—Wonder if those tough races are catching up with lucky Nick Wall, the little rider from Glace Bay, N. S. Nick, recuperating from a nasty spill, has canceled his eastern engagements and plans a sojourn on the Florida beaches before riding in the southwest. Says he's been bothered by slight dizzy spells.

Ching Johnson, replete with all the color he sported during his long spell in the National Hockey League is credited by mid-west sports writers with luring many new fans to American Association hockey games. Ching, former New York Ranger and for one season an American, is playing manager of Minneapolis Millers. And after all who but opposing players could help but like the "Old Mongolian."

Members of Montreal Canadiens, here to play New York Americans tonight, report, Ill' Aurel Joliat works out daily at the Forum in Montreal. They say he looks sprightly enough on skates to be back in the big time but the former habit-winger is working out only for the exercise. If somebody doesn't do something about it soon, Earl Robertson of the Americans is going to be the most hem-stitched goalie in the N. H. L. Earl has 13 stitches over his right eye already.

Red Dutton, one of the N. H. L.'s best-groomed managers, is wearing the same blue suit day in and day out since his Americans beat Detroit Nov. 10. Red figures it's a lucky garment. Butch Keeling, former New York Ranger and now with Philadelphia, confirms Pit Lepine's word that play in the Int-Am League is tougher than N. H. L. going, "Until now," says Butch, "I never wore shoulder pads but I'm still getting hurt."

Promoter Mike Jacobs, still clicking his store teeth because the Apostol-Corbett bout didn't do so well in a money way last Friday, went home to Red Bank, N. J., during the week-end and ran into grief. His pet monkey got loose Sunday and did $60 worth of damage before Mike lured him back into his cage with a bundle of bananas. About 185 trout and pacer yearlings will go under the hammer during two days of the 44th annual Old Glory Sale here tomorrow and Thursday.

Fight Experts Face Problem Picking Winner Of Friday Night's Welter Title Bout

(By Sid Feder)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22—(AP)—The fight experts are all in a dither trying to forecast Friday night's welterweight title party between Henry Armstrong and Cefarino Garcia.

They sat around Promoter Mike Jacobs' office today and decided there hasn't been one so tough to pick in many years. Opinion was about evenly divided, but no one was quite sure—and to a man all hands decided it would be tough to have to put the family jewels on the outcome, despite the 5-to-8 odds which still have Armstrong favorite.

There were any number of reasons advanced to make his particular business difficult, but two points were emphasized. They were the old chestnut about the good big man having it all over the good little fellow, and the fact that the parties of the first and second part in the 15-round bout both look like a million dollars in training.

All other things being equal, that weight difference can mean a lot. As matters now stand, with both wallpapers polishing up in just-before-the-battle manner, Square Garden's ring sporting an edge as high as 12 pounds or more over the little California negro champion.

Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)
Tommy Loughran spotted Ray Impellittere 70 pounds and six inches in height and won a bruising 10-round heavyweight bout at New York five years ago tonight. Loughran's mouth was gashed in the sixth round and Referee Pete Hartley awarded Impellittere a technical knockout. Gen. John J. Phelan, chairman of New York State Athletic Commission, overruled the referee and the fight continued.

Graham-Leslie Rematched In Title Fight

The battered Island heavyweight crown will be at stake again Saturday night at the Sporting Club when George Graham of Murray, Nova Scotia, and George Leslie of Souda, Ontario, will defend their championship against the challenge of a fellow easterner—George Leslie of Souda. Leslie, holder of the title on two previous occasions, and defeated Graham, is still confident of taking the champ. When Leslie climbs into the ring for the 10-round main bout it is believed he will force the fight and attempt to reach the champ with one of his murderous rights. But Graham is his old confident self and is ready to put one of his classic jobs on the challenger. Leslie's smart record at Sydney a week ago doesn't impress the champion. When he met Alvin MacDonald, Leslie ploughed through the 10-round bout in fine style but was on the losing end of the verdict. The fans believe that if he can make the same showing at the Sporting Club he will come out on top.

Much has been written about previous bouts between this pair and on both appearances the participants staged a rugged, exciting battle which kept the fans in constant excitement. Both boys are scheduled to mix it early in the scrap and will attempt to get in the "telling" blow which will throw the tide of the fight his way.

The boxer, in fine style but was Tiger Joe Hennessy of Boston, will tie up with Kid Claybourne in the six-round semi-final. The slim Tiger, who hasn't dropped a decision during his career, has a line of five circles, calculates to floor the cagy Claybourne with his weaving style. Claybourne, who's in top form, hasn't dropped a decision for some time and all in all it points towards a close scrap.

The bouts will get underway at 8:30. A dance will follow the fights.

Miners Win In Overtime From Sydney

SYDNEY, Nov. 22—(CP)—An overtime goal by Wick MacGregor gave Glace Bay Miners, Nova Scotia Champions, a 3-2 victory over Sydney as Cape Breton's Hockey League opened tonight. MacGregor's tally came after the Miners had overcome Sydney's 2-0 lead forcing the game into overtime.

Sydney opened scoring early in the first period with Williams lone effort. They increased their lead two minutes after the second frame opened with MacGregor's score eight minutes later. Kane scored for Glace Bay and then tied the count in the last period sending the game into overtime.

Nazis Repudiated By Staats-Zeitung

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—A German editorial, published here yesterday in the New York Staats-Zeitung and Herold, formally abandoned the "false" hope it has held out to its German-language readers of "deceit" from the leaders now in power in Germany. The editorial separates the Nazi leaders from the body of the German people, and denounces these man leaders as "fanatics unworthy to be called Germans." It closes with the hope that the German people may some day be freed from the German-led with the Staats-Zeitung, the text of the editorial, called "Cold Terror," follows:

"The terrible events of the last five days can hardly be grasped from the minds of mankind. The hopes we had, often against our better judgment, have proven themselves to be false. The excesses of treating people, are now being followed up by a cold terror which, in its consequences, will be much more horrible than the brutal acts of themselves committed under the pretense and official palliation of 'spontaneous reaction.'

"We do not believe that the German people, that our relatives and dear friends, are participating in the horror mankind has witnessed. We condemn the murder act in Paris, as we are condemning all violence, all excesses. Because we believe in the inherent decency of the German people, we herewith protest against the dark powers that use this murder as a welcome excuse to let loose the lowest instincts against defenceless people, trying to cover up these wanton acts with phrases like 'indignation of the people,' which bear the stamp of the Ministry of Propaganda.

"We know that the German-Americans condemn this mob rule. We all have parents, brothers, sisters and other relatives in the fatherland. We do not want to part with fond memories of all that part of our hearts and we do not want them to be trodden upon and to be soiled by elements unworthy to be called Germans. And therefore, in the names of our dear ones, do we protest against desecration of the German name through fanatics in the ranks of the party in power who are trying to drag a great people into the mire of their sordid lawlessness.

"We believe in humanity, in decency, in the noble character of our dear ones in Germany as we believe in the decency of the German people. Could it be otherwise? We deeply love all that is beau-

Democratic Leaders View 1940 Prospects

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—(AP)—Democratic leaders from 21 eastern and southern states, looking toward the 1940 United States presidential campaign, took counsel today with National Chairman James A. Farley over the party's position in the light of losses in the Nov. 8 elections.

In a series of private conferences, which he said were designed in part to "clear up any misunderstandings within the party that may exist," Farley spent most of the day with his visitors. He received them as state delegations, one at a time. During a break in the proceedings he said to reporters:

"These leaders have definitely indicated to me that their opinion there has been no falling off in the confidence of the people."

FAMOUS BERMUDA TEAROOM CLOSED

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 20—(CP)—The Little Green Door, Hamilton's famous tearoom and visiting place of thousands, has closed its doors after 29 years. Its proprietor Miss Kate Tucker, is retiring.

The tearoom has been frequented by Mark Twain, William Dean Howells, Stokowski, Gary Cooper and almost every celebrity who came to Bermuda.

In all 29 years of its existence, the Little Green Door served the same menu. Miss Tucker's cinnamon toast, nut bread and marmalade had an almost international reputation. All the servants had been with her for years and one of them, "Milly" to the customers, since the tearoom first opened.
