Ancient Right For Indians

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, March 22—Indians of the Alert Bay district in British Columbia were given another chance by the House of Commons today to practice their ancient potlatch, once a regular orgy but now a more or less harmless ceremony dating back through the ages. The potlatch has been dying out in recent years and is limited to Indians of the Kwakwaka'wakw agency on the Pacific Coast who have refused to observe laws outlawing it. It is a sort of generosity spree in its present-day form. Indians collect all sorts of things, food blankets or household utensils, call in their friends and give everything away. They have been known to impoverish themselves in years. The Indian Act provides jail sentence for Indians practicing the potlatch but the Alert tribe have disregarded it. Indian Minister. Creer proposed a bill in the House today making the laws still more stringent. It received second reading but he dropped the anti-potlatch clauses in committee stage after A. W. Neill (Ind. Comox-Albert) led a strenuous opposition to it.

MT. HERBERT

A very enjoyable parlour social was held at the Protestant Orphanage on the evening of March 12 under the direction of the Mt. Herbert Women's Institute with a large attendance despite the inclement weather. Mr. James Munn very capably acted as chairman for the occasion. The following is the program which was carried out in a manner worthy of merit: Orchestra selections; debate Resolved that the farmer's wife has fewer opportunities of enjoying life than the farmer. The debaters for the resolution were: Coach, Earl Ings, Doris Beaton (leader), Marian Rayner, Mary Monaghan. Opponents: Coach, Elton Rayner, Russel Driscoll (leader); Frederick Jenkins; Ralph Rayner. After the arguments were heard the judges, Mrs. Robert Mutch, Bordon Fraser, Martin Power gave their decision in favour of the resolution. A piano solo by Edna Jenkins was very enjoyable. A vocal solo was rendered by Martin Power, the well-known radio vocalist in his jovial manner, to the intense delight of one and all. A vocal solo was sung very sweetly by Marian Rayner. Mr. Bordon Fraser, the talented singer, delighted the audience with a solo. A comedy duet "Barnacle Bill the Sailor and His Girl," sung and acted by Earl Ings and Mary Monaghan caused much mirth and laughter. A darkey playette "Wagon 'n' Dat Gal." The following is the cast of characters: Adamant Tadpole, the old man—Elmer Glow; Pollywog Tadpole, his old woman—Helen Driscoll; Flotilla Tadpole, their suitable daughter—Edna Jenkins; Filmlam Epicure Goosefoot, a bashful suitor, Harvey Jenkins; Ozone Catnip, a tough rival—Russel Driscoll; Panicky Tadpole, Flotilla's kid sister—Doris Beaton. The comedy ended very successfully for "Filmlam" who overcame his own self-consciousness and also the courtship difficulties encountered in the Tadpole home with the result of Winnin' dat gal. In spite of the difficulties of impersonating the darkey characters the players acted their respective parts in an excellent manner. Orchestra selections by Austin and Leo Coady, Fred and Spur Jenkins accompanied by Martin Rayner. A bountiful lunch was served to all present. An added feature of the evening was a number of solos composed and sung by Mr. James MacPherson. The enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Mr. Russel Driscoll spent the week-end, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Ed. Hogan, Hope River.

Mr. Bordon Fraser paid a flying visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Monaghan.

The many friends of Mr. Ray Altherton are sorry to learn he has been indisposed, but hope for the return of his usual good health.
