To those who cannot be present, it is suggested that they follow the spirit of these meetings by praying for the directors in Peace Conferences, for all those in authority in Labor Church and State, that the Nations of the world may be wisely governed and that men generally may be filled with the spirit of willing service and sacrifice for the common good of humanity. Mr. R. C. Sidenius, District Secretary, Y. M. C. A. will be chairman today.

SALE OF PRINCESS.—A steamer well known here, the Princess, having for some years operated on the Pictou-Charlottetown route has been sold by the Government. MORE HATS FROM NEW YORK.

—Another great lot of the very latest Easter ideas in women's hats have just come in direct from New York. These include some of the smartest ideas you have seen anywhere. There are just such shapes as will be shown this week by the good millinery shops of New York. Moore & McLeod, Ltd.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE.—The Canadian Magazine for April contains a very lively travel article by the Canadian novelist, Isabel Ecclestone MacKay, entitled "The Tunesless Traveler." This is quite different from the usual run of articles of this kind and will be read with much relish. Sir John Willison has a chapter on "Office and Patronage," and Maud Goings describes the many beauties and advantages of British Guiana. Professor Wallace contributes an article on The First Canadian Agent in London, and Elizabeth Roberts Macdonald gives "A Little Talk on Lampman." The number is beautifully illustrated.

SCHOOL WORK.—The following is the standing of the pupils of Covehead school for March. Grade VIII.—1. Lillian MacLean. Grade VII.—1. Earnest Death; 2. Edith Thomson; 3. Blanche Townsdale. Grade VI.—1. Lawson Henry; 2. John Boyver; 3. Lionel Burgess; Grade IV.—Beatrice Cobb; 2. Leo Parker; 3. Evelyn Sherren. IV.—1. Lottie MacVittie and Agnes Sherren; 2. Kenneth Best; 3. John Leard. Grade III.—1. Lem Dawson; 2. Lillian Sherren. Grade II.—1. Lucilla Sherren; 2. Chester Story. Grade I. Sr.—1. Mae Story; 2. Gerald Best. Grade I. Jr.—1. Howard Harvey; 2. George Leard; 3. Willie Story. The following were perfect in attendance. Len Dawson, Gerald Best, Amy Harvey, Harold Harvey, Georgie Leard, Keith Leard, Jessie Dawson, Lolita MacVittie, Edith Thomson, May Newton, John Boyver, Kenneth Newton, Lawson Harvey, Lionel Burgess, Beatrice Cobb.

LOBSTER SEASON.—The lobster fishing season for the north side opens on April 26th. The fishermen and packers are making preparations for an expected big pack. The wind for the past few days has been favorable for driving the ice out, and it is expected as far as ice conditions are concerned the opening of the season will be favorable. The first few weeks of last season were very backward on account of the ice, and a succession of north east gales made the whole season a very poor one, many fishermen losing all their gear, and there was less than half the usual pack. The outlook seems to be better for this season. The season on the south side opens on August 15th. Much dissatisfaction is expressed on the latter season, the fishermen claiming it opens too late. The lobster market will open fairly strong and it is to be hoped the fishermen will recoup the losses they sustained last year.—A.G.R.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT myself as well as prescribed it in my practice where a liniment was required and have never failed to get the desired effect.
