The death at Miltown, N. B., on Thursday, of Mrs. Kirby, wife of Rev. W. J. Kirby, for a number of years pastor of Grace Church, Charlottetown, is announced. Pneumonia was the cause of death, which came suddenly. The many friends in Charlottetown will join with the GUARDIAN in extending sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

HUGH RAMSAY, a retired shipbuilder, died suddenly last Sunday night while on his way home from church with his wife in Perth Amboy, New Jersey. Says the New York York Mail and Express: He was 67 years old and went to Perth Amboy from Prince Edward Island 21 years ago. He built a number of small gunboats for South American countries. A widow and eight children survive him.

First intended sailings are—S. S. "Cacouna" from Montreal on or about May 5th, due at Charlottetown about May 8th; S. S. Bonavista from Montreal on or about May 12th, due at Charlottetown about May 15th. The above steamers sail from Charlottetown to St. John's, Newfoundland via, North Sydney, C. B. carrying horses, cattle and sheep on deck and produce under deck, at lowest possible rates. For further particulars as to freight and passage see adv., later or apply to Peake Bros & Co. Agents.

The Wesleyan referring to the death of Alfred Riggs says: "A most touching tribute to the true Christian character and conspicuous bravery of Private Alfred Riggs of Charlottetown, who fell at Paardeberg, appears in a letter to the Halifax Herald from its correspondent 'Chebucto.' It will be remembered by our readers that Mr. Riggs was a Methodist and was studying with a view to entering our ministry. His early death is sad indeed, but who can estimate the good he did among his comrades. Such testimonies as that of 'Chebucto' show how highly real Christian manliness and faithfulness are valued among soldiers. True in life, and dying bravely fighting in the very foremost rank, Alfred Riggs' example and words will not soon be forgotten by his comrades."

Wednesday night next week Stanley Bros. will make a show of millinery, silks and dress goods, that will be a revelation to the ladies of Charlottetown. Our showing space is so limited that it is impossible to show the goods during business hours therefore we cordially invite you to come on Wednesday night next, and see a show that would do credit to any house in the Provinces. 21 2i

IN Saturday's GUARDIAN reference was made to the opening of a fruit and confectionery store by Mr. G. T. Morris. The new store will be conducted by G. T. Morris and E. V. Jost. The latter gentleman has been with the firm of Stanley Bros., for a number of years and is favorably known to our citizens. Messrs. Morris & Jost will keep in stock a choice stock of groceries, fruit and confectionery.

A COPY of the program of the Grand Patriotic Concert in aid of the Red Cross Society given by Lodges Eton and Prince Edward, Sons of England, is to hand and would make a nice souvenir. The program is printed in colors and is tastefully displayed. The printing is the work of Messrs. Haszard & Moore's job office and is certainly well executed.

THE lightning storm of Thursday evening experienced on the Island also visited New Brunswick and caused considerable damage. The Moncton Times says: "The electric storm which was felt very lightly in Moncton appears to have been more severe at other places. At Cocagne the storm was very severe. A barn belonging to Mr. Stephen Goguen, along the Cocagne River, was struck by lightning and destroyed, all the contents, including cattle, sheep, one horse, feed and farming implements being consumed. The fire occurred about nine o'clock and Mr. Goguen only succeeded in saving one pig."

J. M. O'BRIEN.

Proprietor I. C. R. Dining Rooms.

He Was a "Farmer."

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 20.—As the result of his confidence in the honesty of two strangers, Daniel Leonard, a middle-aged farmer of Feeding Mills, three miles out of the city, is poorer by $4,000 and richer by 75 pounds of gilded metal, which he supposed represented two blocks of gold. It is the old, old game of the city man with the gold brick and the farmer hastening to be relieved of his money in his anxiety to capture a rare bargain. The proceedings were made more interesting for Mr. Leonard by the addition of an Indian with long black hair, eagle plumes and buckskin suit, with fringed trappings. There was also a government assayer with a set of formidable instruments and a certificate from the United States government besides a diploma from a mining school. When the assayer, who was presumably a stranger to the man with the bricks, showed the large red seal which he said he received from Uncle Sam, the very small vestige of doubt which existed in the mind of the farmer vanished, and he hastened to the various banks in which he had money deposited and drew out $4,000 in large bills, which he gave the stranger for the bricks. Mr. Leonard became suspicious to-day and told his story to the police of this city. There is no clue to the swindlers, who left town soon after relieving Mr. Leonard of his cash.

Ostrich Feathers Scarce.

One curious effect of the war in South Africa has been little noticed. It has greatly affected the supply of Ostrich feathers. It is estimated that there will be a deficiency of nearly £54,000 worth of feathers at the next sale in Mincing lane. Over £900,000 worth are sold every year, making an average of £150,000 at each of the six sales.

Neuralgia

is Rheumatism of the face. Uric Acid left in the blood by disordered kidneys lodges along the nerve which branches from the eye over the forehead, and across the cheek to the side of the nose. The cause is the same as in all Rheumatism—disordered Kidneys. The cure is likewise the same—
