

Weak, Lost in Weight

—Loy's Studio

Windsor, Ont.—For over six months I was in ill health—was not able to do a day's work. I got very weak and lost in weight, could not eat, suffered from poor circulation, chills all the time and had a slight cough. I doctored but still kept going down and everyone thought I was going into a decline. I finally began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and thru the use of this medicine I was completely restored to good health. I gained in weight, my circulation improved and I could eat. Then I went back to my work and never felt better. I have been a strong and healthy man ever since, which I owe to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

AUCTION SALE

AT MILTON
I am instructed by Geo. F. MacNeill of Milton, to sell by Public Auction on April 29th, 1925, at one o'clock p.m., his farm containing 70 acres of land, 60 acres clear. Also the following Stock, Crops and Implements.
STOCK:—One mare 10 years old "Commodore" in foal to Landseigneur, due July 8th. One horse rising 2 years old, by Diagona, dam Commodore. 1 cow 4 years old, Ayrshire Grade, due to freshen May 4th. 1 cow 8 years old, due to freshen May 16th. 1 cow 8 years old, due to freshen May 22th. 1 heifer 2 years old, due to freshen November 9th. 1 heifer 3 years old, due to freshen December 9th. 1 heifer 1 1/2 years old, Gurnsey Grade, 1 heifer 1 year old, Gurnsey Grade. 1 brood sow with litter, 1 brood sow due to farrow July 2nd. 1 brood sow due to farrow July 2nd. 1 pure bred registered York-shire barrow, 1 year old, 1 cart, 1 truck wagon, 1 sulky, 1 driving wagon with top, 1 pulley, 1 driving sleigh, 1 wood sledge, 1 scythe, 1 set randa harrows, 1 hay mower, 1 set horse plow, 2 hay rakes, 1 set T. harrow, 1 B. C. Reeder, 1 set of 4 wheel horse, 1 set of 2 wheel horse, 1 set of 2 wheel horse, 1 set of 2 wheel horse.

Three Spinners

COLOR CUT-OUTS

THE THIRD SPINNER

Today you will read one chapter of the story of "The Three Spinners." Have you been following this fairy tale? If you have you will soon have a whole set of "Three Spinners" paper dolls.

The fairy spinners then took their places in the second room and began to spin. It seemed to the girl that they spun even faster than they had the first day. And indeed so fast did they spin that long before the evening of the next day when the queen came again all the flax in the second room had been spun.

When the queen saw all that had been done she was filled with wonder. She had never heard of any one who could spin so fast. "Tomorrow," she said, "you shall spin the flax in the third room and the following day you shall be married to my son."

(The dress and hood of the third spinner should be colored tan. Now he have all of the drab, homely spinners and tomorrow we shall meet some one more exciting.)

(Copyright, 1925)

RIVER VIEW FARM FOR SALE

Four miles from Charlottetown, excellent land with good buildings. Also beautiful site for fox ranch. P. BYRNE, North River, 213-4-7us101.

NOTICE

From this time forward, I will be responsible for no bills contracted by any person but myself. (Signed) WESLEY CALBECK, April 21st, 1925. Witnessed HENRY WEBSTER, J.P., 667-4-28M41.

NOTICE

The undersigned fox ranch owners wish to notify any party or parties entering or attempting to enter our ranches that we will not be responsible for anything that may happen there. PETER R. WHITE, J. M. LAIRD, FARNELL McMAHON, D. L. MORRISON, LEO HUGHES, 670-4-28M31.

NOTICE

On and after May 1st I purpose changing my Garage business over to all Cash system and in future it will be necessary to have the Cash for any purchase made or any work performed. Having decided to buy and sell for Cash and do insist that nobody ask for credit, as I do not wish to refuse, but under the circumstances it will be necessary to do so. An immediate settlement of all outstanding accounts requested. NORTH TRYON GARAGE, North Tryon, 669-4-28M41.

WILD HORSES

By Henry Herbert Knibs

(Continued)

"My private affairs don't concern you, Mr. Sheriff. I'm out here to find out where Miss Percival is, and I intend to find out, if it costs twenty thousand, instead of ten. There's something crooked about this hold-up deal. If you know who held up the stage, why don't you get busy and pinch him? There's more than one way to make him talk." "My chief deputy will use his own judgment about that, Mr. Percival. In discussing your profession, your appearance, and real estate, I am only following your lead. About the first thing you asked me was how much I was paid to hold down this chair. If you really want to talk business, I'll listen. Or suppose you listen, and learn a few things about this country. You may have noticed that it's pretty open and roomy around here. And there isn't a policeman on every corner. In fact there aren't many cops between here and Solano. It takes time and patience to trail a law-breaker in this section. My boys are doing all that can be done."

How far is this town of Solano from here, anyway?" queried the broker, as he lighted a cigar and deliberately ignored the sheriff as a man who might smoke. The sheriff rolled a cigarette. "Oh, about a hundred miles."

"When's the next train?" "There's no train—just the stage."

"Stage, eh? Hell of a note! How long does it take the stage?" "About two days, in good weather. Relay at Concho, and McAllister's ranch."

"When does the stage leave here?" "To-morrow morning, at six, if the mail is on time."

"You mean to say I can't get out of this burg till to-morrow morning?" "I wouldn't say that. You can take the west-bound at four-thirty this afternoon for Los Angeles. Some mighty interesting country round Los Angeles. Or you can take the eight-hundred for Kansas City and Chicago, this evening. You could hire a rig at the livery—but you wouldn't make any better time than the stage that carries the mail, and relays about every thirty-five miles."

"I'll just hunt up that stage driver. I guess I can show him something that will make him get a move on."

"You might, but you see, Mr. Percival, he carries for Uncle Sam, and he's some tussy about sticking to his regular run. Number Eight, west-bound, drops a sack here at four-thirty, tomorrow morning. Old Henry—that's the driver—leaves here at six."

"Then I guess it's the hotel for me, if you got one in this dump."

"Sure we got one—a little one—with windows in it, and a door, and no extra charge for going up and down stairs. The rooms on the third floor are cooler."

"You're some comedian, now, ain't you?" snorted Percival. "You ought to be on the stage."

"You mean I ought to have been a few nights ago. Glad I wasn't, for I would have missed meeting you to-day. And now that you have a little time to spare—and Miss Percival's disappearance is a serious matter—suppose you give me all the information about her you can. I mean of finding fault with my method and criticizing my methods, in a country you know nothing about. Suppose you forget that you're rich, and that I'm poor, and take me for just what I am—sheriff of Antelope County—with no strings attached. And remember—I'd do just as much for a Mexican section-hand as I would for you. If you'll just hang on to that idea, we'll get along fine."

"You mean the reward I offered don't cut any ice with you?" suggested Percival. "Not with me, personally. It does with my office. The boys will work harder and longer, with a little money in sight. If my boys find Miss Percival, they get the money. My office gets the credit. The credit is worth more to me in the long run than the money, or any share of it."

"That's all right," declared Percival. "But I can make it worth your while to put more men on the job—and speed this thing up."

"The sheriff shook his head. "There's a deputy United States marshal on the job now. The stage carried mail. Four of my men are down toward Solano, whipping sawing that country. Baker of Solano sent word that he has instructed his boys on The Blue to be on the lookout. And there ain't a rancher between here and the mountains that ain't just as anxious to find five thousand dollars as his neighbor's. More men from here would only be an additional expense, and they wouldn't accomplish anything more than the men now on the job. Miss Percival is alive, and she'll be found, sooner or later."

"If I thought that, I'd be out on the job myself. I'm here—if that is any consolation to you. Besides, the man that held up the stage is not a murderer—but he's a fighter. If he's cornered, he'll fight. If he isn't cornered, he'll tell where Miss Percival is, some day."

"That's all right. But I suspect you've got something up your sleeve. You say you know who held up the stage. I suppose that is none of my business."

"It wouldn't do you any good if I told you, and it might do harm. There are occasions when money has to mark time, Mr. Percival. This is one of those times. It's a warm day. Suppose we step across the street and get something for it?"

"Most sensible thing you've said yet," Percival was beginning to feel the need of a little internal support. He was unaccustomed to altitude—although Antelope is a mere six thousand feet—and never before had he imbued soda-water raised to the nth degree by a discriminating drug-clerk. Like most dry sections, Arizona's wet in spots.

The apparently innocent beverage stole a march on him, so to speak. He became loquacious, jovial, patronizing—superficially a good fellow. When they returned to the sheriff's office, the little bovish man with the steely eyes studied the broker as one would study some playful levitating and disporting itself on dry land when its natural habitat is the ocean. Percival talked of his money, his motors, his house, his business, his influence in Chicago; and he hinted lightly of occasional escapades—but not once did he mention Miss Percival's name. Sheriff Hawley sneaked and listened politely, his first impression of the broker confirmed beyond all doubt. Corn whiskey and soda-water combined may not be a technically honest drink, but it has enough specific gravity to float a medium of truth. The sheriff eventually escorted his visitor, who needed an escort—to the hotel with the windows and doors and stairs—and left him explaining to the proprietor what a great man he was, and that he wanted the best room in the house, with a bath.

"Pimples over face and neck. Itched and burned badly. Healed by Cuticura." (To be continued)

Rural Prices
Range of prices per pound paid farmers for feed, delivered to the dealer's local warehouse or f.o.b., country points of shipment.

AUCTION SALE
AT 152 KING STREET
Of household effects on Friday, May 1st at 1 o'clock. I am authorized by executor of the estate of late Elizabeth Fraser to sell on above date all household effects without reserve. J. A. McDONALD, Auctioneer, 682-4-28M41.

MORE HUMOURS OF HISTORY
By ARTHUR MORELAND

A. D. 1135.—Stephen's policy of allowing the Barons to establish themselves in their own stronghold led to anarchy. Instead of combining for the common weal, each played his own game. He was a petty king, and warred against his neighbour, the weakest going to the wall.

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

Cross Word Puzzle No. 118

Key to Cross Word Puzzle No. 118

- Horizontal
1 A beverage.
2 An apple.
3 A quality every singer covets.
4 False hair.
5 What you call the 400.
6 To be present.
7 Loathes.
8 Towards.
9 A kind of tree.
10 Stupid person.
11 Child's delight.
12 Waiter's bonus.
13 When a woman wants a new gown, her old one is this.
14 Ship's cry for help.
15 Conditioned or fixed.
16 Electrified particle.
17 Men's neck decorator.
18 What some women run after.
19 A man's name meaning healer.
20 The newly wedded wife does over her first burnt pie.
21 A wedding path.
22 Not here, there.
23 A non-commissioned officer has them.
24 Don't stop.
25 The husband of a pillar of salt.
26 Your best friend.
27 Spooner's delight.
28 What a woman past thirty is loathe to tell.
29 What a seven footer is.

- Vertical
1 What neighbors call a bad boy.
2 You must do this or kiss yourself good-bye.
3 A French conjunction.
4 What every woman would like to be.
5 A bone—not necessarily a dog's bone.
6 Female hair holder.
7 English Boy's School.

- 11 A valuable stone.
12 Consumed.
13 Fancy work (a kind your Gran-mie uses to do)
14 A fox characteristic.
15 The man who got the $600.00 you were forced to pay for wife's new fur coat.
16 To perceive and recognize.
17 Meat.
18 Spring pop inducer.
19 One's spot on a card.
20 Burglar's right-hand man.
21 Rested on a chair.
22 What you do when you make two and two, four.
23 The life of a balloon.
24 A high mountain.
25 A kind of tree.
26 Consumed, or gobbled.
27 This fish wriggles into nearly every Cross Word Puzzle.
28 A dressed-up flapper.
29 Also.
30 To be slow (spelled backwards)
31 Take an "O" from 43 Vertical and you have it.

Answer to Puzzle No. 117
Beans 2.50
Corn 1.48
Buckwheat 0.84
Hay and straw per ton—
Timothy 9.00
Clover 7.75
Mixed 7.88
Wheat straw 7.00
Oat straw 6.25
Turnips per ton 12.00
Mangolds 15.00
Carrots 18.00
Quebec
Red clover 21.00
Timothy 5.52
Grain, per bush.—
Spring wheat, (seed) 1.69
Oats 0.63
Barley 0.91
Peas 2.63
Beans 2.75
Buckwheat 0.97
Corn 2.02
Hay and straw, per ton—
Timothy 11.97
Clover 11.18
Mixed 10.98
Oat straw 5.38
Turnips, per ton 21.50
Mangolds, per ton 21.75
New Brunswick
Grain per bush.—
Spring wheat 2.10
Oats 0.77
Beans (seed) 4.50
Buckwheat 1.23
Corn 1.25
Timothy 1.75
Hay and straw per ton—
Timothy 13.50
Clover 12.50
Oat straw 7.00
Wheat straw 6.50
Turnips, per ton 16.00
Mangolds 15.00
Carrots 22.00
Nova Scotia
Grain per bush.—
Spring wheat 1.70
Oats 0.93
Peas 3.30
Beans (seed) 44.80
Corn 2.03
Hay and straw per ton—
Timothy 12.85

Recommendation Came From Fellow Workers
So Says Toronto Man of Dodd's Kidney Pills
Mr. P. M. Raggett suffered with rheumatism and found relief after taking half a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Ont., April 27.—(Special)—"I am writing to say how wonderful and quick your pills were in arresting and relieving an attack of rheumatism I had a few weeks ago. My occupation, a coal teamster, necessitates me being out late at nights during the severe winter weather. I had an occasion to get on my knees in the snow to put fuel into a basement. Two days later I had to stay at home with rheumatism in both of my knees. I was recommended to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I did. The first half box gave me relief and all signs of rheumatism have now gone after taking three boxes. I thank you for being able to give me such relief. The recommendation of your Dodd's Kidney Pills came from several other coal teamsters that I work with."

This statement comes from Mr. P. M. Raggett residing at 222 Woodmont Avenue. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly and promptly at the seat of the trouble.

Advertisement for Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee and Tea. Includes images of coffee tins and text: "You will like the flavour of both Chase & Sanborn's SEAL BRAND COFFEE TEA".

QUICK RESULTS
"Do you find that advertising nightwatchman, and that night the safe was robbed." "I should say it does. Why, only the other day we advertised for a brings quick results?"

THIS YEAR'S HOLIDAY

Make it one you'll never forget

Treat yourself to a real vacation. Take the trip that offers grandest scenery and utmost enjoyment. New scenic thrills await you in Jasper National Park and on Triangle Tour of British Columbia. Awe-inspiring grandeur features the boat trip from Vancouver to Skagway, Alaska.

Jasper National Park
This vast playground surpasses all other vacation spots. Golfing, hiking, climbing, or swimming — you are surrounded by snow peaks, among blue glaciers and Alpine flowers, in a world of breathless beauty. Modern hotel service at Jasper Park Lodge. Rates $6.00 a day up. American plan.

The Triangle Tour of British Columbia
From Jasper you travel down the Valley of the Mystic Skeena to Prince Rupert. Thence by palatial steamer through the Sheltered Scenic Seas to Vancouver; by train back to Jasper, by a scenic route that follows the roaring gorges of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers.

The Boat Trip to Alaska
A side-trip to Alaska will amply repay you. At Vancouver board a Canadian National steamer bound northward, for the voyage up the North Pacific Coast to Skagway. Enjoy new thrills, strange sights, mountain grandeur and glacier glories.

The Continental Limited leaves Montreal 10.15 p.m., daily for Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver. For Fares, Reservations, Etc. Apply To W. K. ROGERS, City Ticket Agent W. M. FLYNN, Station Ticket Agent

671-Ap. 28, May 12-26-31.

Strange Sights and Rare Beauties await you in ALASKA

Here is a land of thrills and romance—different, fascinating, wonderful. Scenic glories in endless variety. Mountains edging the sea; weird totem poles, great glaciers — everywhere new pictures of entrancing allurements.

Go by the Canadian National Railways scenic route; use the de luxe Transcontinental Trains of this great railroad. The train trip is in itself a vacation. On your way to the Pacific, you pass through majestic scenery, crossing the Rockies at the lowest gradient of all transcontinental lines, with delightful vistas of the highest mountain peaks.

At Vancouver, board a palatial Canadian National Steamer for the magnificent five-day boat trip through Sheltered Scenic Seas to Skagway, Alaska.

The grandeur of the North Pacific shoreline is unparalleled by any other scenery that may be viewed from the deck of a boat. Rugged crags, romantic cities, Indian villages—these are some of the features that combine to make your Alaskan holiday one great and glorious adventure.

The Continental Limited leaves Montreal 10.15 p.m., daily for Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver. For Fares, Reservations, Etc. Apply To W. K. ROGERS, City Ticket Agent W. M. FLYNN, Station Ticket Agent

671-Ap. 28, May 5-19-31.

Advertisement for E. R. Brow, 146 Richmond Street, Charlottetown. Fire, Life, Accident, Sickness and Plate Glass Insurance at Lowest rate. Agent at Summerside, Lloyd Lewis. Good Strong Stock Companies.

Humorous cartoon strip by Arthur Moreland. Panels show a man talking to a woman, a man on a horse, and a man looking at a picture. Captions include: "WHAT'S THE PROGRAMME FOR TODAY, JUDKINS?", "I'M SHORT OF BREED, MY LORD WOULD MAKE A RAID ON THE BARON'S DOGGING!", "I REMEMBER THAT HE SWEAT FACE BECAUSE MY LEASE INTERFERED WITH HIS VIEW.", "HAIL, I AM BARON DECKHAM, GET OUT OF MY PATH!", "WHAT IS THIS TO ME, THE DAUGHTER OF DE TOOTING?", "THE BARON LOOKS AS IF HE HAD BEEN SPEAKING OUT OF HIS TURN.", "AS SURE AS MY NAME'S DECKHAM, THIS UPSTART DE TOOTING SHALL RUE THIS DAY'S DIRTY WORK.", "HE AIN'T HALF STOPPED THIS PACKET A PACKET!"