Hospital-tested, Antiseptic Vapour Kills Germs, Clears Head, Loosens Deep Chest Phlegm . . .

Brings quick relief from headaches, coughs, sore throats . . . Draws up thick secretions that may be dangerous

Now when deep chest colds strike, don't take chances with weak impotent remedies. Use INHAL-IT, the famous Duke-Fingard medication, that has already freed thousands from the suffering of asthma and bronchitis. Just one INHAL-IT treatment may end all the coughing, choking, tightness, ache and misery of chest or head colds.

How inhal-it Fights Colds

Medical science has long known that the real danger from colds is in the after-effects when respiratory infections like bronchitis and pneumonia can set a hold on your system. INHAL-IT'S antiseptic vapour penetrates far up into the nose and sinuses, deep into the bronchial tubes, lungs and chest to remove all traces of infective bacteria. INHAL-IT breaks up the tightness and congestion of the chest, clears your breathing, . . . frees you from the suffering of headaches and rasy sore throats. INHAL-IT works quickly too! Just the first few inhalations make a wonderful difference! Ask for INHAL-IT today.

—RETURNS FROM OTTAWA — Rev. E. J. Barras, minister of the Summerside Baptist Church, has returned from Ottawa where he attended the biennial meeting of the Canadian Temperance Federation of which council he is a member. A council member from each of the Canadian provinces, with the exception of British Columbia, was present. Newfoundland was represented by Mr. Thomas Ashburn, Dominion member of Parliament, as there is at present no Federation in Newfoundland. Following the meetings held in the Chateau Laurier, a deputation from the council presented a brief to Prime Minister St. Laurent in the office of the Prime Minister. Several Cabinet Ministers were present at this interview. Mr. Barras was a member of this deputation.—S.

—ANNUAL TEA AND BAZAAR.—The annual Afternoon Tea and Bazaar, sponsored by the Ladies Club of the Summerside Presbyterian Church, and held on Thursday afternoon in the church hall, was highly successful. The tea table with its artistic arrangement of lighted Christmas candles was centred with a beautiful bouquet of bronze and yellow 'mums, and presided over by Mrs. J. S. Perry and Miss Zilpha Sharp, while the guest tables carried out the same color scheme. Soft music, in keeping with the festive season, was played by Mrs. W.E. Forbes. Mrs. Frank MacNeill and Mrs. Alfred Simpson were in charge of the bazaar. Mrs. J.O. Cobb and Mrs. J.W. MacKenzie, the
