MRS. JOHN MacARTHUR

A large circle of friends learned with regret of the passing at the home of her daughter Mrs. Walter S. Grant on June 21st of Mrs. John MacArthur, in her 88th year.

The deceased who was born in Sydney has been a resident of this city for the past twenty nine years and by her amiable disposition and cheerful manner made numerous friends during her residence here.

During her younger years the late Mrs. MacArthur sailed with her husband the late Capt. John MacArthur for seven years in one of the last vanishing "square riggers" of which he was captain.

Capt. MacArthur, who was in the American Civil War served on the Frigate "Susquahanna." He met accidental death in New York about 51 years ago by falling into the hold of the "Wallis City" of which he was master.

Surviving Mrs. MacArthur are Mrs. Walter S. Grant and a son Leonard B. of Smiths Falls, Ont., to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

At the conclusion of the service Rev. Mr. Murray pronounced the benediction.

Rev. Mr. Murray is a graduate in arts from Mt. Allison University Sackville and Pine Hill Divinity Hall, Halifax. Prior to attending the mainland colleges he took second year work at Prince of Wales College.

Mr. Murray has served as student missionary both in the west and in the Maritime Conference During his training he took a leading part in the religious life of youth.

Mr. Murray's home is at Vernon, Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Earl Ings, Mt. Herbert, was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Ayrshire Breeders' Association at the annual meeting last night. Mr. Wilfred Furness, Vernon, is vice-president and Mr. H. W. Clay, Charlottetown, secretary-treasurer. Directors are: Kings County, Gavin Reid, Victoria Cross; Queens County, Lieut. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty; Prince County, Keith Boswell, Victoria.

Mr. Keith Boswell, retiring president presided and gave a review of the year's activities.

During the session Mr. B. R. Brown, York, was made an honorary life member of the Association in recognition of his faithful services.

Considerable discussion centred around the control of Bangs Disease in cattle. The incoming board of directors was instructed to spend upwards of $100 in assisting Ayrshire breeders in having their cattle inspected for this disease, in an attempt to promote a movement which would have for its purpose the elimination of the disease from all Island cattle.

Mr. L. W. Roper, livestock superintendent, outlined the advancement made in the Ayrshire breed in outlying districts through junior calf clubs.

Directors were also instructed to investigate the possibility of having non-registered pure bred animals registered while low rates continued in effect. Return to former rates was scheduled to take place in November, it was said.

An Ayrshire field day would be held the week of July 4th on the farm of Mr. J. A. McLeod & Sons, Primrose, in King's County it was decided. Ayrshire demonstration work in Prince County was also decided upon.

..*FIRE AT STURGEON—Fire which broke out on Tuesday evening about 6 o'clock destroyed the dwelling house of Leo French, Sturgeon. The fire, it is reported started in an upstair room and spread so quickly that the house was soon enveloped in flames. Neighbors quickly gathered, but the fire had gained such headway that little could be saved except a few pieces of furniture down stairs. All furnishings, clothing and a sum of money on the upper floor were destroyed by the flames. Little insurance was carried.

..*GIFTS OF APPRECIATION— The choir members of the United Church, Montague, met recently and presented gifts to Miss Margaret Coffin and Miss Pearl Finley, Rev. Arhtur Long giving the address to Miss Coffin who has been so generous with her talent of song in the church services, and to Miss Finley who has been so faithful to the choir and as a teacher in the Sunday School. Miss Finley and her parents are moving to Charlottetown where her father Mr. Russel Finley, has taken a position. L

ACCIDENT VICTIM RESTING COMFORTABLY—Marie Gallant, 8-year-old Charlottetown girl who had her legs amputated below the knees in hospital here last week was said to be "resting comfortably" last night. She is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital. Both legs were amputated after they were terribly mangled under the wheels of a tank car on a Canadian National Railway line in Charlottetown last Friday night. Since then the little girl has lain in hospital in a serious condition.

—NATIVE OF GLENGARY ON FLYING VISIT— Mr. Frank Doyle flew from Boston alone in his own plane to his home in Glengary, West Prince, on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Joseph Doyle. Mr. Doyle is an experenced pilot and made the trip in a little over four hours flying time. He stopped off at St. John N.B., for a short time on account of fog. Mr. Doyle is being welcomed home by old friends who are keenly interested in his plane. It is a two passenger model and Mr. Doyle has taken some of his friends on a trial flight. —S.

FUNERAL AT ST CATHERINES —The funeral of the late Miss Margaret MacFadyen, 61, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her sister Miss Katherine MacFadyen, St. Catherines. Services at the home and grave-side in the Canoe Cove Cemetery were conducted by Mr. Lloyd Henderson, student preacher. Pall bearers were: Messrs. John MacLeod, Daniel Livingstone, Donald MacEachern, Duncan MacCannell, James MacFadyen, Mack Lamont. Miss MacFadyen died at Brookline, Mass., on June 4. She was a native of St. Catherines.

—WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity Parsonage on Wednesday morning at 7.30 when Miss Margaret Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rankin, Summerside, became the bride of Dr. Hillard E. Clark, son of Mrs. Clark of Linkletter and the late Everett Clark. The bride and groom were unattended. Rev. L. E. Davies officiated. The bride was charming in a pale pink sheer crepe dress with hat and accessories in matching shades. Her corsage bouquet was of pink rose buds and maidenhair fern. After the ceremony the wedding party had breakfast at the Clifton Hotel. Dr. and Mrs. Clark leaving immediately after for a wedding tour of the Maritime Provinces and Gaspe Peninsular. For travelling the bride changed into a white wool suit with yellow blouse and hat. Dr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home at Linkletter for the summer months. The Guardian joins a host of friends in happy felicitations.—S.

An evening of more than usual interest was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cousins, Park Corner, when the neighbors and friends from the near by communities gathered to celebrate with this worthy couple the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. When all the guests had arrived Mr. Alexander Hiltz of Kensington was asked to preside. Mr. Hiltz in his capable manner voiced the sentiments of all present by tending hearty congratulations. He then called upon Mr. Charles McKay who read a well composed address, and the presentation of a beautiful studio couch besides a purse of money was made. Mr. Cousins though deeply affected expressed his thanks on behalf of himself and Mrs. Cousins in a gracious manner expressing sincere appreciation to all present. Several others who were present also fittingly expressed themselves after which all joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows." The remainder of the evening was most pleasantly spent in renewing acquaintances and social chat. Several who were present contributed to the evening's entertainment with solos and instrumental music. Lunch was then served by the ladies when all departed to their homes after wishing the bride and groom of fifty years ago many more years of happiness together.

GLENDINNING— CAMPBELL — A quiet wedding of interest took place Monday afternoon when Miss Maria Isobel Campbell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Chelton, P. E. I., became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Walker Glendinning, Lewisville, N. B., son of Mr. William Glendinning, Montreal, Que. Rev. Charles A. Britten, former pastor of the Baptist church, Bedeque, P. E. I., conducted the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Gardiner, cousins of the bride, were attendants. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner with only immediate relatives present. The house was beautifully garlanded with spring flowers, and pink tapers in silver holders adorned the bride's table, in the centre of which was a three-tier wedding cake. Many wedding gifts were received, including cheques, cut glass and silverware. The bride was very winsome in a gown of mayan blue tripe sheer with white accessories and wore a corsage of talesman roses. The bride is popularly known here, having practised nursing for several years in Moncton, and suburbs. The groom also has many friends not only in Lewisville where he has resided for several years, but also in Moncton where he is a valued employee of F. A. Fillmore, Co. Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to parts of N. B. and P. E. I., the bride travelling in a charteuse green ensemble with brown accessories. On their return they will reside in Lewisville. —Moncton Times.
