THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN.

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone
Manager; and in Souris, Percy G. Seaman, Manager.

Rev. R. G. Sinclair and Rev. Mr. Vochev Montague, change pulpits next Sabbath morning.
P. G. SHAMAN, Souris will be glad to receive news and advertising for "The King's County Guardian," as well as new and renewal subscriptions for the "Morning Daily" and the "Rural Daily." Telephone connection.

W. A. JOHNSTONE, Montague, will be glad to receive news and advertising for "The King's County Guardian," as well as new and renewal subscriptions for the "Morning Daily" and the "Rural Daily." Telephone connection.

A CARDIGAN correspondent writes:—Your King's County Guardian of yesterday was misled in saying there were only seven vessels in Cardigan this week, and number of them were in three weeks. When your misleading article was sent or printed there were no vessels in this port two weeks. Four vessels cleared from this port yesterday and there are six now loading.

Owing to the enormous amount of time and expense necessary in bookkeeping and making out small accounts as well as mailing and collecting same, The Guardian has decided that in future all ordinary amounts under one dollar will be accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account who will still have the privilege of monthly credit.

Scotch Blankets at less than will cost. You will purchase blankets here this week for less than we could place orders for them with the mills to-day. That statement coming from a less reliable source might be questioned. We flatter ourselves that seeing it here you will hesitate to say that it is not so. Orders for many of these blanket numbers were placed last March by our buyer when in Glasgow, Scotland. Jas. Paton & Co.

Follow the crowds to the bargain centre. Everything must be sold as the contractors are to take charge of our store in January next. S. A. McDonald. 11-8dtf

Furniture which we're offering every week is of that sterling sort which good shoppers know so well how to appreciate. In the goods already offered—some of which are almost entirely sold out, however—we bargain as fine as any bought here in former seasons. The goods are all up-to-date, too; a great point in their favor. We have no hold-overs, except in very rare instances, and nothing in these big stores is out of date. We suggest a visit just to look over the bargain grounds. Jas. Paton & Co.

S. A. McDonald's great discount sale is now on. Every thing must be sold by January first. A rare opportunity of securing high class goods at near one half their value. 11-8dtf

We are very proud—and rightly so—of our showing of dining room furniture. There are many different styles in the following finishes: Early English, Golden Oak Waxed, Weathered Oak and Piled Golden Oak. You will find here a selection of these goods unequalled by other furniture stores. Jas. Paton & Co.

THE BOHEMIAN
Is devoted to the brightness, the cleverness, the wit, the humor of life. The November issue proves this statement beyond all dispute. Its ten stories have each snap, grip and a teasing plot; its special articles have their own bright reason for being; its pointed anecdotes and its twenty-two pages of pure fun in Bohemiana are a shield against "that sea of troubles." Following are some of the features in the NOVEMBER BOHEMIAN.

MY YESTERDAYS
by Robert Edson

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF CUPID
(Second paper)
Wherein the little god of love goes deeply into his long, busy career. It's spicy.

HUMOROUS COLLEGE JOURNALISM
L. "The Harvard Lampoon." The first of six illustrated articles on the college funny papers.

THE "DEPITY" SHERIFF'S STAR
by W. A. Frost
A tale of a one-time outlaw turned sheriff; of his tempting by old pals, and of the epic events that followed. It's red-blooded.

THE DOMINANCE OF AMERICAN BEAUTY
by Perriton Maxwell
The well-known art critic. It tells why the American beauty is supreme. Magnificently illustrated with portraits of a score of women, here and abroad, famous for their beauty, and with reproductions of well-known paintings and sculptures.

New Groceries —AT— Old Prices
True it is. We sell new Groceries at the old prices, notwithstanding that the majority of merchants are raising their prices. A few cents saved now and then will amount to a large sum in a year or two. It is no longer a fairy tale that by dealing at Johnstone's, the economic housekeeper can save money. It is an acknowledged fact.
We are doing this for others and want to do it for you. Here is a partial list of new groceries, tea, sugar, canned goods, vegetables, meats, kerosene oil, Cape Breton Herring, dry cod fish, boneless cod in pkgs.
Call in and get better acquainted with the store that deals with everyone alike.
