ST. JOHN EXHIBITION.

Tuesday was New Brunswick, P. E. Island and Maine Day.

CLOSING DAY

Sept. 20.—The most prominent visitor of the day was Hon. P. A. McIntyre, Lieutenant Governor of P. E. Island, who arrived in the city Monday night and was escorted to the Royal Hotel by the exhibition executive. Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock his honor, in company with President McLaughlin, J. H. McAvity and R. B. Emerson, visited the exhibition and was shown through the various departments. While much pleased with the principle features of the show, Governor McIntyre expressed much gratification over the excellent showing that P. E. Island had made, as recorded by the prize awards, and gave it as his opinion that the island's interest in St. John's exhibition would be greatly increased year by year.

BROOKSIDE FARM P. E. I.

There was upwards of 100 entries in the Improved Large Yorkshire class and every section was keenly contested, showing the popularity of that great breed of hogs. Mr. Callbeck is the happy possessor of the largest herd of this celebrated breed in the Province of Prince Edward Island.

D. C. MCKINLEY.

"Chestnut," the horse that took first prize at the exhibition, is without doubt a very handsome animal. He is the property of D. C. McKinley, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and captured first prize out of seven classes. This is the only Canadian horse that outpointed the famous Sanborn horses. This animal is a chestnut gelding, 8 years old, 15 hands 3 inches high, and weighs about 1,050 lbs. He was sired by Proceptor by Nutwood and dam by Merino by Almost Membrino. He is an elegant carriage horse, a nice driver, quiet and kind, and presents a handsome appearance in harness. Though untrained he can go inside of the 3-minute limit. He is exhibited at stall 35. Any one wishing an extra fine carriage horse should see Mr. McKinley.

CLASS 112—KNITTING, SEWING, etc.

Hand-made ladies' underwear, 1 entry—Mrs. Richard Reddin, Charlottetown, Is.

CLASS 16—SPECIAL, DOM. SHORTHORN BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION.

Herd, bull and three females, 4 entries—Fred G. Bovyer, Georgetown, P. E. I., 1st; C. W. Homes, Amherst, 2nd. Sweepstakes, bull, 4 entries—Fred G. Bovyer, Georgetown, 1st.

Fair Brides for September

A not or one of those happy events took place at nine o'clock last evening when Mr. George Fred. Long and Miss Julie Blake, daughter of Mr. Philip Blake of this city, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's parents, Kent Street. The bride was attended by Miss Mittie Pickard, while Mr. W. Henderson supported the groom. Among the numerous and costly presents was a very handsome silver tea service from the Grace Church choir, of which the bride has been a valued member. The GUARDIAN joins with their many friends in wishing them years of happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Long will reside on Euston Street.

The Sackville Post extends hearty congratulations to P. G. McSweeney, the well-known dry-goods man of Amherst, on his recent marriage. The event took place last week at the residence of Postmaster C. A. McCurdy, "Glen Cottage, Onslow Station, N. S. The bride was Miss Lily Thompson, youngest daughter of Mr. McCurdy. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. McGregor of Amherst, assisted by Rev. E. A. McCurdy a relative of the bride.

HON. SIR WILFRID LAURIER BOERS'

Addresses a Meeting of Over Eight Thousand People AT THE MIDDLESEX EXHIBITION.

Talks of the Country's Prosperity and Says Canada Should be Topmost—Canada First, Last and Always.

STRATHROY, Sept. 20.—(Special)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, G. C. M. G. addressed over eight thousand persons on Tuesday at the Middlesex Fair.

He talked of the country's prosperity; of the value of British connection and the benefit the farmers derived therefrom and said: Canada should have the top-most place in that market.

Sir Wilfrid said the Canadian Commissioners had stood to our rights on the Alaskan Boundary question and consequently the negotiations had not been successful.

We want to be friendly with the Americans, and to trade with them, but if they will not, our hearts will not break, we can live without them.

I would prefer friendly relations with the United States, but if it cannot be bought without sacrificing our National honor, we will not have it. Our purpose is Canada first last and always.

The bride looked charming in a pretty gown of white silk, trimmed with white ribbon and chiffon. She carried a large bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. She was unattended, and the groom passed through the ceremony without support.

The house was nicely decorated with vines, potted plants and cut flowers, and the rooms looked beautiful, especially so, with the handsome display of costly and useful presents received by the popular bride.

After an informal reception at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McSweeney were driven to Truro, and took the evening train for New Glasgow thence to P. E. Island on a short wedding tour. After the honeymoon the couple will go to their future home at Church street, Amherst, where the bride will be "at home" after the 24th inst.

In the golf club handicap medal play at the links on Saturday afternoon Rev. D. J. Fraser won out with J. Douglas Hazen, M. P. P., a close second. The afternoon was extremely fine for golf and good play was the rule.—St. John Sun.
