TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Sunday was Rally Day in the Sunday School. There was an attendance of 327. A program prepared by the Board of Religious Education was followed. The theme of the service was "Following Jesus" and this thought was emphasized in the responsive scripture reading, the prayers, the stories and the hymns. A beautiful and enticing theme to impress upon the children and members of the school. What a thrill came as we sang, "Jesus is seeking the wanderer yet; Why do they roam; Why do they roam; Love only waits to forgive and forget; Home, weary wanderers, home! Wonderful love, wonderful love Dwells in the heart of the Father above. As I sat there enjoying the service my mind went back over 40 years ago when the Salvation Army first came here and I used to sing and to whistle one of their hymns, "Follow, follow, I will follow Jesus, anywhere He leads me I will follow on" and although in the years since then I have at times almost lost the way still it was "Wonderful Love" that brought me back to the trail and implanted within me the firm desire to "keep right on to the end of the road." The ordinance of Baptism was observed both at the morning service and also at the Rally Day service, when two sweet children were received into the folds of the church. Rev. C. N. Brown, M. A., was the preacher in the morning, his text being Jeremiah, 8-20. "The summer is ended," and after referring to the delights and privileges of the summer season he emphasized that the call now is to get to work and give our best. Let us follow Jesus who said "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work." In the evening Rev. Dr. Ramsay delivered a well considered and splendid sermon on the text, "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature," 2 Cor., 5-17. Professor Kendall gave a fifteen minute organ recital previous to the opening and the service of praise consisted of an anthem by the choir both morning and evening, also finely rendered solos by Mrs. F. M. Nash and by Mr. T. W. Bentley. A special offering for relief will be taken up next Sunday and a social for the students will be given by the young people on Friday night in the Social Hall.

Spain Plans To House Curios

MADRID, Sept. 26.—Although the Government is doing its best to stamp out all vestiges of the old monarchist system, it has shown a trace of sentiment for the old days.

It announced that a museum would be created to house curios of the "definitely past times of the constitutional monarchies." Authorities are considering the old Senate palace, which has been used for international conferences since the Senate was abolished by the Republic.
