The Rosson lighter donated by the City Chairman, Major T.B. Rogers, E.D., was won by Capt. Roy McGillivray, Divisional Commander of No. 4 Division which had 108 per cent of its objective despite the fact that returns for one full team had to be deferred until after the drive.

Team No. 26 in Division No. 5, G. Harold Hennessey, Divisional Commander, amassed the marvelous total of 187% of their objective leading all the other teams in the campaign and winning the team prizes. This outstanding team was captained by J.A. Fullerton and his co-workers were: Messrs. James Walker, Mike Campbell, Neil Higgins, Ray Keenan and Avie MacDonald.

Then nearly six hours after cease-fire orders were issued on all fronts, authoritative Trans-Jordan sources declared the Jews were continuing to attack the Syrians east of Lake Hula in Northern Palestine which the Syrians claimed to have occupied in a last-hour offensive Thursday.

An official Trans-Jordan source declared the Jews also broke the truce five hours after it became effective by launching a machine-gun attack on the airport town of Lydda and Wadi El Khayr between Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. The Arab Legion said its commanders did not return the fire.

I WANT TO KNOW...

Does a Mother need insurance?

Unless a husband and father is very well-to-do his wife should have her own insurance policy. If a mother dies when there are no funds available to pay a housekeeper, the home may be broken up and the children put out for adoption or sent to relatives. The answer is "Yes, a mother needs life insurance."

Make an appointment to talk things over with a Mutual Life of Canada representative today.

Dominion Experimental Farm Activities Expand

Three hundred and eighty-four acres of land and 40 buildings comprise the Dominion Experimental Farm at Charlottetown. Of the land acreage, 58 is owned outright by the Federal Government, the remainder is utilized under authority of a 100-year lease from the Provincial Government.

Yesterday, Mr. R. C. Parent, superintendent of the Farm, spent several hours escorting newspapermen over those 384 acres, showing them the various tests now being carefully arranged and plotted for cereals, grasses, potatoes, turnips, fruit trees, etc., and giving them some idea of the work being done for the improvement of dairy cattle, swine, and poultry.

As a convenience to the dairymen of the Province, Mr. Parent transformed the farm's former machine shop into a comfortable barn for the accommodation of the pure bred bulls which serve the Central Artificial Insemination Unit. There are two bulls of the Ayrshire, Guernsey, Jersey, Shorthorn, and Holstein breeds.

The 165 acres of the former Jenkins property will soon be a place of activity, if Mr. Parent's plans are approved at Ottawa. Here, Mr. R. Hurst will conduct many of his scientific experiments in plant pathology and here also Mr. P. M. Cannon will conduct his principal experiments for the eradication or control of insects. It is Mr. Parent's opinion that the 25 acres of woodland on the former Jenkins property will supply all the lumber needed to keep all buildings at the Farm in good repair.

The Farm has eight acres devoted to an orchard containing 400 trees of various fruits including apples, plums, cherries, pears, etc. Of the apple varieties, the principal ones in the order of their maturity are, Melba, Hume, Lobo, Joyce, Cortland, Macintosh, Sandow, and Red Delicious.

Soil Fertility Tests

Twenty-five acres at the Farm is devoted solely to the carrying out of tests in soil fertility. Here crops are grown with a view of determining the most suitable rotation and the most efficient use of fertilizer. Also experiments are carried on there to ascertain the proper fertilizer mixtures for the various results desired.

On one plot of land experiments in the cultivation of potatoes have been carried on continuously for the past 22 years. On one plot which has been planted to potatoes for the past 22 years with only sulphate of ammonia as their fertilizer, there was not a single potato last year of edible size. Those plots having a mixture of manure and fertilizer produced better and more potatoes than any of the others. In another section of the Farm, experiments in the growing of 40 different varieties of potatoes are carried on.

Mr. Parent showed the newspapermen plots of alfalfa which were a foot in height and as thick as such hay could grow. There were also other splendid plots which were a mixture of alfalfa, red clover, alsace, and timothy. They, too were the "full of the ground."

The Farm has a herd of approximately 30 pure bred Ayrshire cattle headed by a splendid bull, Sir Roderick Evans. Of the 30 cattle, 14 are mature cows in various stages of milk production.

The testing station for the Advanced Registry of pure bred sows is filled up with the progeny of such animals from many different parts of the Province. In order for the sow to qualify for the honor of having her offspring tested there, she must raise eight pigs to the age of eight weeks. The four best are then put in a pen and fed according to a formula specially designed to give them the required growth and development within the next four months. When they have reached the age of six months or less the pigs are supposed to reach the weight of 200 pounds when they are slaughtered and inspected to conform to certain standards.

When the Experimental Farm

Mr. R. C. Parent Farm Superintendent

was founded in 1900 with Dr. J. A. Clark as its superintendent. The property consisted of 163 acres and very few buildings. It grew tremendously within the next 38 years under Dr. Clark and has continued to do so under Mr. Parent's supervision. Mr. Parent last year replaced Dr. Clark upon the latter's retirement.

Farm Branches

Of the twenty-four farm branches scattered from coast to coast across Canada, that at Charlottetown has the second highest precipitation. Its 42.64 inches of annual rainfall (allowing one inch of rain for every 10 inches of snow) is only exceeded by that at the Experimental Farm at Agassiz, B. C., where the annual rainfall is 62 inches. Were it not for this heavy precipitation, agriculture in this Province would be failure, for the majority of people Mr. Parent said, are unaware not only that the Province has so much rainfall, but that its winds are higher and more frequent than in either New Brunswick or Nova Scotia. For this reason, he said, all orchards and market gardens should be protected by good windbreaks.

The windbreak favored at the Farm is a triple row composed of Chinese Elm, Pine, and Siberian Pea. These are tall trees of rapid growth.

One of the main reasons for the success of agriculture in the Province, Mr. Parent said, is that cool springs are usually to be expected and that those conditions are followed by a long frost-free period whose average is about 150 days. Such a period allows all farm crops, as well as most fruits and vegetables, to come to maturity without being damaged by frost.

Mr. Parent said the present staff comprises about 40 persons. Mr. B. F. Tinney is in charge of all poultry work, Mr. D. C. Schurman supervises the forage and field husbandry, Mr. G. C. Warren looks after the horticultural work, and Mr. W. N. Black has the responsibility of the illustration stations throughout the Province. The important work of soil analysis and the experiments in soil fertility are conducted by Mr. G. D. Whiteside. Mr. R. B. McLean is the cerealist and Mr. W. A. Burns, besides recording the atmospheric conditions, has the interesting task of supervising the apiary. The gardener is Mr. A. Smith and Mr. I. S. Mitchell is the farm foreman.

Mr. Warren is at present in Truro attending a meeting of strawberry growers.
