Important Ranch Deal

One of the most important transactions in connection with the fox industry in this province occurred today, when Mr. J. Stanley Wedlock of this city purchased from Mr. James C. Tuplin, the celebrated Black Banks Silver Fox ranching property, consisting of 220 acres of land, three ranches and 33 pairs of silver black foxes. Mr. Wedlock with characteristic enterprise and foresight intends to further develop the valuable property he has just acquired. He will keep on enlarging the area of his ranches, and adding to the stock from time to time. The farm will be kept cultivated and operated under competent men. As is well known Mr. Wedlock is also owner of the Greenwood Ranch, on the Union Road, Queens County in which there are 46 pairs of foxes, so that he is now the owner of 79 pairs.

In Memoriam

MRS. H. H. CROSSMAN.

"We shall meet in that fair city—
In the New Jerusalem."

Sweetly the music of this grand old song floated out upon the chill January air. Outside the world lay white and still in the Ice King's embrace. But of these affairs the departed one knew not. Death had set his mark upon that serene countenance, and wrapped in habiliments as immaculately pure as the snowy tapestries of winter, untroubled she lay—all beautiful in the peacefulness of her repose.

Brief was the span indeed since Mary Ellen Crossman had played her part in the world as a worthy example of the virtues of wife and mother. Beloved by her numerous friends, she had sought to conform her character to the pattern of Him Who said. "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." A member of the international Bible Students Association she had lived a consecrated life in the faith of the Resurrection and of Christ's glorious Kingdom yet to be; and when on Jan. 13th death's precursor (a stroke of paralysis) visited her, she was prepared for the call, and five days later stepped beyond the veil into what remaineth for the people of God.

The funeral service which was conducted by one of her own faith, took place from her home in Southport. She was in her fifty-ninth year. She was the wife of H. H. Crossman, the well-known sign painter and decorator. She was the daughter of the late James and Sarah McGillvray of Malpeque, P. E. I. She leaves two brothers and a sister. These are John on the homestead; Archie, in Oregon; Mrs. B. McArthur, Kensington. The ten children are: Mary, (Mrs. Geo. Yorston of Georgetown); Sadie, (Mrs. Sadie C. Andrew, Toronto); Helen (Mrs. F. T. Sheridan, Eglewood, N. J.) Alice, Mrs. L. H. Warner; St. John); Christina, Glace Bay; William of Sydney; Rose, Victor and Wallace at home; Geo. (killed in action in 1916.)

The writer extends to the bereaved sincerest sympathy, which no doubt will be shared by all friends of the family.

Soon soon from out the dust,
Shall all come forth and sing
Sharp has the frost of winter been,
But brightly shines the spring.

Paper Prices Fixed For Price Bros

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—Under Order of the Board of Commerce of Canada issued today, it becomes illegal under the Combines and Fair Prices Act for the firm of Price Bros. and Company to sell newsprint paper from their mills in Quebec for shipment to any destination at a higher price than $80 per ton, the price fixed for the sale of newsprint in Canada. At the same time Price Brothers are ordered to ship newsprint at the rate of one carload per week to each of the following consumers: The Montreal Star Publishing Company, The Herald Publishing Company. The Herald Bassett and Company, all of Montreal.

The order sets forth in its preamble that Price Brothers are under obligation to ship 11,250 tons of newsprint per annum to Canadian consumers, and that they actually are only shipping 2,500 tons of that quantity. The Board also finds that the said firm is withholding from sale and accumulating at its plant more than a "reasonable quantity" of newsprint, which commodity having been declared a necessary of life under the Combines and Fair Prices Act, the Board of Commerce orders: "That any price of sale of all newsprint" by the Price Bros. and Company, "exceeding $80 per ton in car lots shall be deemed to include an unfair profit and said company is hereby and until further order of the Board, restrained from the making and taking of unfair profits for or upon the holding or disposition of said necessity of life (newsprint); that is to say any price which is deemed as aforesaid, to include unfair profits."

Clause two of the order sets forth that the company is restrained and prohibited from withholding from sale and accumulating any quantity of news print beyond what the Board considers as fair and reasonable.

The weekly shipments of specified amounts of newsprint to the consumers mentioned is ordered to commence not later than February. 10, 1920.

Complaint has been made by Canadian consumers of newsprint, that Price Bros., have been disposing of practically their entire output of newsprint in the United States, where higher prices can be obtained than those prevailing in Canada.

You can have nice, thick hair, too.

Not the Bernstorff Of United States Fame

(Dom. Press Special)

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—The Bernstorff who is demanded by the allies for trial along with more than 800 other German nationals is not the former ambassador to the United States, Count Johann Heinrich Von Bernstorff, but his cousin a major who was commander of St. Quentin during the German occupation of that stronghold. The Falkenhayn on the extradition list is not the former Chief of the General Staff and conqueror of Russia but an officer of the same name who was in charge of a prison camp.
