service, had been given higher rank than they. Sir Sam affirmed that since the beginning of the war there had been no patronage list in his department and that politics had played no part in the appointment of officers or the awarding of contracts.

The usual course of criticism was directed on the Militia estimates by the Opposition in the evening, following the Minister's speech, but it was remarkably mild in character, as compared with the Liberal onslaughts of other years; in fact, this evening's discussion was a veritable love feast.

Mr. P. E. Carvell, of Charlottetown, as usual, led the Opposition attack, but Mr. Carvell did not say the things he used to say. He maintained the existence of patronage in the Militia Department despite the Minister's statement that he had never countenanced it, and in this he was supported by Mr. A. B. Copp of Westmorland, Mr. G. W. Kyle of Richmond, Mr. D. D. MacKenzie and others.

During the discussion of the Militia estimates in the evening, Mr. J. J. Hughes of Prince Edward Island complained that the quality of horses bought generally in Canada by government buyers was very poor and that as a result the British authorities were now buying remnants in the United States, while Prince Edward Island farmers had thousands of horses on their hands.

Mr. A. A. McLean of Queens said that British Government buyers had informed him that they had never bought better horses than those they secured in Prince Edward Island. He believed that not a horse bought in that province had turned out to be a poor animal.

Sir Sam Hughes stated that Canada has furnished horses to the British and Canadian governments combined to twice the number bought in the United States. The British Government sought Canadian horses, which were infinitely superior to any others.

A complete list of all subscribers will be published at the close of the week. It is to be hoped that this Special Effort, which is quite apart from the amounts being raised with the assistance of the various Churches, will be the means of augmenting the fund to such an extent, as will enable Prince Edward Island to compete favourably with the other provinces in amount raised in proportion to population.

It is urged that residents of every section of the province contribute according to their means, in an effort to augment the collections being received through the various churches, and from other sources.

Requisition German Steamer LONDON, March 1.—It was announced in the House of Commons today that the Italian government had requisitioned 34 of the 37 German steamers interned in Italian waters.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains. A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to start in the first drug store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home.—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1108 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Germans Must Accept Allies' Terms

PARIS, March 2.—The Germans, with methods very different from ours, are trying against us at Verdun, the same experiment, which we made against them. Everyone can see that they are proceeding more slowly than we did. All parts of their offensive being linked up and the ground gained is organized solidly before they can advance.

The dash and endurance of our wonderful soldiers have not weakened. If we succeed in checking the German offensive the issue of the war is decided. It is probable that we are to-day undergoing the climax of a desperate effort, the purpose of which is to induce us to discuss peace.

Once the advance is held up it will only remain for us to cease making the mistake of dispersing our forces, and to reply with our general offensive. If we are driven back at Verdun, I can honestly state my belief that neither our defence, nor the eventual launching of our general offensive, will be seriously compromised so long as we see to it that our cities do not fall to the hands of the enemy.

HOCKEY

Probably one of the most interesting games of hockey played in the Arena this winter took place yesterday afternoon, the score being 1-1, when W. K. S. and S. D. C. played one of the most gruelling, viciously fought and thrilling encounters the Inter-scholastic League has ever seen. Lane's thrilling shot tied the score with only a few seconds left to play. The first half was scoreless, but early in the second stanza Doc Bird scored for the wearers of Red and White. From that time on both teams tried hard to score. After the Doctor's score some great hockey followed. Both missed chances close in through spectacular defence play and finally MacEachern secured the puck, passed to Lane; Lane slipped it back one man to pass and MacEachern who had a fine chance to score, but through his generous spirit passed to Lane who did his duty most willingly.

PERSONALS

The very serious illness of Mr Daniel Reardon, who is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends.

Mr Joe Curran, of Miller Bros. returned yesterday afternoon from a business trip in Prince County.

Mrs Benjamin Rogers and her little son, Billy, who were visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Herbert, at Augusta, Maine, for the past three months, returned yesterday by the Car Ferry. Mr. Rogers met them at Piquon. They will make their home at the Russ.

THE SITUATION AT VERDUN

LONDON, March 1.—"The momentous events at Verdun leave little doubt that the crisis of the great war has been reached." This statement by the Pall Mall Gazette fairly represents the general feelings in well-informed quarters here in regard to the German onslaught. It is believed that the worst of the plan which the German high command determined on, long before the war began, and for which preparations have been in steady progress for more than a year.

It is admitted that the Germans have dealt the Allies a heavy blow by gaining four or five miles on a front of nine or ten miles and capturing some extremely strong positions, and it would not be true to say that uncertainty is felt in regard to the outcome, despite the glorious defence of the French soldiers, who are resisting the German advance with the utmost gallantry, self-sacrifice and heroism.

The capture of Verdun, which only a week ago, would have been deemed absolutely impossible by military authorities here, is now discussed as a possibility, which the allies may have to face.

It is not denied that the fall of the great French fort would be a serious matter for the Allies, but on the other hand, to quote Lord Sydenham, who brings to bear on the great issues of the war one of the most acute and well-informed minds in this country "if, when the issue becomes clear, it proves that the Germans have only achieved some quite moderate territorial gains, with an extravagant expenditure of life and munitions, the effect upon the enemy must necessarily be profound. Failure, even partial failure, of a great offensive following upon the splendid success of the Russian army in Asia, would bring about a complete change in the whole military situation, and probably would be the herald of coming victory of the allies."

"We have a full line of military attacks, the right style and colours, also engineers, whips, crops, etc. Raddin Bros. 7624-3-3M31.

OLD TIME RACING

The first record of racing at Doncaster is dated July 1773. For a plate of forty sovs. for six-year-olds, four mile heats, Hackney and Country Wench were disqualified in the first heat. This was occasioned by the carelessness of the jockeys, who, not intending to run for the heat, lay too far out of their ground. The two horses started again, and beat all the others in Badger, which won a four mile race at York in the same year, was so much superior in his antagonists that his rider pulled him up and walked round the turn post after which he could have had distanced them all. At a meeting at Doncaster in 1781 it was resolved that the Doncaster meetings should in future be held in the first week in June. Mother Necessham won two heats or four miles at York in 1789. Spectre was back again, and she also won two heats in the following year. One winner was named Who Would Have Thought It, and another Why Do You Slight Me. For His Majesty's One Hundred Guinea race at York in 1793 Spectre was back again, and she also won two heats in the following year. One winner was named Who Would Have Thought It, and another Why Do You Slight Me.
