

PRINCE EDWARD: TODAY AND SAT. SATURDAY MATINEE 2.39

SPY RING STRIKES AT SEA! MYSTERY SEA RAIDER CAROLE LANDIS HENRY WILCOXON ONSLOW STEVENS

CAPITOL: TODAY and SAT

Fighting Fiends! Sweeping the plains in a cyclone of thrills and action! JOHNNY MACK BROWN 'DESPERATE TRAILS' BOB BAKER FUZZY KNIGHT BILL CODY JR. FRANCES ROBINSON

Cardigan Head And Vicinity

Mr. Elds Andrews, City, was a recent visitor to 48 Road, on business. Messrs. Joseph and Jack McAuley, P. E. I. Highlanders, accompanied by Mr. Joseph Poyan, City, were visitors to Cardigan Head on Sunday afternoon.

Big Action Bill At The Capitol

Registering an audacious challenge to the British and western screen stars, Johnny Mack Brown came through with a thoroughly entertaining performance in his new dramatic picture, "Desperate Trails," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

"Mystery Sea Raider At Prince Edward

If you have any intention of taking a European cruise in the near future, you'd better stop by the Prince Edward Theatre first and have a look at "Mystery Sea Raider," the new Paramount picture featuring Henry Wilcoxon, Carole Landis and Onslow Stevens, which opens there today.

SIXTY-TWO YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE

Menston, N. B., Nov. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, Waterloo Street, this city, are probably one of the longest-married pairs in Canada. Today they are celebrating quietly the sixty-second anniversary of their wedding.

Educationists U. S. Observers Of Dominion Think Russia Meet at Ottawa Was Baulking

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—(CP)—Educational authorities from every province except Alberta met in conference here today and discussed the possibilities of a Dominion-wide campaign to bring Canadians to greater consciousness of Canadian nationality by co-ordinating efforts of the press, radio, motion pictures, religion and education.

Declares large Subversive Groups in U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Harold I. United States Secretary of the Interior, said today that "roughly speaking, the United States harbors four large groups that are subversive to our institutions and openly hostile to democracy."

NOTED SCIENTIST ASSISTS CANADIAN LEGION SERVICES

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Dr. H. M. Tory, M.A., B.Sc., LL.B., former president of the National Research Council, and director of the Canadian Khaki Cloth Co. overseas in 1917-18, has accepted the invitation to become Chief Educational Counsellor of the Canadian Legion War Services.

Advertisement for Nabisco Shredded Wheat featuring an image of a child and a bowl of cereal. Text: 'THIS BREAKFAST HAS WHAT IT TAKES TO KEEP YOU "UP TO THE MARK"'

Urges Indian Leaders Think Out Solution

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(CP Cable)—L. S. Amery, Secretary of State for India, urged in the House of Commons today that the "serious-minded and responsible leaders of the Indian nation" get together and "think out a solution of the terribly difficult and complex problem of India's constitution."

December meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Stead

December meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Stead, Roll call: Decoration for Christmas tree. (Patriot please copy).

WHITESANDS W. I.

The annual meeting of the "Royal Oak" Women's Institute of Whitesands met at the home of Mrs. William Glover on the evening of November 13th with the President, Mrs. Hammond Neill presiding.

Advertisement for Penman's Knitted Products featuring a ruler and a pen. Text: 'MEASURE the VALUE Thousands of Canadians measure the value of Knitted Products by the trademark they know stands for uniformly high quality—the Penman's label.'

Advertisement for 'TUNE IN TONIGHT REGAL FLOUR CHILDREN'S SPELLING BEE' with details on time and location.