CABINET CHANGES MADE AND PROSPECTIVE

Hon. F. B. Carvell Retires from Public Life and May Become Chief Justice of N. B. Sir Douglas Hazen Going to Cabinet. Other Possibilities.

(Special to the Guardian)
OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—Hon. Frank B. Carvell, Minister of Public Works, is leaving the Government and retiring from public life. He personally authorized the announcement this afternoon. The resignation will be submitted in a day or two. His successor is not yet announced, but Sir Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice of New Brunswick, is here, and in all probability he will succeed Mr. Carvell in the Cabinet if not in the exact portfolio.

The retiring Minister of Public Works may become Chief Justice of New Brunswick in place of Sir Douglas Hazen, or he may go to the Railway Commission, replacing Sir Henry Drayton, who is coming into the Cabinet. He will not continue in politics.

Other changes are imminent. Sir Henry Drayton will be sworn in tomorrow as a Minister, in all probability Minister of Finance, in place of Sir Thomas White.

Dr. Toimie, M. P. for Victoria, will become Minister of Agriculture in place of Hon. T. A. Creer and be sworn in next week.

It is also likely that Hon. Martin Burrell will be appointed Librarian of Parliament and be succeeded as Secretary of State by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, the latter being replaced by Hon. H. J. Morphy, M. P.

As anticipated, Sir Douglas Hazen joins the Cabinet, it is believed he would seek a seat either in York or St. John City. Sir Henry Drayton will probably run for a Toronto seat.

Mr. Carvell's retirement is not a surprise. He has always said he joined the Cabinet only for the war and the period of demobilization.

REDUCTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

Canadian Staff in London Will be Reduced as Rapidly as Demobilization Will Permit.

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, August 3.—Plans for the immediate drastic reduction of the Canadian administrative staff in London are now under consideration and will shortly be announced by the Overseas Minister. So long as there is a considerable number of troops and hospital patients scattered about the country remaining to be repatriated, a hasty breaking up of the complicated organization perfected during the course of several years could not be contemplated without the certainty of confusion.

CHAUTAQUA BROUGHT TO A SUCCESSFUL CLOSE

Able Lecture on Russia Saturday Evening by Dr. G. L. Parker. Children's Play and Other Features a Marked Success.

Chautauqua's week in Charlottetown was brought to a successful close last evening by a grand concert which commenced at 8.30, the tent being crowded to capacity.

On Saturday afternoon an entertainment which was especially enjoyed by the children was the remarkable exhibition of bird and animal intelligence as portrayed by the troupe of trained animals and birds known as Panamasika's Pets. Their work was to say the least wonderful and the way they pulled off the battle scene from the great war caused great enthusiasm. The battle scene represented an attack upon a German fort. During the engagement the birds fired cannon, set the fort on fire, extinguished the blaze, lowered the German flag and blew up the national colors in its stead.

Other amusing tricks, the result of the careful training of Professor Panamasika, made up a programme which delighted youth and old alike.

The lecture Saturday evening was given by Dr. G. L. Parker, former minister of the British American Congregational Church at Petrograd, Russia. Dr. Parker dealt with Russian problems in an interesting and masterly manner showing many instances of Russian life, their troubles and manner of government. The speaker also dealt with Russia's part in the great war and the subsequent intrigues of our enemies who were in sympathy with Germany, that side-tracked nations on route to the promised black gold fields from over reaching the soldiers, and sent medical supplies away in another direction. Ninety three per cent of the Russian people, Dr. Parker stated, were burden bearing, tax paying people, while seven per cent were the upper classes, the bureaucracy who controlled the government and told the people what they must, or must not do. Bolshevism did not have its growth in weeks or months, but in years. It was planted in the front door of every home and was the natural effect of what went on in Russia for 150 years or more.

Dr. Parker said when the war started it was not believed that Russia would fight, but they did in spite of all obstacles. He regarded it as a mistake that Russia was not represented at Paris. They had purchased that right with their loss of eight million. While the Allied nations were recognizing Admiral Koltchak's government, he did not believe it would be any better than preceding regimes because the same powers that aided Germany were behind it. Neither did he look for any government to endure that did not take a firm hold of the land system. It was for this reason that Lenin and Trotsky could not hold out this long. They saw the way to the sympathies of the lower classes and took it. To the man who worked for the landlord they said "if you want your own land, take it; shoot the landlord," and this the worker proceeded to do.

Dr. Parker continued that Germany was working night and day to obtain control of Russia and if she did so, it could not be said she had lost the war. It was up to the other nations to gain commercial and industrial control of that vast country if they wished to keep Germany from eventually owning all of it.

The first part of the programme, children's pageant "The Wop" or "The Canadians All." Under the skilful training of the ladies who have charge of the junior work, the seventy-five local children who participated in the various exercises that evening, made a splendid showing, and were rewarded by frequent bursts of applause from the large audience and with hearty words of commendation from the platform superintendent.

The following took the leading parts in "The Wop" and are deserving of the high praise for the manner in which they acquitted themselves: Lloyd Jenkins, Morris McKinnon, Russel Kijly, Virginia Sidenius, Hector Ross, Hattie Tarbusch, Doris Harper, Doris McKee, Doris Tall, Lillian Ducheman, Gilbert Houston.

MEASURES TO PREVENT PROFITEERING

Collective Purchasing Again Under Consideration to Prevent Profiteering.

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, August 3.—Steps toward international collective purchasing of food stuffs to check profiteering and speculation which are declared to be in all countries were taken at today's meeting of the Supreme Economic Council.

The return to the system in vogue during the war was proposed by the British, French and Italian representatives. The proposal was referred to a committee which will coordinate the plan and present it to the American Government with an invitation for its co-operation. The members of the council stated they recognized that profiteering and speculation had been going on generally for some time but the activity toward unwarranted price-raising during the past thirty days is considered alarming. This was due, the members believed, to a sharp fall in the harvest prospects in the past month. It was pointed out however, that first there was no reason to believe there was not sufficient food to last through out 1920 and there was no reason for the undue advance of prices. The members deplored of reducing prices much below the level obtaining three months ago but they were determined that if possible they would not permit prices to go higher.

Germans Abandon Polish Harvest

(Special to the Guardian)
WARSAW, August 3.—Under pressure from the Entente the Germans appear to have abandoned the lingering hope of getting the Polish harvest in Suwalki for themselves and are withdrawing their troops. The Poles have occupied Augustow without fighting. The withdrawal removes the danger of conflict between the Poles and Germans for the regiments from Suwalki were burning to cross the line of demarcation and turn the Germans out of their homes.

The danger of conflict between the Poles and Lithuanians is, less now that the German influence on the latter is being removed.
