CONCERNING AMNESTY.

One of the points at issue between the Emperor of Russia and his Parliament is that the latter demands an unconditional amnesty for all political offences, and this he is unwilling to grant. It must indeed be pretty hard for a despotic ruler to grant a free pardon and full liberty to thousands of men who have presistently sought to take his life and to overthrow his government. Nor is it made easier by the demand of the Duma. As now proposed it would be amnesty under compulsion.

And yet it might be better to yield. Amnestied rebels often make most loyal and useful subjects. In Canada we know what valuable public services were rendered by Cartier and McGee long years after a price had been set upon their heads. Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria after the Hungarian uprising of 1849 granted just such an amnesty as the Czar now refuses. Among those pardoned was the famous Count Andrassy, afterwards successively Chancellor and Prime Minister of Austro-Hungary and a devoted supporter of Francis Joseph. King Humbert of Italy shortly before his death granted an amnesty to more than a thousand prisoners who had taken part in a revolt in the big Italian cities. Napoleon the Third granted an amnesty to all political offenders after his victorious Italian campaign of 1859. These are wholesome precedents for the Czar.

The impression grows that if we are to have compulsory voting it ought to be accompanied with a prohibition of personal canvassing by candidates and their agents. Nothing would do more to secure purity of elections and a better class of representatives than the abolition of personal solicitation.

Will Shearing who won the Marathon race and fame for himself and Canada, gives this advice to Canadian athletes: "If they intend to win, let them go in with the determination that brings success in every walk of life. Train faithfully, go to bed early and abstain from all intoxicating liquors. If any young man has athletic ability and he observes these very simple rules, success is assured in every branch of field or track effort." This is good advice for those in every walk of life as well as in athletics.

ACTIVE LIVER, GOOD DIGESTION

And There is no More Prompt and Certain Means of Keeping the Liver Right Than

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

In calling your attention to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills it is only necessary to point to their success in the past, for they are known in nearly every home.

By means of their direct and specific action on the liver—causing a healthful flow of bile—they regulate and enliven the action of the bowels and ensure good digestion in the intestines. At the same time they stimulate the kidneys in their work of filtering poisons from the blood.

This cleansing process set in action by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Livery Pills means a thorough cure for billiousnoss intestinal indigestion, torpid liver, kidney derangements and constipation.

It means a restoration of health, strength and comfort where there has been pain, weakness and suffering. It means a removal of the conditions which lead to backache, rheumatism, lumbago, Bright's Disease, appendicitis and diabetes.

Mrs. James Lawrence, West L'Ardoise, C. B., writes:—"I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's medicines and believe that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills saved my life. I was a great sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and entirely unable to do anything. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cured me and I have recommend them to many people.

"My husband was cured of liver complaint by using these pills and we would not think of being without them in the house."

EDITOR'S MAIL

THE COMMONS AND LORDS.

Sir:—If the Dominion Parliament is remiss in its duty our independent press is not to be blamed, seeing that for almost a year, scarcely a week has passed without The Guardian showing up some of the bad deeds of our lawmakers at Ottawa. At time of election the voters are referred to as the yeomanry, the free, independent electors, while the candidate speaks of himself as their servant, who if elected will do his utmost to please the constituency. No legislative act shows more clearly how little regard was paid to the wish of electors than the salary steal; not one constituency in Canada was consulted as to their likes or dislikes; indeed every member must know that such enormous increase of pay must be highly offensive, but who cared?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who for a number of years has been worshipped as a sort god by the Liberals, gives ample proof of being quite human, when he asserts that the stolen indemnity is nothing too large owing to the increased length of sessions—"why it's not quite a thousand dollars per month." The sessions can easily be made to last the whole year, and according to Sir Laurier's contention, members will be entitled to three or four times as much pay as at present. A form of government that allows dishonest unscrupulous men to take what they choose from the treasury is surely unsafe, and impolitic. Seeing that our representatives have quadrupled their session allowance since the Dominion was started, there is not the least guarantee against the present enormous pay being quadrupled also before many years. The rise from $600 to $1000 per session was effected with some diffidence on part of the members; the rise from the latter amount to $1500 was done with less scruples and raising the figures to $2500 last year seems to have taken place during a wild, mad carousal with a shout of "who cares for the blank, base electors, their business is to be content with their lot and keep the treasury full." Any one who supposes that the greed of our representatives will be content with the present rate of indemnity is too green to be intrusted with the ballot. No British possession boasts of loyalty of the old land so loudly as Canada, but when it comes to a stealing grab-game our men look south for instruction.

At the great Liberal Convention held at Ottawa in 1893, the platform laid down included abolition or reform of the Senate. The party has been in power almost ten years, yet the ancient useless concern is is still in full bloom, quite as useless as at the date mentioned, and a great deal more costly. What has the Canadian Senate ever done to justify its existence? What beneficial acts stand to its credit to justify an expenditure if not less than ten tons of coined gold since the old institution was started? The ready excuse is that it checks unwise legislation. Did it prevent the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway bill from becoming law? Did it prevent rogues in the Commons from stealing hundreds of thousands from the treasury to make themselves rich? Never in all the years of Canadian history was there a measure passed so obnoxious, so generally denounced. But the dim eyed old men with tottering feet at the grave are yet keen for the dollar and opposing the salary-steal was far from their thoughts.

Will the Guardian find room for these crude, scattered words from a
