CONSERVATIVES ARE CHOSEN IN BY-ELECTIONS

Supporters of Ferguson Government Returned, Making Gain of One Seat.

TORONTO, June 28.—Three Conservatives, all supporters of the Ferguson government, were returned in the three provincial by-elections held in Ontario today. In South Bruce, the Conservative Peter Moffatt led his Progressive opponent, M. A. McCullum, by a majority of about 1,800. In East Hamilton, William Morrison, the Ferguson government candidate led his nearest opponent, Currie Gardner, the Liberal candidate, by 1,100 votes, and his Independent Conservative opponent, John Hodgson, by 1,500 votes. In North Renfrew, E. A. Dunlop, the Conservative, was elected over Paul Martin, the Liberal, by a substantial majority. The South Bruce seat was made vacant by the unseating of M. A. McCullum, Progressive, by an election court verdict, the East Hamilton seat, by the resignation of Dr. Leeming Carr, Conservative, to become Sheriff of Wentworth County, and the North Renfrew seat, by the death of Alexander Stuart, Conservative. The result gives the government a gain of one seat, the new standing of the parties in the Legislature being: Conservatives, 77; Liberals, 21; Progressives, 11, and U. F. O., 3. Total 112.

SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY

The Accused in Criminal Cases Arraigned—Argument heard in Application for Leave to Appeal in the Case of Blanchard vs. The P. E. I. Agricultural Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

At the Supreme Court this morning those accused in criminal actions were arraigned before His Lordship Chief Justice Matheson. Archibald MacKinnon arraigned for that he unlawfully did kill and slay George Simmons, pleaded not guilty, and said that he would be ready for trial next Monday. Clarence Power was arraigned for perjury with intent to deceive the Supreme Court. The evidence containing the alleged perjury was read to him. He pleaded "not guilty" and trial next Wednesday. Emmanuel Mallet, arraigned for breaking entering and stealing from the ranch of Mr. Sims, pleaded not guilty and stated that he would be ready for trial on Monday next. Mr. J. O. C. Campbell, for the Crown said that arrangements had been made with counsel for the defence to have the accused MacAleer who was out on bail, present but evidently they were unable to get in touch with him. He can be arraigned later. The Crown suggested that the order of trial would be MacAleer, then Weeks, followed by MacKinnon. Mr. Campbell also intimated that defence counsel was satisfied with this arrangement. Frank Weeks, arraigned for larceny in that he did steal a DeLaval Cream separator, the property of the C. N. R. from Winslow station, pleaded "not guilty" and stated that he would be ready for trial on Tuesday next. The non jury case of Murdoch N. MacLeod vs. John Williams, was next called and heard by Mr. Justice Hazard. The Plaintiff was represented by Donald MacKinnon, K. C., and the Defendant by Gilbert Gaudet, K. C. This is an action brought by the Plaintiff for the recovery of $167.60 alleged to be due him by the Defendant for rent of a dwelling house.

BAPTISTS CONSIDER MISSIONS

Reports From Many Countries Heard at World Alliance Meeting in Toronto.

TORONTO, June 28.—Delegates to the Baptist World Alliance spent the day on mission problems. They heard reports on the missionary situation of their church in every part of the world. From South America a missionary came to tell of the opportunities for spreading the Baptist gospel among the Latin-American people. Native Baptists and missionary leaders from Africa, India and China spoke, while one speaker, Rev. A. A. Brooks, of Chicago, told of the need of missionary work among the millions of non-Christians in the United States. A fairly representative group of the congress attended a meeting at which a number of addresses on India were delivered. Reverend James Mursell, of London, England, pointed out that there was a peril to missionary success in the great institutions, such as hospitals and schools which were now being maintained. He was afraid that the management of such institutions might attract a wrong type of missionary. Men who were more interested in running a hospital or school under unusual circumstances than in evangelism, were likely to get in control. Rev. Gladstone Koppole, a native Indian told of the progress the Baptist denomination had made among his people, the Telugus. According to Rev. J. A. Glendinning, of Parramatta, Canada, Canadian Baptists in 54 years had made 20,000 converts among the Telugus.

Africa Awakening

At another meeting, Rev. P. H. J. Herrig, of East Orange, N. J., held forth on Africa and the missions of the dark continent. Africa, he declared, had suddenly emerged into the world consciousness and commercial and industrial enterprises were rapidly developing in the hitherto primitive country. This development, he said, brought about the disorganization of the part of native tribes, and consequent social problems for the missionaries. "China forms the greatest problem for the modern mission," said Rev. Hjalmar Danielson, of Stockholm, Sweden, at a meeting devoted to the world-famed wall on the northern boundary of old China. It was a symbol for a people who feared and hated foreigners. In the crisis brought on by the revolution and "the flight of most missionaries from the country," the speaker saw a ray of hope. He had found that there was increased activity on the part of native churches and that the Chinese Christians were taking upon themselves the burdens of missionary work.

China in Transition

Rev. Donald Fay, of Chengtu, China, pictured present day China as a state of transition. The country, he said, was evolving democracy out of aristocracy, and was throwing off the bondage of ancient customs. He thought the anti-Christian movement had been a good thing for the church, because it helped to hasten native churches to maturity and gave to Chinese Christians a sense of spiritual deepening of responsibility. United States investments and industrial methods were working havoc and hardships on the people of the countries about the Caribbean Sea, declared Rev. C. S. Detwelder, of Tarrytown, N. Y., secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. Attracted by cheap labor, large American corporations were establishing themselves there. They were buying up land and the people were becoming a landless peasantry, he said. While the extreme religious laws of the Mexican constitution were hampering Baptist missionary effort, Rev. M. R. Betwelder thought that the absence of Catholic clergy, and the fact that no Catholic services were being held, gave the Baptists a clear field. He predicted that out of the present deadlock between church and state, a great change would develop in Mexico. Just as Henry VIII, although no Protestant, by his quarrel with the church had paved the way for Protestantism in England, so the present Mexican government, anti-Christian as it was, was opening an avenue for Protestantism.

Funeral Of Arthur, Genevieve And Blanche Walsh Of Elliotville, One Of The Largest And Most Impressive Ever Seen In That Section.—The Church Was Crowded With People Who Came To Render The Last Tribute S of Respect.

Rarely, if ever, has this province witnessed so sadly impressive funeral service as that of the three members of the Walsh family at Elliotville yesterday, the victims of the terrible accident last Monday night at Southport. The caskets containing the bodies of Arthur, Blanche and Genevieve Walsh were taken from the late home to St. Patrick's Church, at Vernon where a Solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, with Rev. A. L. Sinnott, Deacon, Rev. Owen McInerney, Sub-Deacon and Rev. W. E. Monaghan, Master of Ceremonies. The church was filled to overflowing with sympathetic people from far and near who came to render their last tribute of respect, and the long line of carriages and cars headed by the three hearses wended their way from the home of the parents to the Church extended over a mile and was one of the largest corteges ever seen in that section of the country and one such as had never before been witnessed on Prince Edward Island. The pall bearers were as follows: For Arthur: Francis, George, Earle, Reginald, Chester and Gerald Walsh. For Genevieve: Wilfred Mooney, Edward McKenna, Joseph Power, Terrence MacInnis, Ray Hynes and Patrick Duffy. For Blanche: Ira Reid, Ambrose Duffy, Herman Gill, Gerald Curran, Thomas Curran, and Harry Kelly. The chief mourners were: John Thomas and Mrs. Walsh, Sister Teresa, Sister Mary Aloysius, Irene Walsh, Leo Morrissey, Ed. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fraught, Freda MacLaine. At the conclusion of Solemn High Mass the three bodies were laid to rest in one grave side by side and the sad scene on a beautiful summer day will linger forever in the memory of the great throng who witnessed it. The funeral was directed by Undertaker F. Hennessy, assisted by James Hennessy, and N. D. McLean of Charlottetown and Milton Jenkins of Millville. Among those attending the funeral from Charlottetown were His Honor Lieut.-Governor F. R. Heartz, Senator B. C. Prowse and Councilor T. W. L. Prowse.

(Canadian Press)
DARLINGTON, England, June 28.—Another death this afternoon brought the death toll in the collision of an excursion train and a shunting engine early today to twenty-three. Forty-seven were injured. Five hundred persons were on the excursion train. The driver of the shunting engine miraculously escaped injury and helped in the work of rescue as did the driver and fireman of the excursion train which turned turtle in the crash and was smashed to pieces. The driver of the excursion train, however, was later taken to a hospital owing to his injuries. The tragedy was heightened by the fact that the station into which the dead, dying and injured were brought was gaily decorated for a forthcoming railway carnival, Darlington being an important railway centre of the northeast. The carnival has now been abandoned.

Poincare Govt. Gets Vote Of Confidence

(Canadian Press)
PARIS, June 28.—The Chamber of Deputies gave a vote of confidence to the Poincare Government today 420 to 150. Political prophets who have been confidently predicting Premier Poincare's downfall as soon as the frano had been stabilized were thrown into the greatest confusion. This is the most favorable vote received by the Government since the opening of parliament on June 1. The anti-Government forces had chosen the question of releasing the Alsatian deputies, Rosse and Ricklin, from prison, on which to make a preliminary test of strength. The Premier refused to discuss the subject and made it a question of confidence. The country has been saturated in recent days by alarming reports of an impending crisis.

EGYPTIAN CABINET IS FORMED

Mohammed Mahmoud Heads New Govern- ment to Succeed Na- has Pasha — New Leader is Oxford Graduate.

CAIRO, June 28.—Mohammed Mahmoud has completed the task of forming a new cabinet in succession to that of Nahas Pasha, which was summarily dismissed a few days ago by a rescript issued by King Fuad on the ground that the ministry was formed on the basis of a coalition which no longer existed. He has retained in office Ahmed Kasaba, Minister of War and Marine, and Ibrahim Fahmy, Minister of Public Works, all of whom are Wafdists. The newcomers include Ody Maher, Minister of Finance. Mahmoud is vice-president of the Liberal Party and was educated at Oxford University. He was formerly a strong Wafdist and was interned by the British Government at Malta in 1919. He joined the Liberals in 1922, as the result of a quarrel with former Premier Zaghloul Pasha over the latter's attitude toward Great Britain.

Reed's Name Placed In Nomination

(Special to the Guardian)
CONVENTION HALL, Houston, Tex., June 28.—The name of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri was placed in nomination before the democratic convention today by Charles M. Howell, his life-long friend and associate from Kansas City, Mo. It went to the convention as a forlorn hope for Reed faced certain defeat. The Smith was at its peak and Smith managers were suggesting the convention might clean up tonight naming the New York Governor 1928 presidential nominee and a running mate—probably Senator Joseph Robinson of Arkansas. Strong pressure has been brought on Reed to quit the race but the old fighter from Missouri, bitter over his situation, had decreed his name should go to the convention.
