THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Albert Aitken, Mrs. Elyse S. Barr, Miss Harriet Clark.
 AGENT GEORGETOWN: Walden Lavars
 AGENTS SOURIS: Miss Eild Richards and Gordon Farrell

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following places in Montague: Miss S. A. Llewellyn; Mrs. Clark. In Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: Condon's and Florence Eoper. In St. Peter's: The Post Office.

Mr. J. R. Kennedy, Murray Harbour North, was a business visitor to Montague on Monday.

Mr. Art Lewis of Halifax was a visitor to Montague for a few days on business.

Mr. Arnold MacLure, Montague, spent Sunday in Murray Harbour North, guest of his uncle, Mr. Chester MacLure and Mrs. MacLure.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Nelson, Montague, accompanied by their son Alan, and Miss Wilma MacLure, motored to Charlottetown on Sunday where they visited Mr. Clarence White.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hutcheson and young daughter Linda, who have spent the past two weeks visiting in Montague, guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Hutcheson, left on Tuesday to return to Mrs. Hutcheson's home in Dunham, England. They were accompanied to Halifax by Mr. Hutcheson's mother and sister Nora.

The re-opening meeting of the Almonte Young People's Union of the United Church was held in the classroom on October 4th. The meeting opened with the devotional period led by Miss Pearl Greene. The Scripture lesson was read by Miss Blanche Hume. The president, Mr. Rudolph Hume, presided over a short business meeting. The executive was asked to meet next week to plan the meetings for the following month. Plans were made for the members to meet on Saturday to decorate the church for Thanksgiving. Following the short business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the members after which the meeting adjourned.

A very pleasant evening was spent on Friday, October 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacDonald, Upper Montague, the occasion being a pre-nuptial show for their daughter, Aena, who is to be married in the very near future. The house was filled with friends and neighbors, who assembled from near and far to give their best wishes. The guest of honor was ushered into the room by Mrs. Roy Gillis. A beautiful and useful variety of linen, silver, glass and kitchen ware, besides numerous envelopes were opened by Miss Jean Carver, and Mrs. John Francis MacPherson. The accompanying verses were read by Miss Irene Bruce. Aena very graciously thanked her friends for their beautiful gifts, after which all joined in singing "For she's a jolly good fellow". A very pleasant evening was spent in games followed by a jolly singing, after which lunch was served by the ladies, bringing to a conclusion a very enjoyable evening.

On Thursday evening, September 30th, in the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Rev. F. Norman Young, B.A., was installed in the pastoral charge of Montague, Cardigan and Lorne Valley. The service of installation was conducted by Rev. T. A. Duke, Caledonia, assisted by Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers, Charlottetown, who preached the sermon, taking for his text Ephesians 5: 32, "The Love is Christ and the Church". The charge to the congregation was given by Rev. C. D. Henderson, Murray Harbour North, who has been interim moderator of this congregation for the past five months. The charge to the minister was given by Dr. R. S. Quigley, Belfast. The anthem, "His Love is Growing Sweeter" was sung by the choir. The music was under the direction of Mr. J. E. Dunning, choir director, and Mrs. A. F. Campbell, organist. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Young. At the close of the service the ladies of the church served lunch to the clergymen and to visitors from other congregations. The church, which has been newly redecorated, was further beautified by a profusion of autumn flowers and potted plants. Mr. Young is a graduate of the University of Western Ontario, and Knox College, Toronto. Accompanied by Mrs. Young and their young son, they have taken up residence in the Manse in Montague, where they are receiving a very warm welcome.—Lan.

Mr. and Mrs. B.W. MacEwen have returned to their home in the city after spending the summer at the old summer home in Morrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. O'Brien and family have returned to their home in the city after spending the summer months here at their summer home.

Potatoes are already pouring into the new and mighty Co-Op warehouse built at Morrell recently. Grading machines were installed and potatoes are taken in right from the fields.

Friends here of Mr. Barney MacDonald, operator of Jenkin's Furniture Transfer will be pleased to learn he is back on the job again after being laid up with a badly cut hand received while on duty.

Mrs. John Byrne, who has been living alone in the village since her husband died and is not in the best of health, has gone to the city where she will reside at the Sacred Heart Home in future.

Helen Kelly, who was employed in the Cooperative store at Morrell has returned to her duties after a happy vacation but she has returned as Mrs. Carol MacAdam, having married while on holiday. Mr. and Mrs. MacAdam will reside in their new and lovely home in the village.

The work of finishing the inside of the R.C. Church at Morrell is about completed and much credit must be given the pastor for his fine drawing up of plans. This new and lovely church is now equipped with electric lights but the new seats will not be ready for some time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. O'Brien have returned from an extended motor trip to Boston and other cities where they were guests of old friends of long years standing. They report a lovely trip with not even a half day of poor weather. In fact rain in Boston is forgotten. It is so long since they had any. They visited in Lynn for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Luke Dunn, old friends they have not seen in twenty-five years, also a sister of Mr. Dunn, Marion Dunn.

Georgetown And Vicinity

Mrs. Gerald Morrison was a visitor to Montague on Tuesday.

Mr. Ray W. Solomon is having extensive exterior repairs done to his residence on the corner of Kent and Richmond Streets.

Miss Nellie MacPhee and Miss Sarah MacPhee motored to the City on Monday where they were guests at the Gallivan-MacPhee wedding.

Mr. James Llewellyn of Water Street left on Monday for the Province of Ontario where he plans on taking a position in the mines of that Province.—Geo.

Rev. Father M. E. Francis of the St. Dunstan's College Extension Department was a recent visitor to Georgetown where he discussed with local Credit Union officials matters vital to Credit Union work here.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Foss of Peabody, Mass., motored to the Province, arriving in Georgetown on Tuesday, where they paid a short visit to relatives and friends during the day. Later they motored to the City, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jenkins.

The Georgetown Branch of the Prince Edward Island Libraries under the management of librarian Miss Genevieve Soloman, re-opened on Tuesday after being closed for the past few weeks, during which time the annual change of books was made by Mr. B. H. Chandler and Miss Dorothy Cullen of the P. E. Island Libraries. The books which have been in the local library were taken to Murray River and Georgetown received the books which for the past year have been in Montague. The capable librarian has materially added to the attractiveness of the library by the addition of some new pictures, posters and book-ends. All is now in readiness for the autumn and winter period of reading, during which time the library will be extensively used by citizens of all ages.

East Point And Vicinity

It is also ideal weather for cranberry picking. The crop this year is reported as being extra good.

Mr. Charles A. MacDonald has returned to his home at North Lake, after spending a short time as a patient, at the Ottawa General Hospital.

Mr. George F. MacDonald of East Point, veteran student and former graduate of St. Dunstan's University, has returned to Halifax, where he will resume his studies at Dalhousie University.

The home of Joseph MacMillan, Elmira, was saddened for the second time within six weeks by the death of his wife, Florence, at the Provincial Sanatorium on Wednesday, Sept. 29. Mrs. MacMillan was pre-deceased by her son Albert, 23, who also died at the Sanatorium.

The weather-man has made up for his previous bad behaviour by giving a week's respite. The farmers who were getting very discouraged by the inclement weather, made the most of the sunny days by getting their grain stored.

The baseball season is drawing to a close. The Eastern Star's sports field at South Lake with its baseball, girls' softball and volleyball was center of interest during the summer to all those keen on the various forms of sport. "A sound mind in a sound body" might well be proclaimed Tuesday as the center of interest during the summer to all those keen on the various forms of sport. A special meeting of the "Eastern Star" Junior Farmers was held in Elmira Hall on Thursday evening. Films were shown both of an educational and recreational nature. Mrs. Leo P. Mac's, ac, of the Department of Agriculture, Charlottetown, was guest speaker. Mr. MacIsaac outlined plans for a winter program. A debate was held. The first in a series sponsored by the group, it invoked lively interest. A directors meeting was called for the following Monday night, for the purpose of subdividing the group in order to facilitate the holding of meetings in homes in the various districts during the winter months.—E. P.

A Home Is Built—in 120 Minutes
 Trucks rolled up to a vacant lot in Phila delphia. Workmen set to work. In two hours, a finished home stood on the lot, ready to receive a family. The $2850 Reliance home, built on the principle of a battleship, has a rigid steel structure and an exterior sheathed in aluminum. It has six rooms, and the FHA has given it a Class A report. Each of the seven units is completely assembled at the plant, and then anchored to the foundation.

One of the seven units goes on the foundation.

More units are added, and the home begins to take shape.

The finished product, after two hours of work.
