Few educational institutions in Canada enjoy the confidence of the general public—especially the employing public—that the Charlottetown Business College does. Its students are safely and carefully trained, and always give a good account of themselves.

Wm. Sherren's house at Tryon caught fire Wednesday afternoon and it was with much difficulty that it was saved as there was a heavy wind blowing at the time. The fire started from a spark which escaped from the flue and lodged on the roof of the house. Had it not been for the timely efforts of Hudson Sherren and his friend, Mr. Gardiner who is visiting there the house, undoubtedly, would have been completely destroyed.

Yesterday afternoon members of the Examiner and Guardian staffs were treated to a very enjoyable sail in Bruce Stewart's speedy motor boat the Imperial II. In the run up and down and around the harbor the fast launch demonstrated her seagoing ability in almost all sorts of water conditions as far as wind and tide were concerned and in all cases she behaved with the greatest credit to her designers, builders and owners. The occupants of the boat thoroughly appreciated the sail.

The shorthand department of the Charlottetown Business College has the proud distinction of being the only institution in Canada from which a student, before graduation, was sworn in as Supreme Court Reporter. It is also the only institution to furnish from its classrooms stenographers for verbatim reports of meetings. It has not only a record of speed in writing, but has excelled in preparing students in the shortest possible time. Pretty hard record to beat and the half is not told. "The C. B. C.'s get there."

Yesterday was a busy day at the City Wharves more vessels being tied up than for sometime past. The greatest activity was discernable at Pownall wharf where were docked the S. S. City of Ghent and three schooners, The Empress, The William Pritchard and another. The Empress has just concluded discharging a cargo of molasses for Carvell Bros. The William Pritchard is a three masted top-sail schooner and belongs to Caenarvon, Wales, her owner is Captain and his crew are Welshmen. She is a fine craft and actually has a figurehead, something now rarely seen at this port. The William Pritchard brought here a load of salt from Cadiz, Spain, for Carvell Bros. This is now being discharged. The City of Ghent brought a general cargo from Halifax and intermediate ports and sailed on return in afternoon with a miscellaneous freight which included a large quantity of vegetables shipped by J. J. Gay & Son of this city to Canso and other ports.

The register of the Charlottetown Business College shows an increase of eleven students over this time last year, with applications coming in daily. The public appreciate the fact that the C. B. C. attends to its students, while in college, and never lets up until they are in a good position. "The C. B. C.'s get there."
