BACK TO BUSINESS—Mr. William S. McNeill, of Somerville, Mass., and formerly of Fairview, was a welcomed visitor to the Island for a few days, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. McNeill, who is a valued employee of the large grocery firm of S. S. Pierce Co., Boston, has not been back home since leaving to reside there in 1926. He left on return Monday morning, accompanied by his son Leonard, who has been spending the holidays with his grandfather, Mr. Duncan Buchanan, New Dominion.

ON MOTOR TRIP—Mr. Edward Noble, Mrs. Noble and son Bobby, of Hudson Falls, N. Y., arrived in the city by motor Tuesday evening and will remain for a couple of weeks holidays. Mrs. Noble was formerly Miss Margaret Trainor of this city. This is Mr. Noble's first visit to Prince Edward Island and he is thoroughly delighted with the place. They were accompanied by Miss Maud Carter, formerly of Charlottetown, and Miss Marion Anderson, who spent many years here. Their many friends are extending to them a hearty welcome to the land of their birth.

MR. FRANK HOWELL'S FUNERAL—The funeral of the late Mr. Frank Howell of Lot XI was held a short time ago. Services were conducted by his minister, Rev. J. A. Nicholson, assisted at the house by Rev. E. C. Robertson. A service was conducted in the United Church of Tyne Valley and interment was in the Tyne Valley United Cemetery. The late Mr. Howell is survived by his wife and a son Ralph. He was a quiet, kindly, christian man, and he will be missed by his neighbors and friends who held him in high esteem.

Highly successful progress in rehabilitation of the oyster industry at Malpeque Bay is reported by Dr. W. A. Found, Deputy Minister of Fisheries, Ottawa, who is now in Charlottetown, and who states that this year there will be a considerable production of Malpeque oysters for sale. Judging from what has already been accomplished, not only is there assurance that the development of oyster farms will be successful and extensive, but that it will begin to show results in the near future equal to the best that have been achieved in the North American continent.

The King's County Exhibition, which was held yesterday in Georgetown was the most successful in the history of the organization. The number of live stock exhibited this year was 25% greater than last year, and the number of exhibits in the building was equal to last year's showing. The fine weather permitted a large attendance of interested spectators.

The President, Mr. D. P. McKinnon, said he was gratified by the large number of people present, and the high quality of the exhibits. He regretted the absence of His Honour Lieutenant Governor Dalton, and Premier Stewart.

Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, Acting Premier, also expressed his regret at the absence of both His Honour Lieutenant Governor Dalton and the Premier. He congratulated the directors and management upon carrying on the good work in the face of adverse circumstances. The exhibits which he had seen were of a high standard and he congratulated the exhibitors on their industry.

Wednesday. Mr. Dave Bethune, M.L.A., presented the medals for the open events and Mr. Daniel Gillis, President of the L.P.U., presented the prizes for the other events. Congratulatory speeches to the athletes were made by Mr. Bethune and Mr. Pendleton of the Y.M.C.A.

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 5th, Mrs. A. K. MacPhee entertained delightfully at her home in New Dominion in honor of Miss Dorothy Doull, one of the season's popular young brides-to-be. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Hector Currie, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor beneath a beautiful white bell filled with confetti. The room was prettily decorated with streamers and cut flowers. After a few remarks by the President, Mrs. Arthur MacDonald, Miss Elizabeth MacEwen read an address and Mrs. Walter MacEwen, on behalf of the New Dominion Women's Institute, presented the bride-to-be with a beautiful steamer rug. Miss Doull gracefully thanked the members for their tokens of friendship, after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Delicious refreshments were then served by the ladies and a pleasant hour was spent in music and conversation. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the evening to a close.

SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I., Sept. 7—A large concourse of people attended the funeral service for the late Edgar J. Milligan, which was held in the beautiful grounds adjoining his late residence at Northam. Prominent fox men and racing men, besides people from every walk of life were present to pay a last tribute to one who had done much for the community where he lived.

Rev. Mr. Nicholson of Tyne Valley, conducted the service from the veranda of the house. Assisting him were Rev. Mr. Robertson of Tyne

Valley and Rev. Mr. Loring of Kensington. The choir of Tyne Valley church assisted by others sang very sweetly, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." By special request, Mr. Roy Phillips sang "Does Jesus Care."

After the service the remains were conveyed to their last resting place in the United Church Cemetery at Freeland, Lot 11, a large number of cars following in the funeral procession. There were many lovely floral tributes.

The Honorary pall bearers were: Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders, Hon. G. Shelton Sharp, Lt. Col. D. A. MacKinnon, Dr. J. B. Champion, Mr. F. J. E. Wright and Mr. R. S. P. Jardine.

FAREWELL DANCE—A most enjoyable farewell dance sponsored by the Elite Club was tendered Mr. Reg McCarville in the K. of C. Hall on Tuesday evening, previous to his departure to Brockville, Ont. A selected orchestra furnished the music for the seventy-five couples who attended. The chaperones were Mrs. A. A. Hennessey and Mrs. Frank McEgan. Last evening the young student was presented with a well filled purse from the members of the Club and a number of personal friends.

VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH—A verdict of death by accidentally falling from a third story window of a house located at 377 Kent Street and breaking his neck on Sept. 5th was given yesterday afternoon by the Coroners jury empanelled to inquire into the circumstances of the demise of Charles LeRoy Henry. The adjourned inquest before Coroner J. B. Johnston was concluded with the hearing of evidence from the following witnesses: Mary MacDonald, Hattie Godkin, Heath Henry, John Coughlin, Patrick Clarkin. The jury first visited the scene of the fatality and returned to the Board Room of the City Building, where the inquest proceedings were conducted.

Fire which broke out about 2.30 this morning totally destroyed the Greenhouse, small barn and partially damaged the large barn of Mr. Von Clure Gay, Upper Prince St., causing an estimated loss of $3,000.

The fire which is believed to have originated in the barn, quickly spread to the adjoining buildings, which were soon seen to be doomed. Several cars in the barn were saved, but the horses, as far as could be learned, were burned with the building. The firemen, who were quickly on the scene, experienced difficulty in obtaining water, requiring to lay a line some thousand feet or more from the corner of Gerald and Upper Prince Streets.

The fire gained considerable headway before the pumper was in operation and a large crowd attracted by the huge flames spreading skyward, gathered at the scene. (At the time of going to press, the fire was still burning, but the large dwelling house of Mr. Gay was in no immediate danger.)

The death occurred at his home at Lower Montague on Monday last of Mr. Roger Dart Westaway, a worthy member of one of the best known and most highly respected families in that section of the province. His ancestors on his father's side came to the Island from the River Dart, Devonshire, England, many years ago. His mother's people were of United Empire Loyalist stock and direct descendants of Rev. Mr. Allen, one of the Pilgrim Fathers who came out to America in the Mayflower in 1620. Another ancestor was Rev. Thomas Prince, the first Minister to preach in Brookline, Mass.

The Creeds came first to Prince Edward Island in 1767 from Salem, Mass., one of the family making his summer home at St. Andrew's Point. The late Roger Dart Westaway lived for the past fifty years on the old homestead, Ryefield Farm, at St. Andrew's Point, which had been in the family for more than one hundred years.

There are left to fondly cherish the memory of a loving husband and father, his widow, nee Sarah Martin of Belle River and the following sons and daughters: Joseph J. Westaway, C. S., Calgary; Rev. Richard J. Westaway, Calgary; Dr. William Westaway, New York; Mrs. (Dr.) William MacDougall, Boston; Mrs. (Dr.) James P. MacCue, Hudson, Mass.; Mrs. Arthur W. Whidden, Rosindale, Mass.; Mrs. W. T. Wellner, Brookline, Mass., and formerly of Charlottetown. Mrs. Wellner, her husband and her brother, Rev. Mr. Westaway, were with their father when he passed away.

He is also survived by thirteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild, two brothers, Nathaniel Westaway, Albion Bay, and Capt. James Westaway of Lower Montague, formerly of Connecticut, and three sisters, Mrs. Damaris Aitken, Lower Montague, Mrs. W. L. Poole, Montague and Mrs. (Dr.) Victor E. Stafford, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Mr. Westaway was a member of the Anglican Church and he will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Georgetown today, the services to be conducted at the home by Rev. Ewen McDougall and in the Trinity Anglican Church by Rev. H. D. Raymond.
