LONDON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Russia announced through the Moscow press tonight that she has placed the Brazilian Ambassador and his family under "protective" surveillance and said they would be held in Moscow until the safe departure of the Soviet Embassy staff from the United States.

Russia severed relations with Brazil Tuesday because of Russia's failure to apologize for attacks in the Soviet press on Brazilian President Eurico Gaspar Dutra, calling him a "blackie" of the United States.

Moscow radio said Brazilian Ambassador Mario De Pimental and his staff would be held under guard because the So-

The WEEK at S. D. U.

With all due respect to the alumni who don't think he knew what he was talking about—who wrote (Red and White, Dec. '42), "Football is not a game. It is a lumpy played according to rules that do not exist," we still think it is a good thing. Most of you will agree with me in this, especially those of you who saw the Mount A-S.D.U. game here last Saturday. You remember we promised you that it would be a thriller; well it was that and more. Besides being one of the best games we have ever seen, it was the roughest one ever played here; no quarter was asked and none given. The Saints lost the game in the dying seconds on a penalty kick in front of the bar. For the Saints it was a hard one to lose; for Mount A it was a well-earned triumph. By way of summing up the game, one of the Saints said, "It was no push-over for them; it least they knew that they were in a football game!"

Mount A. played host to the Saints on the occasion of the return engagement last Thursday (23rd), and, with two players on the injured list, the Saints went down to an 8-0 defeat. We are not going to offer any excuses for the team; none are needed. In our opinion, they have proven that Saint Dunstan's football team, as well as the hockey team, is an element to be reckoned with in intercollegiate circles. Standings in the N.B.-P.E.I. intercollegiate football to date: Mount A. played 2, won 2, lost none.

S.D.U. played 3, won 1, lost 2. U.N.B. played 1, won none, lost 1.

Saints have one more game to play with U.N.B. on Nov. 1. While the Senior Saints were busily engaged with Mount A., the second Saints were keeping up their end here at home; they won a 3-0 exhibition game over P.W.C. on Friday (24th). We are not going out on a limb, but you will have to admit that that augers well for the forthcoming series. In addition the third team fought to a scoreless draw with P.W.C.'s second team.

While we are on the subject of intermediate football, we should note in passing that a proposal has been made to include the Abbes in a three-team league with S.D.U. and P.W.C. We understand that the proposal is being given consideration by the two colleges, but nothing definite has been disclosed yet.

The annual conference of the Maritime Intercollegiate Debatng League was held last week at Mount A.; Cyril Shinnott and Kevin Howlin representing St. Dunstan's. The main business of the conference was to draw up the debating schedule for the coming year. St. Dunstan's is asked to debate next month with U.N.B., and with St. Mary's College and King's College after Christmas. Intercollegiate debating is something new to you alumni, but it is coming into its own now at Saint Dunstan's. Greater interest is being shown in public speaking this year than ever before, due perhaps to the fine showing of last year's teams, who won two and lost one. This year, who knows, perhaps we shall win the shield, which is emblematic of the Maritime championship.

Mr. A.P. Campbell, M.A., and Mr. Wilfred Driscoll left on Thursday to attend a conference of the central region of the C.F.C.C.S. We hope to have a full report from them for next week's column.

And now we shall sign off for this week; we have to rush to meet the deadline. So long.

AT PACKING PLANT—250 hogs were slaughtered at the Government-operated Canada Packers plant yesterday. Hon. Horace Wright, controller, said last night. They stopped for one day at the Studebaker plant at South Bend, and were shown through the several divisions of the 140 acres of floor space. Some 416 cars were coming off the assembly lines per day. On returning to Ottawa they came by way of the Sea, Sudbury and North Bay. Weather conditions during their trip have been perfect. They expect to return to Charlottetown about the last of this month.

Kentville Honors Native Of P.E.I.

KENTVILLE, N.S., Oct. 24—Joined by Prem. Angus I. Macdonald and leaders from other sections of Kings County, 200 representatives, Kentville citizens paid tribute recently to Dr. A.F. Miller, superintendent of the Nova Scotia Sanatorium from 1910 until his retirement this month.

The function for the Prince Edward Island-born doctor (native of Charlottetown) was sponsored by the Kentville Board of Trade and was a remarkable tribute to one who, in the words of the Premier "is a great and good man, whose influence has not only extended throughout Nova Scotia but to all provinces of Canada."

On behalf of the gathering the vice president, P.R. Rucey, presented Dr. and Mrs. Miller with a silver tray suitably inscribed. The tray was presented by Mayor Gladys Porter with a bouquet of roses. Premier Macdonald drew a parallel in the long and honorable service in the career of Dr. Miller and that of Dr. F.H. Sexton, founder and first president of Nova Scotia Technical College, who recently retired.

On behalf of several thousand ex-patients who regarded their health under the care of Dr. Miller, Kentville spoke in great appreciation of his devotion to his patients' unselfish, untiring in his efforts to restore them to health, and taking a personal interest in each individual case. D.D. Sutton, M.L.A., also voiced his appreciation of the work of Dr. Miller.

In responding Dr. Miller said, "I leave the Sanatorium with the knowledge that the best traditions of the place will be fully maintained by the present superintendent, Dr. Hiltz, and the capable medical staff who work along with him."

Relief Orders

Discussing the filling of the relief orders for fish, Mr. Gregg said it might be necessary for the government to offer higher prices than had originally been contemplated. Actual purchases will be made through the Canadian commercial corporation and the whole price question will be thrashed out at Ottawa on November 3, when the Minister of Fisheries meets representatives of the industry and officers of the fish prices support board here in Ottawa.

Asked by The Guardian if he is to be known as "Brigadier" or just "Mr. Gregg," the Minister instantly replied that his title was "Mr. The Brigadier," he said laughing. "Is dead." To a question as to when he would visit Prince Edward Island, Mr. Gregg said he was counting on crossing Northumberland Strait this year. As to other visits, the Minister was uncertain. So much administrative work had piled up at Ottawa that it would be difficult to arrange

The fishing industry, Mr. Gregg said, was generally in a strong position. Production on the Atlantic coast was down due to labor shortages and to a slight recession in the United States market. At present this market, he added, appears to be firm.

ABATING WINDS

fire fighters took their first rest in four days as a stiff breeze petered out at sundown. Flames had missed the paper-making town of Liverpool by feet and had swept on towards the community of Hunt Point, six miles south.

A pall of smoke shrouded a two-mile section of the Yarmouth highway near Liverpool and caused the minor automobile traffic. A score of firemen remained at strategic points, ready for rising winds which would stir the embers into new life.

Another serious setback had been raging near the village of Bangs Falls, 12 miles from Liverpool. The Red Cross was asked to set up a field kitchen for the increasing number of volunteer fighters.

None of the buildings in the vicinity had been damaged by fires though many of them had been doused time and again with water as the menace grew near. The fire was definitely known to be destroyed burned Thursday in a new outbreak in Hants County, N.S.

In New Brunswick, an unconfirmed report passed back by firefighters because of the fighting were down, said the house of Hugh Campbell was lost at Chance Harbor.

New Brunswickers were asked to loan any useful equipment to combat the flames which were spreading with apparatus had been ordered from Montreal.

The fishing village of Lepreau barely escaped the holocaust. A swift-moving fire brushed past the Bay of Fundy community yesterday and headed through dense woodlands in a southeast direction toward Mac's Bay, Chance Harbor and Dipper Harbor. The three villages are on a five-mile wide point of land that juts into the Bay of Fundy, 20 miles west of Saint John.

At Lepreau, firemen had to concentrate on saving homes and were unable to make an assault on the main fire-line. The blaze jumped the Saint John-St. Stephen highway and all traffic was halted for a time.

Another conflagration plunged through dense forest toward Bonny River 10 miles northwest of the old R.C.A.F. airbase at Pennfield Ridge.

On the main fire areas in New Brunswick, Golden Grove and French Village, Penobscus, 35 miles southwest of Moncton, East and South Alardville and Chamberlain settlement near Bathurst in the northwestern part of Gloucester, Baie Verte, and the Salem section in Albert County, Loch Lomond in King's County and McCann near Newcastle.

In nearly every sector all available men were called upon to battle the blazes, in hilly country, pumper equipment was all but useless.

Winds of 30 and 40 miles an hour were common, with gusts as high as 70 miles an hour.

Scouts, Cubs Out Today With Apples

APPLE DAY!

Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs from some 10 different troops and packs in the city will be selling apples this morning in their annual Apple Day appeal.

Scout leaders and officials have already received great encouragement from many sources with orders for delivery of "hampers of apples" to individual homes, business places, clubs, etc.

The City Club of Charlottetown has asked Scouts to deliver a hamper of apples to both Inghams. The Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., has also co-operated and as a result Red Cross workers on their visitations to hospitals next week will have a supply of delicious Island grown apples.

The Army, Navy and Airforce Officers' Club, the Officers' and Sergeants' Messes at the Armouries, the Curling Club, the Charlottetown Club have all promised to give the Boy Scouts a boost in their Apple Day drive by purchasing a supply.

Several stores in the City are co-operating in the drive by loaning display windows and frames with attractive layouts in support of the day include Moore and McLeod Ltd., Rogers Hardware Ltd., and Prowse Bros.

Troops and packs were busy last night preparing an early start this morning for a complete canvas of the residential as well as the business sections of the city. The city has been mapped out and each group has been given its area to cover.

It is expected that citizens generally and those keenly interested in the efforts of the Boy Scout Association will make generous contributions for one specimen apple.

At Scout Headquarters, Phone 577, at the Travel Bureau a "mobile squad" of Scouts and volunteer workers will stand by to replenish the supply and to meet the request of any citizens who may wish to take this opportunity of lying in a supply for Halloween.

"According to the Act, we are not in a position analogous to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board," he explained. "Backed by a fund of $25,000,000, we can influence fish prices but cannot fix them."

P. E. I. Lobsters

In reply to The Guardian's enquiry as to the progress being made by the Prince Edward Island lobsters shipped last year to British Columbia, the Minister replied that according to latest reports "they are doing very well indeed."

The new Minister said he was "quite concerned with the 'quality control' program of the department. "We are bringing in additional inspectors in our attempt to improve the quality of frozen fish from the Maritimes as well as the Maritimes in Central Canada. To this end we have brought in additional inspectors who will trace the shipments through from the vessels to the processing plants, on the railways and to the destination."

Reason why some of the Maritime fish shipped to Ontario and Quebec points "tasted like straw," he said, was that in some of the smaller plants the fish was not frozen speedily enough or deeply enough. With new and better freezing equipment he felt sure a decided quality improvement would result.

"We also propose," he said, "to study the industry with a view to reducing cost of distribution of fish from the Maritimes to inland points. We intend to find out why fish valued at 13 cents a pound in Halifax costs 32 cents a pound to the retail customer at Ottawa or Montreal."

The Minister leaves Ottawa tonight for Fredericton but will return to his duties here next week.

OTTAWA, Oct. 24—(CP)—Fisheries Minister Gregg announced today that initial purchases of canned, salted and pickled fish will be made next week out of the $8,000,000 ear-marked for post-U.N. R. R. aid to European countries.

Some $4,600,000 out of the relief fund is to be spent on the west coast and some $3,400,000 in the Maritimes and Quebec.

In the half-hour spent at the conference before rushing off to a cabinet meeting, Mr. Gregg made these points:

1. The fishing industry is in a generally strong condition and its outlook for the coming winter is good.
2. The Fisheries Prices Support Board will meet here again during the first week of November to see what it can do for the fishing industry.
3. The Board is not expected to have to take any action for some time to come to influence prices for fish.
4. A director of marketing in the Fisheries Department will be appointed.
5. The re-organization of the Department inaugurated by the late Hon. H. F. G. Bridges will be continued.
6. Efforts are being made to improve the quality of fresh fish on domestic markets and to reduce the cost of distribution from the producer to the consumer.
