

We all use a Knife, Fork and Spoon

Community Silver or W. W. WELLNER, Jeweler

OUR baby pictures—like all portraits that we make—are natural in pose, properly lighted and beautifully finished.

Geo H. COOK The Studio where baby is always welcome.

The Balance of Prowse Bros Stock of Shoes at Big Discounts.

A lot of Ladies' shoes and slippers sizes 2-12 to 4, worth from $1.50 to $2.00 now 95 cents a pair.

A. E. McEACHEN The Shoe Man

New Biscuits

The National Biscuit Co of New York. We have just received a shipment of Biscuits from the above Company.

Beer & Goff

DOMINION ATLANTIC RAILWAY

Steamship Lines to Boston via Yarmouth. The Popular Fast Line. Between Eastern Nova Scotia and Boston via Yarmouth, Windsor Jet, and Halifax.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and marked on the envelope "Tender for Piping System, for Water System, Tender for Pipe Tunnels and Wiring Ducts."

Three Packages of Seeded Raisins For 25c

Just as good as the best Jas. Kelly & Co.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all. Rev. J. Gaudet, Iona, was in the city yesterday.

A. C. Saunders, Summerside, was registered at the Revere yesterday. G. E. Johnson, Halifax, of the New York Life Co, is registered at the Revere.

Gregory Kelly, Greenfield, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. John Bradley, Kelly's Cross, was in the city yesterday registering at the Revere.

E. Boswell, Victoria, was among those registered at the Queen yesterday. D. S. and W. A. McQuarrie, Hampton, were among those registered at the Revere yesterday.

M. J. Hagarty, London, Ont., of the Catholic Record, is in the city. He is registered at the Revere Hotel. Miss Ethel Lapie, Winsloe, has returned home from New Bedford, Mass., where she spent the past year.

James McKenna, of Crowell's, Ltd., Sydney, is spending a few days visiting friends in this city and province. The schooner G. C. Kelly, arrived in port yesterday with a cargo of Run of Mine coal for Peake Bros & Co.

Everyone should come to Georgetown next Wednesday and have a good day's recreation. The return fare is only fifty cents. The Rev. H. R. Bell will preach as follows on the 24th inst: New Glasgow, 11 a.m.; Fredericton, 3 p.m.; and Bradalbane, 7 p.m.

No one should forget the moonlight excursion tonight. S. S. Harland leaves the wharf at 8. Lots of music. Refreshments on board. W. H. McLaren, Pictou, who conducts an undertaking and furniture store there, is in the city on a business trip. He is at the Revere.

The attention of shippers and others interested is called to the ad of the Black Diamond line re the sailings of the S. S. Bonavista which appears in this issue. A well stocked refreshment booth dinner tables laden with appetizing food, games and sports of all kinds are some of the things one will enjoy at the picnic next Wednesday.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located. George and Mrs McLeod have returned to their home in the Canadian West after spending their summer trip. He is at the Revere.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the prohibition case against P. P. Gillis was postponed until July 28th on account of the absence of a material witness who cannot be located.

The Orange Brotherhood of Clyde River and vicinity will meet in the Baptist Church at Clyde River, on Sunday, July 24th, at 3 o'clock p.m., when the sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Calder. Members of sister Lodges are cordially invited to meet in the hall at Clyde River at 2.30 p.m., preparatory to the church service.

In St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church there took place last Sabbath a scene which will long be remembered by those present as very touching. On that day Rev. J. W. McKenzie preached his farewell sermon, having ministered to the people of that place for twenty-four years and four months, and during that long period of time missing only two or three services. The church was crowded with people, old and young, eager to hear the farewell words of one so dear to all. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the usually quiet, orderly way which always characterizes this service as conducted by Mr. McKenzie. When the time to say farewell came then that noble man who had gone in and out among these people for almost a quarter of a century broke down and wept and the strong, stalwart men, as well as the women and children of that large congregation, bowed their heads in a common sorrow, thus expressing their regret at the removal of Mr. McKenzie and his beloved wife, who was also beloved by all and who had always a pleasant smile and kind word for every one.

At North Wiltshire, on Thursday evening, July 14th, 1910, Almira, wife of R. Golding Frizzell, passed peacefully to her eternal home at the age of 44 years. Mrs. Frizzell's illness was brief but very severe. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and to the community in which she resided. Mrs. Frizzell was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years and always glad and willing to help along any good cause. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother and her removal leaves a vacant place which can never be filled. For the bereaved husband and the four motherless children the heart goes out in sympathy and earnest prayer to God that He may comfort, sustain and keep them in this their darkest hour of loss and trial, and may the God of all grace sanctify this trial to all the sorrowing hearts. Mrs. Frizzell was the daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Godfrey of North Wiltshire, to whom her death, coming in their declining years, is indeed a heavy blow. She also leaves to mourn two brothers, John and Frank, both residing at Wiltshire, and one sister (Mrs. Fred. Younker), at Loyalist, all of whom we commend to Him who only can "bind up the broken hearts" and "heal the wounds" and who causes "all things to work together for good to those who love Him." The funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church on Saturday, July 16th, by Rev. Hugh Miller of Cornwall. A very large concourse of intimate but sorrowing friends followed the remains to the grave.

Smokers. We run on no cigar in particular. Our stock is complete with all the leading lines, viz., Nobleman, Angel Queens, Perfectionists, Maritimas, Marguerites, Irvings, Metropoles, Pharaohs, Lords of Canada, La Hamacas, ElSols, etc. Let us give you a price on a box. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

Ladies' "Tub" Suits and Skirts. White Indian head. 35 inch coat Patch pockets and turn back cuffs. Skirt buttoned down the front with large pearl buttons. $5.75

Professional Cards. A. A. McLean, K. C. Donald McKinnon, Barristers, Attorneys-at-Law. Brown Block, Charlottetown.

The "ANSCO" Film. ARE you getting the very best results out of your camera? Are you making the finest photographs possible? Not unless you are using the best film and printing paper.

Don't Get Run Down. This hot weather. Take Gibbon's Hypophosphites. It is a true nerve tonic and body builder. Price $1 a bottle.

Worth's Livery Stables. J. G. Worth, Proprietor. First-class Single and Double Teams. Fine Turn-outs for Weddings and Private Parties.

The Latest in Laces--Nufashond. Are positively perfect laces, guaranteed for three months--tubular in shape, they slide easy--will not crush, crimp or curl like common laces.

The Nobby Nufashond. are doubly reinforced to stand the wear--done up in an attractive package. Ask for Nufashond--get a pair to-day.

Alley & Co. CHARLOTTETOWN

DR. H. D. JOHNSON. Kent Street. Practice limited to diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose Throat and Skin.

DR. A. B. REID. DENTIST. Office Hours 9-1 and 2-6. Over Jenkins & Son.

Attending Convention. Mr. Bayer left Saturday to attend a convention of the Photographers' Association of New England, in Mechanics Hall, Boston, on the 25th, 26th and 27th.

DENTISTRY. (The latest is the Best) Dr. Thos. E. E. ROBINS. 25 Queen Street. Phone 2751.

Dentistry. Dr. C. H. BEER, Surgeon Dentist. Berlin Dental Parlors. Richmond St. Phone 183 J.

W. J. MacMillan M. D. Physician & Surgeon. Residence: 148 Prince St. 6-1822m. Phone 340 L.

Three Packages of Seeded Raisins For 25c. Just as good as the best. Jas. Kelly & Co.

People's Theatre. Paula Peters and her Trained Animals. The Minature A Colored Pathe.

A Woman's Repentance A Grand Drama. The Wayside Thrive Big Feature Picture. Ralph Bragg SINGING. The Man from Nicabar Old Denver Town.

Buy a Barrel of Banner and You'll Have the Best. Banner Flour means much to the economical housewife--it means the best flour that can be bought for baking, at a moderate price.

The MacKinnon Drug Co. DRUGGISTS. Cor Great Geo & Kent Streets.

PAINTING and DECORATING. P. H. TRAINOR & SON. 108 KENT STREET. Charlottetown, P. E. Island. We do all branches of the Painting business.