R. G. Fulton, who left the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference, by transfer, last June, for the British Columbia Conference, and who subsequently resigned his place in the ministry and returned to his native province of New Brunswick, is now living in Woodstock, and is in charge of The Sentinel, a party paper. Mr. Fulton is a strong man, and part of his strength finds outlet in the issues of the paper.—Christian Guardian.

On the 19th day of January, 1910, at Belmont, Rev. Wm Kinley, one of the pioneer Methodist preachers of Manitoba, passed in peaceful triumph to his eternal reward. He was born at West Cape, Oct. 10th, 1840. His early education he received from his father, who used to assemble his children nightly for tuition. So efficient was the father-teacher that he succeeded in leaving the mark of high intellectuality upon his children. In addition to his home instructions he had but six months in the public school before entering Charlottetown Academy. From that institution he entered the ministry of the Bible Christian Church in the year 1861, and held the following pastorate in the East: Ohio, U. S.; Prince Albert, Bowmanville, Welcome, London, Huntington and Wisconsin. He leaves to mourn a wife, five daughters and two sons.
