

In faith and hope the world disagrees but all mankind's concern is love.

Morning Guardian, Founded 1881 Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN The People's Paper Read by Everybody Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1934 8 PAGES

There is more pleasure building castles in the air than on the ground.

Annual Subscription Delivered 65 Cts By Mail Canada and U. S. A. $4.50

Three Killed In Crash Of Big Air Liner

JUNIOR ABBIES WIN WAY TO SEMI-FINALS

HANG 8-1 DEFEAT ON MT'L TEAM

Great Form Exhibited By Locals In Winning Quebec-Maritime Title.

A new page of hockey history was written into the books last night as a brilliant band of Junior Abbies hurdled the Quebec champions, Mount Royal Cranes, to catapult themselves into the Eastern Canadian Junior final to be played at Toronto next week against the winners of the St. Michaels-Ottawa Shamrocks series.

It was a smashing triumph for the Maritime champions as they hammered in eight counters to a lone Crane goal, outplaying the visitors at every stage of the game as sparkling combination efforts carried them through to the goalmouth time and again to harass the over-worked Crane goalie.

(Continued on Page 7)

- ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC. Concert and Sale of Luncheon, North River Hall tonight, 1-1265. Unloading car of Springfield coal at Millar Thursday and Friday, B. C. Webster, 1-1309. See the play "Willowdale," at Brookfield, Friday, March 23rd, 1-1948. Covehead Club leading hogs Tuesday afternoon, March 27th. Please list, J. S. Allen, Secretary, 1-1317. St. Peter's Club leading hogs Tuesday, March 27th. Please list, Geo. J. MacIntosh, Secretary, 1-1319. Come to the Easter Dance in the Abergwee Dance Hall, Borden, Monday, April 2nd, 1-1334. Second only to a visit to the bank o'cakes will be Rev. Dr. Legate's lecture Tuesday in St. James Hall. View and program, Tickets 35c, 1-1321. The Retirement Annuity Bond issued by the Sun Life is a sound system of saving and a sure means of providing for old age. Ask for particulars, J. A. Moore, Mgr., 1-1321.

PAY IN ADVANCE As so many people discharge responsibility for small debts when bills are sent out, in future no such bills will appear unless the order is accompanied with payment. CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

De Valera Seeks Dictatorship In The Free State

Takes Steps To Abolish The Senate When Upper House Blocks Blueshirt Bill.

(By Michael Rooney Associated Press Writer by Guardian's Special Wire) DUBLIN, March 22.—President Eamon De Valera faced charges of trying to escape a personal dictatorship in the Irish Free State with a firm denial tonight and went ahead with plans to attempt to abolish the Senate.

N.B. Shooting Season Is Extended

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 22.—The deer shooting season in New Brunswick will be lengthened by five days, opening September 13 instead of October 20 according to provisions of a bill introduced in the Legislature today by Premier L. F. D. Tilley.

Herd Advances

WINNIPEG, March 22.—(Canadian Press)—Port Williams' thundering herd tonight started its run into the Western Canada Allan Cup finals. Although defeated by Winnipeg Monarchs here 5-4, they took never had a chance to get down series by a 10-7 count and won the right to engage Kimberley Dynamiters here Saturday and Monday.

Insull Delaying Arrival At Port Said, Is Belief

By John Lloyd, Associated Press Foreign Staff. (By Guardian's Special Wire) PORT SAID, Egypt, March 22.—A belief that the good but grimy ship Matolis (Samuel Insull's yacht), is deliberately delaying her arrival here until the vigilance of authorities was expressed tonight when the fifth day passed without news of the fugitive Insull.

LIVELY DEBATE IN OTTAWA OVER RELIEF

Relief Bill For 1934 Planned On Similar Terms As Last Year.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, March 22.—The Dominion Government had paid out for direct relief up to March 18 about $3,000,000 Hon. Wesley Gordon, Minister of Labor, told the House of Commons today. With accounts yet to come in he estimated that the total payment for the fiscal year covered by the Relief Act of 1933 would be somewhat below the limit included in that Act of $20,000,000.

SENATE CLOSES UNIQUE DEBATE

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, March 22.—Without ceremony the Senate today brought to an end one of the most unusual debates ever launched in a Canadian House of Parliament. It was the discussion of Senator Charles Murphy's motion calling attention to the duties of the Senate in the parliamentary structure.

Postpone Date Of Execution

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, March 22.—Execution of Beatrice Bernard Chappelaine, condemned to die for the murder of her husband, Ludger Chappelaine, of East Angus, Que., was today postponed by the Court of Appeal from April 13 to June 26. The change was made to enable an appeal against the verdict and death sentence to be heard by the court.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

Seek Scientist As Head Of Spy Ring

NEW YORK, March 22.—The World-Telegram says today a "foreign scientist," reputed to be the possible directing force behind the international espionage ring now under investigation in Paris, is the object of a hunt by secret agents in New York.

HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ON SUPPLY

For over three hours last evening the Legislature, in committee on supply, debated the Administration of Justice estimates (1934-1935), the chief bone of contention being enforcement of the Prohibition Act by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

ORANGE PEACH BLEND for special occasions

SKIPPER OF RUM CRAFT FACESTRIAL

Captain Ross Mason Charged With Theft of Vessel After Capture.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Assured of a Supreme Court trial, Captain Ross Mason was ready tonight to face a petit jury and answer to the theft accusation which the Crown leveled at him after his motorvessel Kromhout escaped close-guard custody last winter and carried a prize crew to sea.

HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ON SUPPLY

For over three hours last evening the Legislature, in committee on supply, debated the Administration of Justice estimates (1934-1935), the chief bone of contention being enforcement of the Prohibition Act by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

ORANGE PEACH BLEND for special occasions

Two Mountaineers Find Wreckage Of A Second Airship

Bodies Of Nine Victims Uncovered. Crew Killed In Other Disaster With Four Injured

(By the Associated Press) (A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) LIMA, Peru, March 22.—One South American air liner crashed with fatal result Thursday, while the snow-capped Andes yielded the long-hidden wreckage of another and its nine victims.

Stowaway Appeals For Readmission

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, March 22.—In answer to numerous inquiries regarding Catherine Teresa Carr, who arrived in Halifax a few days ago as a stowaway aboard the freighter S. S. Sulairia and is being detained at that port, the Department of Immigration issued the following statement here tonight.

UNEARTH "SPIES" NEST

PARIS, March 22.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A "spies' nest," with secret panels and other tricks described in mystery thrillers, were found today in a search for further evidence against an espionage band.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

SKIPPER OF RUM CRAFT FACESTRIAL

Captain Ross Mason Charged With Theft of Vessel After Capture.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Assured of a Supreme Court trial, Captain Ross Mason was ready tonight to face a petit jury and answer to the theft accusation which the Crown leveled at him after his motorvessel Kromhout escaped close-guard custody last winter and carried a prize crew to sea.

HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ON SUPPLY

For over three hours last evening the Legislature, in committee on supply, debated the Administration of Justice estimates (1934-1935), the chief bone of contention being enforcement of the Prohibition Act by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

ORANGE PEACH BLEND for special occasions

THE ONLY THING ABOUT SOME FOLKS ARE THEIR BRAINS! Little Tot Doing Well

SKIPPER OF RUM CRAFT FACESTRIAL

Captain Ross Mason Charged With Theft of Vessel After Capture.

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Assured of a Supreme Court trial, Captain Ross Mason was ready tonight to face a petit jury and answer to the theft accusation which the Crown leveled at him after his motorvessel Kromhout escaped close-guard custody last winter and carried a prize crew to sea.

HOUSE IN COMMITTEE ON SUPPLY

For over three hours last evening the Legislature, in committee on supply, debated the Administration of Justice estimates (1934-1935), the chief bone of contention being enforcement of the Prohibition Act by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

MacDonald To Be Tried For Murder

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, March 22.—Douglas "Red" MacDonald will go on trial for his life before the supreme court of Nova Scotia next week. The grand jury today returned a verdict of murder against the former pugilist, accused of the murder of Marie Thibault, who died in hospital from severe head wounds after being picked up unconscious on the street near the restaurant where she worked.

Maritimer Passes

CORNWALL, Ont., March 22.—(Canadian Press)—William K. Lyall, a native of Halifax and for 26 years a representative of Forbes Bros., Montreal, wholesale grocers, died here today. He was a son of William Lyall, a professor at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

ORANGE PEACH BLEND for special occasions

THE ONLY THING ABOUT SOME FOLKS ARE THEIR BRAINS! Little Tot Doing Well

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, March 22.—Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson 0B 4, Ahlavi 0 20, Zero 60, Vancouver 28 60, Edmonton 20 32, Regina 18 30, Winnipeg 16 22, Toronto 18 30, Kingston 16 22, Ottawa 16 22, Montreal 18 30, Quebec 16 22, Saint John 16 22, Halifax 16 22, Charlottetown 16 22.

FORECAST Maritime Provinces—Strong northerly winds; much colder with local snow flurries. (Canadian Press) METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, March 22.—Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson 0B 4, Ahlavi 0 20, Zero 60, Vancouver 28 60, Edmonton 20 32, Regina 18 30, Winnipeg 16 22, Toronto 18 30, Kingston 16 22, Ottawa 16 22, Montreal 18 30, Quebec 16 22, Saint John 16 22, Halifax 16 22, Charlottetown 16 22.

CAR FERRY SCHEDULE Week days—Leaving Borden 8:15, Week days—Leaving Cape Tormentine 10:30 a.m. (Extra); 2:35 p.m. (Extra); 4:15 p.m. (Extra).